DEDICATION

The 2011 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memory of former Dolphins tackle Anthony Cesario, guard Harry Galbreath, safety Barry Hill, tackle Eric Laakso, defensive tackle Shawn Lee and tight end/broadcaster Jim Mandich, each of whom passed away in the past year.

On April 26, 2011, the Miami Dolphin organization mourned the passing of Mandich, a member of the Dolphins family both on and off the field for more than 40 years who left an imprint that was both unique and authentic.

He was a popular tight end best known as "Mad Dog" for his tenacious and relentless attitude on the great Dolphins Super Bowl teams in the 1970s, playing for the club from 1970 through 1977. He was a member of two Super Bowl winning squads (1972, 1973), including the Perfect Season team, and three AFC Championship teams.

Mandich finished his career with the Dolphins with 121 receptions for 1,406 yards and 23 touchdowns. When he left the Dolphins, he ranked sixth in team annals in receptions, tied for second in touchdown catches, and tied for seventh in scoring. Even now, in current Dolphin history, he is second among tight ends in scoring, fifth in receptions and second in touchdown catches.

After his playing career ended, Mandich embarked on a successful business and civic career in South Florida and became a beloved member of the Dolphin broadcast team for 17 years. His famous "All Right, Miami!" exclamation after exciting Dolphin plays became his hallmark catch phrase. His passion for the team was evident in every broadcast he did, and his unique on-air presence and personality captivated Dolphins fans everywhere.

Mandich was always there to help the members of the Dolphins family as a broadcaster and as fundraiser, leading his weekly "Touchdown Club" for ten years that contributed more than $300,000 to help former players who have fallen on hard times. He also played a lead role in the formation of the Dolphins Cycling Challenge, that in its inaugural year had more than 400 cyclists taking part from November 20-21, 2010 to cycle across three South Florida counties and raise $533,106 to support cancer research and treatment for the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.

A public memorial service to celebrate the life and achievements of Mandich was held on May 4, 2011 in front of a crowd of several thousand fans at Sun Life Stadium. At the celebration it was announced that Mandich will be inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll as a "Special Contributor."

Cesario, who passed away September 25, 2011 at the age of 34, was on the practice squad of the Dolphins in 2001. He began his three-year NFL career as a third-round draft choice of Jacksonville in 1999.

An eighth-round draft choice of the Dolphins in 1988 from the University of Tennessee, Galbreath, passed away July 27, 2010, at the age of 45. He played with Miami from 1988-92 and went on to play with the Packers and Jets during his nine-year NFL career.

One of the first players from Palm Beach County to play for the Dolphins, Hill passed away December 29, 2010 at the age of 57. He was drafted in the fifth round of the 1975 Draft and played 20 games with the Dolphins before six knee operations - three on each knee - ended his career.

A veteran of two Super Bowls with Miami, Laakso, who passed away December 25, 2010 at the age of 54, played with the Dolphins from 1978-84 after joining the team as a third-round draft choice from Tulane in 1978.

Lee, who passed away April 26, 2011, at the age of 44, played with the Dolphins from 1990-91. An 11-year NFL veteran, Lee also played with Tampa Bay, San Diego and Chicago.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON LIVE

The Dolphins will travel to New England on Christmas Eve Day to battle the Patriots on Saturday, December 24 at 1 p.m. The game at New England will be Miami's 26th game ever played on a Saturday and the first Saturday regular season game since December 24, 2005, at home against Tennessee. Overall, the Dolphins own a 10-13-2 record playing on Saturdays.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

For more than 45 years, the Miami Dolphins franchise has been part of the fabric of South Florida that extends well beyond our field of play. We are committed to being “the team of the community” both through the Miami Dolphins Foundation and the efforts of our entire organization, including our players, coaches and staff.

This past year was a pivotal and exciting time for the Miami Dolphins Foundation as we established our four cornerstone initiatives: Health, Education, Youth Fitness and Volunteerism. We believe these exciting new activities and signature programs will make significant contributions and leave lasting imprints on our South Florida community.

In 2010, we continued and expanded our long-time community educational efforts such as our Most Valuable Reader Program as well as our youth programs with a multitude of fitness, junior cheer-leader and youth football camps. In conjunction with our stadium's naming rights partner, Sun Life Financial, we launched the Sun Life Rising Stars program which awarded $220,000 for four individual college scholarships and four grants to non-profit organizations which demonstrate a commitment to success in the classroom. To assist in the research that will one day help tackle cancer, we established the inaugural Dolphins Cycling Challenge, a 170-mile bike ride across South Florida. The DCC drew more than 400 riders of all ages and raised more than $533,000 for the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Miami. This event will continue to be a trademark of our Foundation in coming years and we believe will raise millions for cancer research and treatment. Assisting the Dolphins in the Challenge, and in every other community project this year, was our amazing volunteer organization, the Miami Dolphins Special Teams. This one-of-a-kind program attracted more than 3,100 volunteers who contributed more than 43,000 hours of community service both in South Florida as well as other regions in and outside of the United States. These volunteers, wearing their bright orange Special Teams shirts, have donated their time for projects including neighborhood cleanups, food giveaways, school beautifications and manning all community events sponsored by the Dolphins.

FOUNDATION CORNERSTONE INITIATIVES

- HEALTH -

DOLPHINS CYCLING CHALLENGE: Although the Dolphins family lost alumnus and radio voice Jim “Mad Dog” Mandich to cancer, his energy and spirit live on through the Dolphins Cycling Challenge. The organization responded to his initial diagnosis by creating this unique event to bring South Florida together to tackle this disease and assist an innovative and expanding Florida medical institution, the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Miami. More than 300 adult riders, including Dolphins legends Nat Moore, Zach Thomas, Kim Bokamper and Dick Anderson, pedaled routes ranging from 30 to 170 miles throughout South Florida. Additionally, kids ages three through 13 demonstrated their support for cancer research by riding several courses located on the grounds of Sun Life Stadium. Every dollar of the $533,106 raised by the riders went directly to the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.

- EDUCATION -

SUN LIFE RISING STAR AND MOST VALUABLE READER PROGRAMS: The Dolphins organization is dedicated to making sure that our kids are equipped with the tools necessary to instill the joy of reading and learning at an early age. The team enthusiastically supports several education and literacy programs throughout Florida, highlighted by the Sun Life Rising Stars and Most Valuable Reader programs. Through the Rising Stars in 2010, the Dolphins and Sun Life Financial gave four area education programs $50,000 grants and also rewarded four area students with $5,000 college scholarships. Through our Most Valuable Readers program, the Dolphins made a $60,000 annual commitment to state libraries in which children exchange reading credits for the opportunity to attend Dolphins games or receive other incentives.

- YOUTH FITNESS -

DOLPHINS YOUTH ATHLETIC PROGRAMS: The importance of education, physical fitness and positive choices are the principles taught by Director of Youth Programs and former Dolphins linebacker, Twan Russell, and his staff through the Dol-Fit program, Gatorade Junior Training Camp program, Girl's Flag Football, High School Player Development 7-on-7 program, Summer Football/Cheer Camp and various other Dolphins Academy programs. In 2010 alone, more than 160,000 children's lives were transformed by our Dolphins Academy athletic and school programs. Since 1996, more than 700,000 children pledged to become Dol-Fit and, since 2006, over 350,000 children have participated in our athletic programs.

- VOLUNTEERISM -

SPECIAL TEAMS: The Dolphins Special Teams pull together volunteers from throughout South Florida to donate their sweat equity for worthy community projects. More than 3,100 individuals donated over 43,000 hours its first year. The first of its kind in the NFL, Dolphins Special Teams lent their support to programs and projects that included the Dolphins Touchdown For Life Blood Drive, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, clearing out an old army facility in Orlando to create a new children's park, working with the local Boys & Girls Clubs to beautify several of their facilities and teaming up with Feeding South Florida at area events. Special Teams even went international to assist a shelter for the physically and mentally disabled in Mexico City.

ADDITIONAL COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

TOUCHDOWN FOR LIFE BLOOD DRIVE: The Dolphins held the 2nd Annual "Touchdown For Life" blood drive at Sun Life Stadium in 2010 and broke their own state-record for a single-site, one-day blood drive in Florida with 1,567 participants registered. The inaugural blood drive in 2009 attracted 1,003 blood donors. Recent natural disasters like the earthquakes in Haiti and Chile and Hurricane Katrina five years ago have increased people's awareness about the importance of having a large enough supply of blood to treat patients.

COMBATING HUNGER & POVERTY: The Dolphins organization works with partners such as Publix Supermarkets to provide 200,000 meals each year to community programs including Feeding South Florida and LifeNet4Families. The largest of these events is the annual Thanksgiving Meal Giveaway, in which Dolphins players and coaches donate and deliver complete meals to area families and serve food at local soup kitchens. In 2010, the Thanksgiving Food Giveaway single event fed more than 24,000 deserving people throughout our region.

In all, the Miami Dolphins-Sun Life Haiti Relief Fund donated more than $150,000 to health organizations in Haiti and Miami's Little Haiti. On Easter, the Dolphins began the Haiti Connect initiative, which allowed children receiving medical care in South Florida to see and communicate with their families back in Haiti by using the cutting edge Cisco Telepresence system. The team also worked closely with Project Medishare to donate resources to the hospital in Port Au Prince, fund urgently needed prosthetic limbs and assist Shelter Box to provide tents and cooking facilities in Haiti.

Head Coach Tony Sparano takes part in the Dolphins Foundation Golf Tournament as part of the annual FinsWeekend.

A CELEBRATION OF GIVING: The team's annual Fins Weekend Fishing and Golf Tournaments allow generous Dolphins fans to spend a weekend with the organization, including their favorite players, while raising money for Miami Dolphins Foundation programs. In 2010, the 14th annual weekend had more than 1,000 people gather to interact with players, coaches and alumni while competing for golf, fishing and auction prizes. In 2010, FinsWeekend raised more than $500,000, allowing the Foundation to fund its signature programs in the areas of health, education, youth fitness and volunteerism.

MIAMI DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins take great pride in playing an active role in the South Florida community. By lending support to both civic and community based charitable causes, the Dolphins are able to make an impact in the lives of those who need it the most. The assistance that the Dolphins are able to provide comes from the teamwork of coaches, players, alumni, cheerleaders, T.D. (the Dolphins' mascot), staff and members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization working together toward the common goals of helping those in need and supporting the community that has always been there to support the Dolphins.

When the final chapter of 2010 was written, members of the Dolphins organization made more than 1,200 community appearances totaling more than 4,600 hours and reaching 650,500 of our fellow Floridians. The team said yes to more than 99-percent of the requests it received from charitable organizations and distributed 2,600 donations throughout the state.

- EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS -

The Miami Dolphins understand that the education of the youth of South Florida is of utmost importance. For this reason, the Dolphins have partnered with both Broward and Miami-Dade County Public Schools on several extensive programs. In 2008, the Miami Dolphins received the Commissioner of Education Awards for their partnerships with Miami-Dade and Broward County Public Schools.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK PROGRAM: The Miami Dolphins honor a selected student from each of their 20 partner schools at all of the team's regular season home games. The students are selected by their principals and teachers for their citizenship and classroom achievements. In recognition of their accomplishments, they are presented with a plaque during an on-field presentation. Publix also donates a $25 gift certificate to each Student of the Week.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARDS: One teacher from each partner school is selected as a Teacher of the Year and is recognized for their accomplishments during a pregame, on-field presentation.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP: A $2,000 scholarship is awarded annually to both a Miami Carol City High School and Miramar High School senior who demonstrates strong community service along with a solid academic performance. A $1,000 honorable mention scholarship is also awarded.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM AT THE LIBRARIES: The Miami Dolphins are the first team to partner with the entire State of Florida Library System for a Summer Reading Program. The Miami Dolphins also partner locally with the libraries in Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties. Each year, the club extends its support which includes funding reading incentives such as posters, signed hats and footballs and Miami Dolphins teddy bears signed by the Dolphins players. Prizes are also distributed state-wide to kids for summer reading prizes sponsored by the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

The Miami Dolphins Woman's Organization is comprised of the wives/girlfriends of staff and players and has participated in charitable endeavors such as the Susan G. Komen Walk For a Cure.

Dolphins players, alumni and cheerleaders make appearances at local libraries in Broward, Miami-Dade, Palm Beach and Southwest Florida counties in conjunction with their summer reading programs. In addition, the Dolphins offer prizes to the kids including tickets and a VIP experience for the top winners to attend training camp practice as a VIP for the day. The team also sponsors Broward's summer reading game, which is distributed to 20,000 children. The Miami Dolphins Foundation sponsors the programs.

MOST VALUABLE READER: The Miami Dolphins have joined forces with local libraries and schools in encouraging South Florida's youth to read by developing the Most Valuable Reader Program. This year-round initiative provides incentives for children to read. Kids have the chance to read books in exchange for the opportunity to attend a Dolphins home game. Other events at the libraries include Teen Read Week, Children's Book Week and the Books & Bears program.

COMMIT 2B FIT: The Miami Dolphins have teamed up with the Commit 2B Fit Program, which promotes physical activity and healthy eating to more than 45,000 students and their families in South Florida. Dolphins players, alumni and cheerleaders visit schools to speak to children. Kids also receive incentives such as Dolphins charms and rulers.

EMPTY BOWLS: The Miami Dolphins work with Broward County Public Schools on the Empty Bowls Program, which gives students an opportunity to fight hunger and poverty. Dolphins players make visits to schools to make bowls with the children. More than 82 schools have signed up for the program each year, helping to raise more than $32,000 annually for a variety of charities, including the Cooperative Feeding Program and Broward Partnership for the Homeless.

KIDS AND FINS PUBLIX SHOPPING SPREE HOSTED BY RONNIE BROWN, DAN CARPENTER AND CHANNING CROWDER: One hundred kids are given the opportunity to shop with a player, alumni or cheerleader with a $100 Publix gift certificate for a Thanksgiving meal. The event includes a party prior to their shopping experience.

BACKPACK AND SCHOOL SUPPLY GIVEAWAY: 150 children from Miami-Dade and Broward schools and additional local charities are invited to the Dolphins Practice Bubble for a party to receive backpacks and school supplies. The event also includes dance contests for the kids judged by the players for prizes.

- FEEDING THOSE IN NEED -

The Miami Dolphins have an ongoing relationship with Feeding South Florida, an organization that provides food to the needy throughout South Florida. The Miami Dolphins team up with Feeding South Florida on the following projects:

THANKSGIVING TURKEY GIVEAWAY: The Dolphins organization, along with the coaches, players and staff, contribute monetary donations to purchase more than 1,800 Thanksgiving meals to feed underprivileged people in South Florida. Dolphins players join volunteers from Feeding South Florida to distribute turkeys to various agencies affiliated with Feeding South Florida.

Jeanette Sparano, wife of Head Coach Tony Sparano, and safety Jeremiah Bell make a school visit to promote literacy.

Quarterback Chad Henne shops with a child during the Kids and Fins Publix Shopping Spree.

SHOP WITH A FIN – Ten Dolphins players each shop at Publix with a family selected by the Cooperative Feeding Program. The families also attend a Dolphins home game.

- COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT -

NFL TUESDAYS: NFL Tuesdays are the traditional day off for NFL players during the season, but many players use the day off to go to work in their communities. Visiting children in the hospital, speaking to high school football teams or reading books to children are just a few of the activities Miami Dolphins players participate in on their day off during the season.

DOLPHINS COMMUNITY BLITZ: The Tuesday before Christmas, Dolphins players, alumni, cheerleaders, members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization and staff visit different charities in our community to spread holiday cheer. In 2010, the Dolphins served food at the Cooperative Feeding Program, handed out food with Feeding South Florida in Opa-Locka, took 20 kids from the Boys and Girls Club shopping at Dick's Sporting Goods and visited Doctor's Hospital and Miami Children's Hospital.

HOLIDAY HOSPITAL VISITS: Each year during the holiday season, Dolphins players, cheerleaders and mascot, T.D., visit area hospitals to brighten the spirits of sick children and military veterans who are not able to go home for the holidays. While at the hospitals, the players, cheerleaders and mascot visit with the children and veterans, take pictures with them, sign autographs and give out Dolphins souvenirs. In 2010, the Miami Dolphins visited Broward Health, Doctor's Hospital, Jackson, Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital and Miami Children's Hospital.

HOLIDAY TOY EVENT: Dolphins players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff make toy donations during the holidays to various organizations in the community that are in need. More than 175 kids from Miami-Dade and Broward County Public Elementary schools and kids from H.A.N.D.Y. and Forever Family are invited to a holiday celebration at the Miami Dolphins Training Facility.

NFL STUDENT ALL-STAR PROGRAM: The NFL Student All-Star Program is an NFL initiative that awards small level grants to help finance student-initiated proposals on how to better the community. The goal of the program is to promote community investment and volunteerism in children. Five winning organizations receive a grant of $400 to help fund their service projects.

NFL JUNIOR COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK: The NFL Junior Community Quarterback Award recognizes student-initiated projects focusing on community betterment. The program awards a $3,000 grant to a student partnered with a 501(c)(3) organization for their project.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS: In 2010, the Miami Dolphins Foundation made a donation to the Susan G. Komen For The Cure. In addition, the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization participated in the Susan G. Komen for the Cure Walk in Miami.

WALKABOUT AUTISM: The inaugural Dan Marino Foundation WalkAbout Autism event attracted an estimated 6,000 walkers to Sun Life Stadium and raised more than $500,000 for numerous local autism organizations. Leading the way was Marino, his wife Claire and 22-year-old autistic son, Michael. They were joined by Dolphins General Manager Jeff Ireland, his wife Rachel and their twin 15-year-old daughters, Haley and Hannah, who also are autistic.

CANNED FOOD DRIVE: Each year the “Fins and Fans Tackle Hunger” canned food drive is held at a Dolphins home game prior to Thanksgiving. Fans are encouraged to deposit canned goods and other non-perishable food items in collection containers located at each entrance to the stadium.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS: As part of Breast Cancer Awareness month, the wives and girlfriends of Dolphins players, coaches and staff pass out pink ribbons to fans. In addition, the team, cheerleaders and staff all wear pink in support of the cause, the players’ jerseys being auctioned off after the game to support the battle against breast cancer.

FAMILY FALL FESTIVAL: The Family Fall Festival was created to provide an entertaining, educational and safe event for children and families seeking a more family-oriented celebration of fall. The Festival provides entertainment, carnival rides, face painting, food and candy bags for children.

SICKLE CELL WALK: The Stadium plays host to an annual walk/run in support of The Sickle Cell Disease Association of America, Miami-Dade County Chapter, Inc. to help improve the quality of life for people with the Sickle Cell disease.

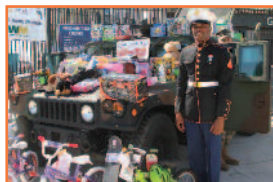

TOYS FOR TOTS: Each year, at a Miami Dolphins home game in December, the team sponsors an annual toy drive for underprivileged children in the South Florida community. Finatics are encouraged to drop off new, unwrapped toys at entry gates on their way into the stadium. The toys are then distributed through the United States Marine Corps to the less fortunate families in the local area.

COMMUNITY QUOTE SHEET

"I have never been more proud to be affiliated with the Miami Dolphins than I was during the DCC. This event demonstrates how a beloved sports team can transcend the field of play and have an impact on thousands of families, including mine, for generations to come."

Late Dolphins Tight End and Broadcaster Jim Mandich

"Through the Student of the Week program, the Dolphins have provided a flexible and powerful tool for our schools to motivate their students. We are grateful for the strong commitment the Dolphins have shown to the students of Broward County"

Janet Del Pinal, Community Involvement Broward Public Schools

"I opened this stadium in 1987 and there have been a lot of great memories and this will be a special memory, too. I think this is something that we have started that I think we can build on and make an incredible impact over the years throughout South Florida. To have it here is great. It's our place."

Hall of Fame Quarterback Dan Marino (on the WalkAbout event)

"We greatly appreciate our partnership with the Miami Dolphins. Together, we've been able to impact over 160,000 children in South Florida, giving them the tools and education needed to create healthier lifestyles."

Michelle Schect, Co-Founder of Commit 2B Fit

"The partnership with the Miami Dolphins, Publix and the school board has just been fantastic. It breaks your heart to hear some of these kids' stories, but anything we can do to help put a smile on their face is extremely worthwhile and for a great cause."

Bill Fauerbach, V.P. of Retail Operations for Publix Supermarkets, Miami Division

"As a player, there's nothing greater that I can emphasize to students than the importance of their education. I have seen firsthand how these programs benefit Florida's next generation."

Fullback Lousaka Polite

"It's a special day when we get to serve dinners and thank our fans for their support. It also gives us a perfect platform to draw attention to the needs in our community and remind people that we can all find a way to help our neighbors."

Pro Bowl Tackle Jake Long

The Dolphins' commitment to the underserved knows no boundaries. Through the generosity of the players and coaches and the hard work of the Special Teams volunteer force, the impact that the Miami Dolphins and their players have on those who need it most is truly beyond words."

Brian Phelan, Feeding South Florida

"I know I'll never carry a football on a Sunday afternoon on national television, or score a Dolphins touchdown, but when we come into a community with our orange T-shirts, people know we're there to help. It makes me proud to be a part of the Dolphins' team and give back like I never have before."

Jessica Haider, Special Teams Participant

"It would have been really cool for me to get school supplies from a professional player growing up. I remember I was excited to get a backpack from my mom and getting it from a professional athlete, the cheerleaders and T.D. is very special."

Dansby's Difference Makers

For the sixth straight season in 2010, many Miami Dolphins players and coaches made the dreams of underprivileged children come true through the team's All-Community Team program.

The Dolphins "All-Community Team" program allows players and coaches to purchase a block of tickets to all Miami Dolphins regular season home games and donate them to a charitable organization of their choice. Their chosen charities then distribute the tickets to youth groups or others associated with their organization so the recipients have the chance to experience a Dolphins game at Sun Life Stadium.

Players and coaches who participate in the Legacy All Community Team program provide 100 game tickets, T-shirts and food vouchers, good for a hot dog, popcorn and a soft drink, for charitable organizations for each of the Dolphins eight regular season home games.

All-Community Team participants treat each of the 20 members of their chosen charities with a game day ticket and a food voucher for each of the Dolphins regular season home games.

- 3. To be active participants in the community.

STEPHEN M. ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD/MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: FOURTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Founder of Related Companies, an international real estate firm, began his ownership interest in the Miami Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50% partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, Sun Life Stadium, and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95% ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium, which culminated one of his long-held dreams; Mr. Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Under Mr. Ross' leadership, the Dolphins have become one of the most fan-friendly teams in the National Football League. They have significantly expanded the Miami Dolphins Foundation's presence in the South Florida community with a host of new civic and charitable initiatives. The team also has improved the game-day experience for their fans by upgrading all facets of stadium operations and by introducing amenities and events that have made Dolphins home games the place to be during the fall. On the football side, Mr. Ross has lived up to his pledge to provide the coaches, staff and players all of the necessary resources to build a winning team.

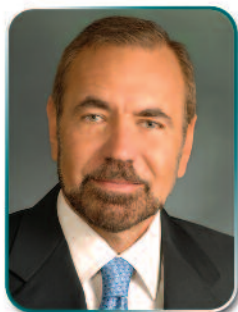

Mr. Ross, a resident of Palm Beach and New York, formed Related in 1972. Today, the company is considered the most prominent privately owned real estate firm in the United States, with expertise in fund management, development, acquisitions, property management, marketing, and sales. Related has real estate assets valued at $15 billion and has developed $20 billion in real estate assets including the landmark Time Warner Center in New York City and CityPlace in West Palm Beach.

Mr. Ross began his career in Detroit, Michigan as a tax attorney and later moved to New York where he specialized in real estate and corporate finance at two investment banking firms immediately prior to founding Related. Mr. Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He then received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011 the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

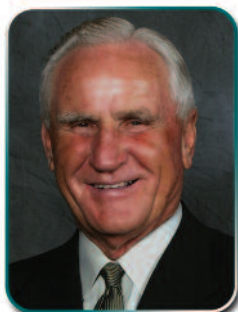

Mr. Ross is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Equinox Holdings, Inc. and chairperson emeritus of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), the city's leading real estate trade association. As a member of the Board of Trustees of the Guggenheim Foundation, Mr. Ross was involved in the planning of a major renovation of the Frank Lloyd Wright iconic building in New York and other new museums. He is a trustee of New York Presbyterian Hospital, the Urban Land Institute, the NY Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International, the Levin Institute, and is a director of the Jackie Robinson Foundation and the World Resources Institute. He also serves on the Executive Committee and is a trustee of Lincoln Center.

Over the years, Mr. Ross has received numerous honors for his business, civic, and philanthropic activities. Mr. Ross' alma mater, Miami Beach High School, named its football field Ross Field, in recognition of his work to spearhead the refurbishment of that facility. Before that, he was named the Most Powerful Person in New York Real Estate by the New York Observer, Multi-Family Property Executive of the Year by Commercial Property News, and Housing Person of the Year by the National Housing Conference. He also received The National Building Museum Honor Award, REBNY's Harry B. Helmsley Distinguished New Yorker Award and the Jack D. Weiler Award from UJA. Crain's New York named Mr. Ross one of the 100 Most Influential Leaders in Business and Mr. Ross was recognized by NYC & Company with their Leadership in Tourism Award.

MIKE DEE

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL
NFL: THIRD SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Mike Dee was named as Chief Executive Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium by Stephen M. Ross on May 3, 2009. Dee came to South Florida and the NFL after a distinguished 15-year career in Major League Baseball, where he played a lead role in the resurgence of two franchises and was a member of two World Series Championship teams.

Since joining the Dolphins, Dee has laid out the three fundamental commitments that guide the franchise during the Ross ownership era: 1) To put a team on the field worthy of the fans' support with the goal of competing for a playoff berth each season; 2) To consistently strive to enhance the fan experience at Sun Life Stadium and aggressively market the team to a broad region and diverse fan base; and 3) To be active participants in the community.

Dee has spearheaded the team's efforts to live up to these commitments. In order to grow the club's fan base, he created a series of programs in the western and central regions of the state and worked tirelessly to improve the game-day experience for the team's fans by implementing a host of entertainment and culinary innovations that has made the atmosphere at Dolphins home games unique in the NFL. On the business side, Dee finalized a ground-breaking naming rights deal for the stadium with Sun Life Financial, revamped and improved the club's broadcast and internet platforms and developed a series of customized programs designed to enhance the team's relationship with its business partners. Dee has also placed a particular emphasis on the club's community relations efforts, having introduced a host of new charitable initiatives, such as the team's annual blood drive and the Dolphin Cycling Challenge to benefit Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.

After beginning his sports career in San Diego with the Padres (1995-2002), Dee followed his mentor, CEO Larry Lucchino, to Boston and assumed the role of Executive Vice President of Business Affairs for the Red Sox. He was promoted to Chief Operating Officer in 2004, a position he held until his departure to join the Dolphins. During his tenure in Boston, the Red Sox won two World Series titles and set franchise records for attendance and revenue each year – including an MLB record for consecutive sellouts dating back to 2003. Other noteworthy achievements while in Boston include bringing annual concerts to Fenway Park and directing the expansion of the team's business and real estate interests that stemmed from the eight-year renovation of Fenway Park and the surrounding neighborhood. Dee also has a history of working in the Sunshine State, having consummated a 30-year agreement with Lee County Florida to build the Red Sox a publicly-financed Spring Training facility that is set to open in 2012.

Dee also served as President of Fenway Sports Group, a company that he created in 2004 under the direction of Red Sox owners John Henry and Tom Werner. An enterprise charged with diversifying the business interests of the Red Sox beyond baseball, FSG developed a wide array of endeavors across the sports and media landscape. In February, 2007, FSG acquired a 50% interest in Roush Racing and formed what is known today as Roush Fenway Racing, NASCAR's largest race team. Dee served on the board of Roush Fenway as a Managing Director, during which time the team won two notable championships – Carl Edwards' 2007 Busch Series Championship and Matt Kenseth's Daytona 500 victory in February 2009.

Dee is active in many different charitable and philanthropic activities and serves on the board of the Pan Mass Challenge, a cycling event and the nation's largest athletic fundraiser. To date, the Pan Mass Challenge has raised more than $260 million for cancer research. Dee is an avid cyclist and rides in the event each August.

Dee attended Franklin & Marshall College in Lancaster, Penn., where he played basketball and earned a degree in government. He currently serves on the Advisory Board at F&M.

Dee and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Spencer (11) and Tommy (9).

JEFF IRELAND

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: BAYLOR
NFL: 15TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Jeff Ireland was named as the Dolphins' General Manager on January 2, 2008. He joined the club after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, including his last three seasons there as the team's Vice President of College and Pro Scouting.

In his role with the Dolphins, Ireland is not only responsible for overseeing and coordinating the college and pro personnel departments, but also helps manage the team's salary cap and player contracts. He supervises all scouting efforts that relate to the college draft, free agency, the Canadian Football League, and personnel of the other 31 NFL teams. Ireland works hand in hand with Head Coach Tony Sparano in implementing a personnel plan to build the Dolphins into a championship caliber team.

In Ireland's three seasons in Miami, he already has seen some of his acquisitions play a key role in the development of the team. This past season, Jake Long made the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive year while Cameron Wake and Randy Starks blossomed into Pro Bowl performers for the first time. Veteran acquisitions such as Brandon Marshall, Karlos Dansby and Richie Incognito were major contributors to the Dolphins, while rookie draft choice Koa Misi was a starter for the team all season. Following the 2010 season, Ireland significantly upgraded the team's offense through the college draft.

In 2009, quarterback Chad Henne, seeing his first significant playing time, won seven of his 13 starts and so far in his career already has accumulated more 300-yard passing games than any quarterback other than Dan Marino in Dolphin history. Rookies also made an immediate impact as Vontae Davis and Sean Smith excelled as starters together in the team's defensive backfield while Brian Hartline made important contributions offensively.

Inheriting a 1-15 team in 2008, Ireland's first season in Miami, he worked with Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells and Sparano to overhaul the team's roster. Their efforts resulted in an 11-5 mark, the AFC East title and a playoff berth, a turnaround unprecedented in NFL annals.

Ireland replaced almost half of the roster, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. One of those newcomers, quarterback Chad Pennington, went on to win the NFL Comeback Player of the Year award and finished tied for second in voting for the league's Most Valuable Player award.

Also among the new faces Ireland brought on board in 2008 were 11 rookies who made the team, including eight draft choices, three of whom were in the opening day starting lineup. Long, the team's first pick of the draft, went on to earn Pro Bowl honors at the conclusion of the season. Ireland added rookie talent beyond the draft, as Davone Bess had the second-highest single-season reception total in the last 40 years among undrafted college free agents in their rookie season, while rookie free agent kicker Dan Carpenter led the Dolphins in scoring.

In 2007, Ireland's last season in Dallas, the Cowboys went 13-3 and won the NFC East title. Of the 53 players on the active roster, 38 had been acquired over the three years (2005-07) Ireland served as the team's Vice President of Scouting. Seven of those players made the Pro Bowl during that time, including DeMarcus Ware (Ireland's first pick as the team's lead scout), fellow 2005 fourth round selections Chris Canty and Marion Barber, 2007 draft choice Nick Folk and two free agent acquisitions that season, Leonard Davis and Ken Hamlin. In addition, since Ireland arrived in Dallas, seven other Cowboys made their Pro Bowl debuts.

Ireland began his tenure with the Cowboys as the team's national scout in 2001, evaluating all of the top collegiate prospects in the country. In his four years in that role, his skill as a talent evaluator helped lead to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers, Roy Williams (who was selected five straight years), Terence Newman, Andre Gurode and Jason Witten.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ireland spent four years in Kansas City as an area scout helping the Chiefs draft players like Dante Hall in the fifth round and Greg Wesley in the third round. Ireland started his NFL career evaluating talent as an area scout for the National Football Scouting Combine from 1994-1996.

Before becoming a full-time talent evaluator, Ireland helped coach special teams at the University of North Texas from 1992-1993. He was a four-year starter as a placekicker at Baylor University from 1988-1991, finishing his collegiate career third on Baylor's all time scoring list with 213 points. His 45 career field goals, which included a 58-yard effort against Rice in 1991, established a school record for field goals made. Following his senior season he was selected as the South team's kicker in the 1992 Senior Bowl.

Ireland, an Abilene, Texas native, is the stepson of Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame linebacker/center E.J. Holub and the grandson of former Philadelphia Eagles player and longtime Chicago Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer. Jeff and his wife, Rachel, have three daughters, Annie and twins Haley and Hannah, and a son, Riley.

DAWN APONTE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: DELAWARE
NFL: 21ST SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Dawn Aponte, entering her second season with the Miami Dolphins, joined the team on February 1, 2010, bringing with her a wealth of football experience at the team and league level. Aponte works closely with General Manager Jeff Ireland on football administrative matters and serves as the team's chief contract negotiator. She is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Dolphins salary cap, negotiating and drafting player contracts and overseeing the football operations budgets. Aponte also serves as the team's liaison on league affairs.

A veteran football executive, Aponte joined the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season as Vice President of Football Administration for the Cleveland Browns. In her role with the Browns, Aponte's primary responsibilities included player contract negotiations, salary cap management, player cost budgeting, league compliance and assisting in other legal matters.

Aponte joined the Browns organization in 2009 after spending the previous three years at the NFL office, where she served on the League's Management Council as the Vice President of Labor Finance. In her position at the NFL Management Council, Aponte represented the 32 clubs in dealings with the NFL Players Association and Class Counsel on salary cap and other labor related matters. She also dealt with the clubs on CBA, salary cap and player contract matters. Aponte served on the Management Council Working Club Executive Committee and worked with the ten-member owner committee (Management Council Executive Committee) on collective bargaining issues and labor related matters.

Prior to joining the league office, Aponte worked for the New York Jets for nearly 15 years in various capacities, most recently as the club's Senior Director of Football Administration. In this role, she worked closely with the Assistant General Manager on matters pertaining to the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, player contract negotiations and salary cap management. Aponte graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Delaware in 1993 and passed the C.P.A. exam shortly thereafter. She went on to receive her Master's degree in Finance and Management from Wagner College in 1999, then continued on to earn her Juris Doctorate from New York Law School and is a member of the New York State Bar.

TODD BOYAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS-SUN LIFE STADIUM

COLLEGE: GEORGETOWN
NFL: 17TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: EIGHTH SEASON

Todd Boyan is Senior Vice President of Operations-Sun Life Stadium and has been in the NFL for the past 16 years. Sun Life Stadium is the home of the Miami Dolphins (NFL), Florida Marlins (MLB), Orange Bowl (BCS), University of Miami Hurricanes (NCAA) and other world-class events. Boyan is responsible for all aspects of stadium operations and oversees engineering, grounds, guest services, housekeeping, operations, parking, and security, and coordinates event logistics with various local, state and federal governmental agencies. He is highly regarded within the facility's industry and is regularly called upon by the NFL and others to consult or provide expertise.

During Boyan's tenure, Sun Life Stadium has hosted numerous national and international sporting events including Super Bowl XLI in 2007, the BCS National Championship game in 2009, the 2010 Pro Bowl, and Super Bowl XLIV in 2010. The stadium had the distinction of being the first to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the US mainland in 30 years. Sun Life Stadium is recognized throughout the industry as one of the finest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to the stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Since Boyan joined Sun Life Stadium in 2006, he has played an integral role in securing some of the biggest music artists to perform at the venue including The Police (2007), Madonna (Sticky and Sweet Tour in 2008), Paul McCartney, and U2 (360 Tour in 2011). In addition to these high profile concerts, the stadium hosts other special events that include Monster Jam, Jazz in the Gardens, and international soccer, as well as more than 200 other events that are held on stadium grounds.

Boyan came to Sun Life Stadium after a nine year career as the Vice President of Operations for the Washington Redskins. He joined FedEx Field in Washington upon its opening in 1997. Boyan was responsible for stadium operations for Redskins games, college football games, security, team travel arrangements, and training camp. He also assisted NFL Transportation with the development and implementation of traffic plans with Super Bowl XXIX through Super Bowl XXXVII.

Boyan was familiar with South Florida prior to his career with the Redskins. He had worked for the Marlins Baseball Club from 1992-1995 in ticketing. He also managed ticket operations for the Marlins Spring Training site, Space Coast Stadium in Melbourne, when it first opened.

Boyan graduated from Georgetown University in 1992 where he also played varsity baseball. Boyan and his wife, Christine, live in Plantation with their two children, Rachel and Jack.

MONDAY NIGHT MADNESS IN MIAMI

In their history, the Dolphins have appeared on Monday Night Football a total of 75 times, the most of any NFL team, and four games ahead of the Dallas Cowboys, whose 71 games are second-most in the history of MNF. In those 75 contests, the Dolphins have compiled a record of 40-35, including a home record of 33-18 and a road register of 7-16. Entering 2011, the Dolphins' 40 victories are second-most in Monday Night Football history, trailing only the 43 by the Cowboys. Since MNF's inception in 1970, the only three years in which the Dolphins did not make an appearance was 1989, 2005 and 2008. They are scheduled for two contests in 2011 (September 12 vs. New England Patriots and October 17 at New York Jets).

MARK BROCKELMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: MARQUETTE
NFL: FIRST SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Mark Brockelman was named as Senior Vice President/Chief Financial and Administrative Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium on May 16, 2011. He will oversee all aspects of the financial and administrative departments within the organization, including finance and human resources. In this capacity, Brockelman will report directly to CEO Mike Dee.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Brockelman served as the Chief Financial Officer at eScreen, Inc. eScreen develops, manufactures and markets employment screening products for hiring and maintaining an efficient workforce. He also served as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Ascend Media, LLC for four years. This is Brockelman's second stint in South Florida. He previously spent five years at American Media, Inc. (AMI), a Boca Raton based company that publishes enthusiast publications such as Shape, Men's Fitness, Fit Pregnancy and Natural Health. Mark was AMI's Vice President of Finance and Chief Accounting Officer. In his early career, Brockelman spent seven years at Arthur Andersen LLP in Chicago and West Palm Beach, culminating in his role as a Senior Audit Manager.

Brockelman is a graduate of Marquette University, where he earned a Bachelor's degree in accounting and finance. He is also a Certified Public Accountant.

BILL GALANTE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS-DAVIE

COLLEGE: ST. MARY'S
DOLPHINS: 18TH SEASON

Bill Galante is in his 18th season with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. As Senior Vice President of Operations-Davie, Galante is responsible for the supervision of the Dolphins facility operations at the Davie training headquarters, while overseeing several business aspects, including game operations and team travel. In 2007, those duties included managing all of the logistics involved in hosting the NFL's first-ever regular season game overseas in London, and he handled those same challenges in 2008 when the Dolphins traveled to Canada to play the Bills in Toronto.

Galante spent his first six years in Miami overseeing the stadium's ticket sales, including the last three seasons as Vice President - Ticket Sales and Operations. During that time, he also oversaw the ticket operations of the Florida Marlins, including their inaugural season in 1993 and their World Championship season in 1997. He began his career with the Chicago Cubs in 1983.

Bill and his wife, Barbara, are members of the ALS Association, which works toward finding a cure for Lou Gehrig's Disease. They live in Plantation with their son, Christian.

HARVEY GREENE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF MEDIA RELATIONS

COLLEGE: PENNSYLVANIA
NFL: 23RD SEASON
DOLPHINS: 23RD SEASON

Harvey Greene is in his 23rd season with the Miami Dolphins and his tenth as the club's Senior Vice President of Media Relations. He and his staff are responsible for implementing the team's media policy on both a local and a national level.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Greene and his staff twice were recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award, an annual honor awarded by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL's best public relations department. In addition, Greene also has worked on the NFL PR staff at 21 of the past 22 Super Bowls and at two Pro Bowls.

Before joining the Dolphins, Greene spent almost four seasons as the Director of Media Relations for the New York Yankees (1986-89), where he served as the main spokesman for principal owner George Steinbrenner. Prior to that, he spent three years as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Cleveland Cavaliers (1983-86), twice winning the McHugh/Splaver Award as the outstanding PR Director in the NBA. During his tenure with the Yankees he was part of Major League Baseball's PR staff for the World Series and served in a similar capacity at the NBA Finals when he was with the Cavs. He also worked for three years (1980-83) as the PR Director for the Madison Square Garden Network, the country's largest regional sports television network.

Internationally, Greene has worked three Olympic Games in a media relations role. He served as an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the men's and women's basketball competition at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles and supervised media center operations for figure skating and short-track speed skating at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City and for the men's ice hockey competition at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver. He also was an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the 1994 Soccer World Cup and for the World Baseball Classic in 2006 and 2009.

On a civic level, Greene was a press officer at the 2004 Democratic Convention in Boston and was a press advance lead for President Bill Clinton and Senator Hillary Clinton during portions of her 2007-08 presidential campaign. Since then, he has continued to serve periodically in an advance capacity for President Clinton and on White House trips for Vice President Joe Biden, including his visit to Italy in 2011.

Greene received his B.A. with honors in Chemistry from the University of Pennsylvania and an M.S. in Sports Administration from the University of Massachusetts. He resides in Parkland with his wife, Cathy.

DYNAMIC DUO

In 2010, Brandon Marshall (86 catches) and Davone Bess (79) combined to become the most prolific pass-catching duo in team history. They finished the year with a combined 165 receptions on the season and were 21 catches ahead of the second place duos Mark Clayton (73) and Mark Duper (71), who combined for 144 in 1984 and Clayton (86) and Jim Jenson (58), who combined for 144 in 1988.

ADAM GROSSMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

COLLEGE: DUKE
NFL: THIRD SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Entering his third season as the team's Senior Vice President of Public Affairs, Adam Grossman oversees the organization's marketing, community relations, events and entertainment, internet and publications and government affairs departments. He also heads up the Miami Dolphins Foundation, which is devoted to providing and supporting signature education, health, youth athletic programs and volunteer activities that inspire and engage communities throughout Florida.

Grossman has initiated and expanded a number of the organization's regional marketing, Hispanic outreach, corporate communications and community efforts, including the development of the Miami Dolphins Special Teams volunteer force and the Miami Dolphins "Touchdown for Life" Blood Drive, which became Florida's largest one-day blood drive. He was also instrumental in the expansion of Fins Weekend, the Miami Dolphins Foundation's annual golf and fishing fundraiser, as well as the implementation of the Dolphin Cycling Challenge that raised $533,000 for cancer research in its inaugural ride in 2010.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Grossman served as Vice President/Marketing for the Boston Red Sox in 2008. In that capacity, he worked with the club's advertising firm, Conover Tuttle Pace, to execute the organization's first season-long branding initiative. Additionally, he coordinated the club's regional marketing activities and collaborated on the Red Sox Nation fan club program. Grossman began with the Red Sox in 2002 and became the Special Assistant to President/CEO Larry Lucchino. He worked with Major League Baseball International on all aspects of the Red Sox presence in Japan, including the 2008 Opening Series in Tokyo. Grossman played a key role in expanding non-major league game opportunities at Fenway Park, including the "Futures at Fenway" minor league doubleheaders, a sold-out event which brought the first official minor league games to Fenway Park.

A graduate of Duke University where he earned a Bachelor's degree in public policy, he currently serves on the board for City Year Miami and the Mass Mentoring Partnership in Boston. Grossman resides in Miami with his wife, Candy Hannemann.

A PLAYER'S COACH

When Bryan Cox was named the team's pass rush coach in 2011, he became the ninth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Cox was chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1991 Draft and played the first five years of his career with the Dolphins at linebacker (1991-95). The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Cox are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007) and James Saxon (RB, 1992-94; Coach, 2008-10). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's 3rd quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

TERY HOWARD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER

COLLEGE: FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL
NFL: 13TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 13TH SEASON

Tery Howard is entering her 13th season with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium as Senior Vice President and Chief Technology Officer. She joined the Dolphins after 15 years with Carnival Cruise Lines, where she gained experience managing all of Carnival's shipboard technologies.

As the CTO, Howard is responsible for managing and directing the technology initiatives and strategic direction of business operations at the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. Her primary focus includes infrastructure, telecommunications, business systems and broadcast media, converging the technologies and services to position Sun Life Stadium and the Miami Dolphins at the forefront of the industry.

After successfully deploying FanVision at Sun Life Stadium for the Miami Dolphins, Howard was tapped by owner Stephen Ross in 2010 to lead the company's deployment, distribution and activation of FanVision to 12 NFL and two NCAA stadiums. Howard also oversaw the expansion of the program at Sun Life Stadium to 25,000 devices, the largest deployment of any stadium.

Respected throughout the industry, Howard is frequently called upon to contribute to IT presentations, panel discussions and workshops. Under her leadership, Sun Life Stadium and the Miami Dolphins were recognized by InfoWorld as one of the "Top 100" companies who have made the best use of technology to enhance their business, and was also recognized by PC Magazine as one of the "Top 10" companies that are using technology in intelligent ways to improve their business. Howard also was a finalist for the Technology Leader of the Year Award for the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to her responsibilities within the Dolphins organization, Howard is also actively involved in various community initiatives and advisory boards, proving guidance and a leadership role in the community and beyond.

Howard earned a Bachelor of Science degree and a Masters in Business Administration from Florida International University (FIU), and resides in Miami Beach with her husband, Eric Howard, and three children, Natalie, Charlie and Monica.

JIM RUSHTON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS AND INTEGRATED MEDIA

COLLEGE: HAMILTON
NFL: THIRD SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Jim Rushton is the Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships and Integrated Media for the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. In this capacity, he oversees the revenue and corresponding support services for all Dolphins sponsorship and integrated media assets.

Rushton joined the Dolphins from Entercom Communications where he spent 16 years, most recently as Vice President Sports of Sales and Marketing for Entercom and Entercom New England. He was responsible for all revenues associated with the WEEI Sports Radio Network including the Boston Red Sox and Boston Celtics radio networks and the New England Patriots Monday/Friday radio network.

During his tenure with Entercom, Rushton helped establish WEEI as one of the most successful all-sports stations in the United States. In this time, the Red Sox radio network grew to become the highest grossing play-by-play franchise in all of Major League Baseball. Rushton has also been a pioneer in integrating the radio businesses for which he was responsible into a multi-media platform that activated advertising/sponsorship campaigns utilizing audio, visual, text/mobile, experiential and sports media assets. This included the launch and development of WEEI.com.

Rushton re-located to South Florida in mid-November 2009 and since then has been part of the team that renamed the stadium Sun Life Stadium, hosted the Orange Bowl, Pro Bowl, and Super Bowl, and negotiated a new multi-media broadcast agreement with Clear Channel Communications and Univision Radio. He also integrated the Dolphins audio, video and text media assets, established the Dolphins "3 Stadiums," "Content First, Media Device Second" and "Dolphins Ecosystem" sponsorship and integrated media strategies; and launched new integrated media programming including Dolphins 5th Quarter Post-Game Show, "The Finsiders" Game Day and Non-Game Day Programming, and "Juntos Con Los Dolphins" Hispanic Programming.

MARK TILSON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND TICKET OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: COLUMBIA
NFL: THIRD SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Mark Tilson was named Senior Vice President of Sales and Ticket Operations by the Dolphins in August, 2009. Tilson oversees the club's ticket, premium and event sales as well as ticket operations.

Tilson joined the Dolphins organization after working as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the Kansas City Royals since February, 2007. In his three years in Kansas City, the Royals increased revenues by more than 67-percent and experienced one of the largest percentage increases in MLB attendance figures. Tilson also played a key role in the $250 million renovation of Kauffman Stadium and an extensive re-branding campaign that included team marks and corporate imaging. Prior to his time with the Royals, Tilson spent nearly 11 years with the San Diego Padres, his most recent post as Vice President of Sales and Services. While with San Diego, he was instrumental in the Padres transition to PETCO Park and oversaw a 125-percent increase in season ticket sales as the Padres attendance grew to more than three million fans in 2004. Tilson also implemented a highly-successful premium membership sales program which generated significant incremental revenue for the Padres during the construction of PETCO Park.

Tilson received a bachelor of arts degree in international politics from Columbia University where he was also a four-time varsity letter winner in track and field and played on the basketball team. A native of Los Angeles, CA, he and his wife, Brooke, reside in Ft. Lauderdale with their daughter, Dylan, and son, Wyatt.

NAT MOORE
VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL ADVISOR

COLLEGE: FLORIDA
NFL: 19TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 19TH SEASON

Longtime Miami Dolphins player and executive Nat Moore was named as the team's Vice President/Special Advisor on March 12, 2010. Moore oversees the Dolphins alumni activities and in an expanded senior advisory role works closely with Dolphins Chief Executive Officer Mike Dee on a variety of special projects.

One of the most celebrated players in Dolphins history, Moore was drafted in the third round of the 1974 draft (78th overall) out of the University of Florida. Moore spent his entire 13-year NFL career as one of the most productive offensive players in Dolphins' history. Moore ranks among the top three players in team history in seven major statistical categories. He is second in team history in career touchdowns (75), receiving touchdowns (74) and combined yardage (8,950) and third in receptions (510), receiving yards (7,547), total yards from scrimmage (7,795) and receiving touchdowns (12) in a season.

Moore earned All-Pro recognition and was a Pro Bowl selection in 1977 and was named the team's Most Outstanding Receiver in six straight years (1974-79). On December 5, 1999, the Dolphins organization honored Moore as the 12th honoree and second receiver to be inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. He also is one of 15 former Dolphins to be inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame.

Establishing a positive reputation on and off the field led Moore to be named the 1984 NFL "Man of the Year," an honor bestowed on the player who gives outstanding service to his community, and earned him the 1986 Byron White Humanitarian Award for his service to his team, community and country. In recognition of Moore's impact in South Florida, in 2005 the Dolphins renamed their community service award to The Nat Moore Community Service Award. This award is given each year to a Miami Dolphins player recognized for his involvement in the South Florida community.

The wide receiver founded the Nat Moore Foundation in 1998 to improve the quality of life for disadvantaged Miami Dade County youth and their communities by focusing on education, sports development and youth health needs. The foundation has granted funds to area non-profit organizations that offered services to enrich the lives of disadvantaged youth. Since its founding, the Nat Moore Foundation has dispersed more than $1,800,000 to South Florida-based programs and initiatives.

In addition, Moore has represented the Dolphins franchise at countless charitable and civic activities. He handled alumni, youth and special projects for the team starting in 2006, serving as a key organizational liaison to former Dolphin players and coaches nationwide. He represents the alumni on the team's Honor Roll selection committee and is a major contributor to all of the team's activities honoring the great teams and individuals in Dolphins history.

1984 DOLPHINS OFFENSE IS BEST IN NFL

In the 1984 season, the Dolphins established a number of NFL season records, including most yards gained (6,936), most yards gained by passing (5,018), most first downs (387), most touchdowns (70), most passing touchdowns (49) and most PATs (66). Four of the six marks still stand as NFL records. The only exceptions are yards gained passing, which was eclipsed by the 2000 St. Louis Rams (5,232), and passing touchdowns, which was surpassed by the 2004 Indianapolis Colts (51).

COACHING STAFF

TONY SPARANO

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: NEW HAVEN
NFL: 13TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Tony Sparano, entering his 13th season in the NFL and his 28th year in the coaching profession overall, was named the eighth head coach in Miami Dolphins history on January 16, 2008 and subsequently signed a contract extension on January 8, 2011. Sparano came to the Dolphins after spending the previous five years with the Dallas Cowboys. He also joined the team with five years of experience as a head coach at the collegiate level.

In 2010, Sparano saw his young team improve in many different areas. Most visible was the Dolphins' success on the road, going 6-2, which was tied for the second best road record in the NFL, surpassed only by the Pittsburgh Steelers' 7-1 road mark. In addition, Miami's six road wins last season matched the second highest road victory total in team history, surpassed only by the seven wins on the road by the Dolphins in 1972 and 1984, both Super Bowl years for the team.

In the three years Sparano has served as Miami's head coach (2008-10), the team has posted a 15-9 record on the road, which is tied for the third best road record in the NFL over that span. In addition, his road winning percentage of .625 is the highest career road winning percentage of any coach in Dolphin history.

In 2010, the Dolphins committed just 72 penalties, the second fewest total in the NFL, for a league-low 595 penalty yards. In fact, from 2008-10 under Sparano, the Dolphins committed just 231 penalties, the third lowest total in the NFL over that time span, behind only Atlanta (207) and New England (227).

During the course of the 2010 season, Sparano was able to continue the development of his young players, as two of them, Cameron Wake and Jake Long, were named to the Pro Bowl in only their second and third years in the league respectively. Along with Wake, two other defensive starters, Vontae Davis and Sean Smith, became one of the best young cornerback tandems in the NFL, while other young defensive players such as Chris Clemons, Reshad Jones and Koa Misi made significant contributions.

Coupled with the play of veterans such as Karlos Dansby, Channing Crowder, Jeremiah Bell, and the starting defensive line of Kendall Langford, Paul Soliai and Randy Starks, the team's defense improved dramatically last season. The 2010 season was only the eighth time in team history that they ranked among the league's top ten in overall defense, pass defense and run defense in a season. They also were one of only five teams in the NFL last season to rank in the top ten in overall defense, pass defense and run defense.

Offensively the Dolphins had the sixth best red zone scoring efficiency (91.2%) in the NFL in 2010, and were ranked tied for ninth in the league for most drives of ten or more plays (26). Wide receivers Brandon Marshall and Davone Bess combined for the most receptions by any duo in Dolphins history, while tight end Anthony Fasano set career bests in receptions, reception yardage and touchdowns. In addition, with 3,230 passing yards, quarterback Chad Henne became just the fourth quarterback in team history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in a season.

In 2009, his second year in Miami, Sparano had the Dolphins in playoff contention right until the end of the season despite season-ending injuries to four key starters - Chad Pennington and Ronnie Brown on offense and Will Allen and Jason Ferguson on defense. Rebounding from an 0-3 start, Sparano's team won seven of its next ten contests, all coming with Henne playing his first games as an NFL starter, to get right back in the middle of the playoff picture.

Sparano coaxed a productive season from Ricky Williams, who became the seventh running back in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards at age 32 or older, while a number of experienced players led a pass rush that accounted for 44 sacks and ranked first in the NFL in sacks per pass play. In addition, the offensive line proved to be one of the most effective in the league, as the team finished fourth in the league in rushing yards per game and was second in the NFL in third down efficiency.

In 2008, Sparano's first year as the Dolphins' head coach, he guided the team to a single-season turnaround matched just once in NFL history. Taking over a 1-15 squad from a year earlier, he led the Dolphins to an 11-5 record and the AFC East title. His ten-game improvement has been achieved only one other time in league annals, in 1999 when the Indianapolis Colts went from 3-13 to 13-3:

LARGEST SINGLE SEASON IMPROVEMENT IN NFL HISTORY

TEAM	YEAR 1	YEAR 2	CHANGE	YEAR 2 PLAYOFFS
Indianapolis Colts	3-13 (1998)	13-3 (1999)	+10	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
MIAMI DOLPHINS	1-15 (2007)	11-5 (2008)	+10	AFC EAST CHAMPIONS, 0-1, REACHED WILD CARD ROUND
N.Y. Giants	4-7-2 (1928)	13-1-1 (1929)	+9	None
Oakland Raiders	1-13 (1962)	10-4 (1963)	+9	None
St. Louis Rams	4-12 (1998)	13-3 (1999)	+9	3-0, Won SB XXXIV
Pittsburgh Steelers	6-10 (2003)	15-1 (2004)	+9	1-1, Reached AFC Championship
Baltimore Colts	2-12 (1974)	10-4 (1975)	+8	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
N. England Patriots	3-11 (1975)	11-3 (1976)	+8	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
Cincinnati Bengals	4-11 (1987)	12-4 (1988)	+8	2-1, Reached Super Bowl XXIII
Indianapolis Colts	1-15 (1991)	9-7 (1992)	+8	None
N.Y. Jets	1-15 (1996)	9-7 (1997)	+8	None
Chicago Bears	5-11 (2000)	13-3 (2001)	+8	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
San Diego Chargers	4-12 (2003)	12-4 (2004)	+8	0-1, Reached Wild Card Round

In addition, since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978, there have been eight teams that have experienced a 1-15 season, including the 2007 Dolphins. With their 11-5 finish in 2008, the Dolphins under Sparano posted the best record of any of those teams the year following their 1-15 season and are the only one of those teams to qualify for the playoffs the next year. In fact, of the previous seven teams, just two went on to post a winning record the following season.

RECORD FOLLOWING 1-15 SEASON

TEAM	1-15 YEAR (COACH)	FOLLOWING YEAR RECORD (COACH)
New Orleans	1980 (Dick Nolan, Dick Stanfel)	4-12 (Bum Phillips)
Dallas	1989 (Jimmy Johnson)	7-9 (Jimmy Johnson)
New England	1990 (Dick MacPherson)	6-10 (Dick MacPherson)
Indianapolis	1991 (Ted Marchibroda)	9-7 (Ted Marchibroda)
N.Y. Jets	1996 (Rich Kotite)	9-7 (Bill Parcells)
San Diego	2000 (Mike Riley)	5-11 (Mike Riley)
Carolina	2001 (George Seifert)	7-9 (John Fox)
MIAMI	2007 (CAM CAMERON)	11-5 (TONY SPARANO)

For his efforts, Sparano was named as 2008 NFL Coach of the Year by the NFL Alumni and the Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writers of America, and AFC Coach of the Year by the Kansas City 101 Committee. He shared USA Today's Coach of the Year honors with Atlanta's Mike Smith. In addition, he finished second by one vote for the Associated Press (AP) NFL Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the 2008 Motorola NFL Coach of the Year.

Working under Sparano's mantra of "Tough, Smart, Disciplined," the 2008 Dolphins lived up to those words by playing aggressive and intelligent football all season long. Sparano had the team playing hard, rebounding from a 2-4 start to win nine of their last ten games to finish at 11-5 and capture the AFC East title. That strong finish was reflective on an individual game basis as well, as the Dolphins outscored their opponents 82-62 in the fourth quarter and held the ball for ten minutes or more in that quarter in seven of their games in 2008.

Sparano and his staff were innovative in introducing a new offense, the "Wildcat," in the midst of the season, and that formation went on to pile up 580 yards (including an average of 6.1 yards per rush) and eight touchdowns in the 91 times it was used. He emphasized the importance of protecting the football, a lesson that was well-learned by the team. The Dolphins committed just 13 turnovers and, along with the New York Giants that year, set a new NFL record for fewest turnovers in a 16-game season, breaking the old mark of 14 turnovers set in 1990 by the Giants. In addition, the Dolphins' takeaway-giveaway ratio of plus-17 led the NFL in that category in 2008. As another measure of the team's discipline, Miami committed only 81 penalties, the fewest by a Dolphin team since 1993 (81).

With the Cowboys, Sparano served as the team's tight ends coach from 2003-04, offensive line/running game coordinator in 2005, assistant head coach/offensive line/running game coordinator in 2006 and assistant head coach/offensive line in 2007. During those five years, the Cowboys qualified for the playoffs three times, including 2007 when they won the NFC East with a 13-3 record.

In 2006, with Sparano as the Cowboys' primary play caller, the team ranked fifth in the NFL in total offense, as they averaged 360.8 yards per game. In addition, their 425 points scored was the fourth-highest total in the NFL. Of the team's 52 touchdowns on the year, 21 came via the ground, the third-highest figure in the league. Quarterback Tony Romo – in his first season as an NFL starter after having joined the team as an undrafted college free agent in 2003 – completed 220 of 337 passes (63.5%) for 2,903 yards with 19 TDs, 13 INTs and a passer rating of 95.1 despite only starting the final 10 games. He was one of four Cowboys on the offensive side of the ball to be selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad (T Flozell Adams, C Andre Gurode, TE Jason Witten), the most offensive players to represent Dallas in the annual all-star game since 1996, also the last time the team sent a quarterback to the Pro Bowl. In addition, Dallas produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in 2006 (Terrell Owens, Terry Glenn) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Julius Jones), just the second time in team history that feat had occurred (1979).

In Sparano's first year with the Cowboys, rookie tight end Jason Witten, a third-round draft choice that year, caught 35 passes for 347 yards and a TD. His reception total that year tied for fourth among all NFL rookies and was first among the league's rookie tight ends. The following season, Witten established himself as one of the NFL's premier tight ends as he totaled 87 receptions for 980 yards and six TDs, becoming the first Cowboys tight end to make the Pro Bowl since Jay Novacek in 1995. Witten's reception and yardage totals both led all NFC tight ends and ranked second in the NFL. Over a three season span (2005-07), four different Cowboys offensive linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl a total of five times, including three in 2007 (T Flozell Adams, G Leonard Davis and C Andre Gurode). Over the last two seasons in that period (2006-07), the Cowboys totaled 35 rushing touchdowns, the fifth-highest total in the NFL in that stretch and the top figure among NFC clubs. Julius Jones surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing barrier in 2006 with 1,084 yards, while Marion Barber, who fell just 25 yards shy of the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 2007 but averaged 4.8 yards per attempt (204-975), compiled 24 rushing touchdowns over that two year period (2006-07), the second-highest total in the NFL over that stretch.

Sparano got his start in the NFL as offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns in 1999 – the first year that the team resumed play following a three-year absence. The next year, he was promoted to offensive line coach, where he oversaw a unit that allowed 40 sacks, 20 fewer than they did the year before. He moved on to the Washington Redskins in 2001, where he served as that team's tight ends coach. He assumed the same role with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2002, and that year the team's tight ends totaled 69 receptions for 712 yards and six TDs, including 43 catches for 461 yards and four scores by Kyle Brady.

Immediately preceding his NFL tenure, Sparano was the head coach at the University of New Haven from 1994-98, where his teams made a pair of trips to the Division II playoffs during that time, including a runner-up finish in 1997. He was named the New York Metropolitan Football Writers Division II Coach of the Year that season and was the New England Football Writers Division II/III Coach of the Year in both 1995 and 1997.

Sparano began his coaching career at New Haven in 1984, where he spent four seasons tutoring the offensive line and serving as recruiting coordinator at the school. He moved on to Boston University in 1988 and served the next six years at the school. His first two years were spent as the Terriers' offensive line coach, recruiting coordinator and academic liaison before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1990, spending his final four years there in that post, including the 1993 season when the team put together an 11-0 mark.

Sparano was a four-year letterman at New Haven, where he started at center and went on to earn his degree in criminal law. He is a native of West Haven, Conn., where he attended Richard C. Lee High School. Sparano and his wife, Jeanette, have two sons, Tony, an offensive quality control coach with the Dolphins, and Andrew, a four-year letterwinner and student at the University at Albany (N.Y.) and a volunteer coach at R.P.I., and a daughter, Ryan Leigh.

TODD BOWLES

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SECONDARY

COLLEGE: TEMPLE
NFL: 20TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Todd Bowles is entering his fourth season in his current post, having been named to the position on January 23, 2008. Prior to joining the Dolphins he had spent the previous three years as the secondary coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

During his third season with the Dolphins, Bowles led a secondary that ranked eighth in the NFL against the pass. He tutored a young unit with three starters from the team's 2009 draft class in cornerbacks Vontae Davis and Sean Smith, and safety Chris Clemons. The other starting safety, Jeremiah Bell represented the AFC in the 2010 Pro Bowl.

In Bowles' three years in Dallas, three Cowboys defensive backs were chosen to a combined five Pro Bowls, including three by safety Roy Williams. In 2007, three-fourths of Dallas' backfield was selected to the NFC All-Star squad, as cornerback Terence Newman and safety Ken Hamlin joined Williams in Honolulu. Over those three seasons (2005-07), the Cowboys as a team came up with 52 interceptions, tied for the third-highest total in the NFC. Before going to the Cowboys, Bowles had a four-year stint (2001-04) on the staff of the Cleveland Browns, including the first three years as the defensive nickel package coach and the final season as secondary coach. In that 2004 season, the Browns ranked fifth in the league in pass defense, as they allowed an average of just 181.3 passing yards per game. In Bowles' first year with Cleveland, the Browns led the league and set a franchise record with 33 interceptions, 28 of which were accounted for by defensive backs, including 10 by rookie Anthony Henry. Bowles' first NFL coaching position came as defensive backs coach with the New York Jets in 2000, when he helped the unit to a No. 6 NFL ranking in pass defense, permitting an average of only 183.3 yards passing per outing.

Bowles, a native of Elizabeth, N.J., was a four-year letterman as a defensive back at Temple University (1982-85). He went on to play eight seasons in the NFL, including stints with Washington (1986-90, 1992-93) and San Francisco (1991). In his career, he appeared in 117 regular season games and accounted for 15 interceptions. He was a member of the Redskins team that captured the Super Bowl XXII championship following the 1987 season. Upon conclusion of his playing career, Bowles worked in the player personnel department of the Green Bay Packers from 1995-96. He was defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Morehouse College in 1997 and defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at Grambling State from 1998-99. He and his wife, Taneka, reside in Parkland, Fla. Bowles has a daughter, Sydni, and three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

STEVE BUSH

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT STATE

NFL: FOURTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Steve Bush enters his fourth season as an NFL assistant and first as the team's wide receivers coach. He served the previous three years with Miami as the offensive quality control coach. In 2010, Miami's offense had 72 penalties, second fewest in the NFL that season, while the team's 595 penalty yards were the fewest in the NFL. In fact, from 2008-10 with Bush as quality control coach, the Dolphins committed just 231 penalties, the third lowest total in the NFL over that time span, behind only Atlanta (207) and New England (227).

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Bush experienced a successful 26-year run as a coach at both the high school and collegiate levels. From 2000-04, Bush served as defensive backs coach (2000) and quarterbacks coach (2001-04) at Syracuse University. In that 2000 season, Bush coached cornerback Will Allen, a first-team All-Big East selection that year, who went on to become a first-round draft choice of the Giants in 2001 and later joined the Dolphins. Immediately preceding his tenure with the Dolphins, Bush was the head coach at West Genesee (N.Y.) High School for three years (2005-07), and in 2007 he guided the school to a record of 11-2 and its first New York State Class AA state title.

Bush got his start in the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at Southern Connecticut State, where he served from 1982-83. He moved on to Springfield College where he was the school's defensive coordinator/secondary coach from 1984-85. That was followed by stints as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at the University of New Haven from 1986-87 and defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Boston University from 1988-89. During the '86 campaign he worked alongside Dolphins Head Coach Tony Sparano, also a member of that staff. The pair also served together at BU from 1988-89. Bush moved on as a head coach at the high school ranks, first at Longmeadow (Mass.) High from 1990-92 and then at Manalapan (N.J.) High from 1993-99.

Bush was a defensive back at Southern Connecticut State (1978-81), where he earned both his undergraduate and master's degrees. He and his wife, Maria, have two daughters, Kacey and Leah, and two sons, Kevin and Shane.

DAN CAMPBELL

TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: TEXAS A&M
NFL: 13TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Dan Campbell enters his first season as tight ends coach of the Dolphins. He originally joined Tony Sparano's staff prior to the 2010 season, serving as a coaching intern/offense. His responsibilities included assisting the offensive coaches with all facets of preparation with an emphasis on the offensive line.

Campbell joined the Dolphins after 11 years of playing experience with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and the New Orleans Saints (2009). A third-round selection of the Giants in the 1999 NFL draft, the former tight end appeared in 114 games with 75 starts over the course of his career and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Campbell attended Texas A&M where he was a four year letter winner and agricultural development major. The Clifton, Texas native and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody and a daughter, Piper.

DOLPHINS WIN STREAKS AMONG NFL BEST

Since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, the Dolphins and Patriots are the only teams to have two consecutive regular season win streaks of 15 or more games. Miami won 16 consecutive games from 1971-73 (1 in 1971, 14 in 1972, 1 in 1973) and another 16-game streak from 1983-84 (5 in 1983, 11 in 1984). New England had a 21-game streak from 2006-08 (3 in 2006, 16 in 2007, 2 in 2008) and an 18-game streak from 2003-04 (12 in 2003, 6 in 2004). Teams that had one streak of 15 or more consecutive wins since 1970 include Indianapolis' record 23 consecutive wins from 2008-09 (9 in 2008; 14 in 2009), Pittsburgh's 16-game streak from 2004-05 (14 in 2004, 2 in 2005) and San Francisco's 15-game streak from 1989-90 (5 in 1989, 10 in 1990).

DAVID CORRAO

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: ARIZONA
NFL: FOURTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

David Corrao is entering his fourth season as both an NFL assistant and a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff in 2011.

Corrao joined the Dolphins after coaching the linebackers at the University of Mississippi in 2007. He served as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Ole Miss the previous two years (2005-06), where he worked with linebacker Patrick Willis, a first-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 2007 and that year's Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year. Prior to joining the Ole Miss staff, Corrao tutored the tight ends at Northeastern University in 2004. After several years coaching in the high school ranks, he served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University from 2000-03.

Corrao attended the University of San Diego, where he was a member of the football team as a freshman in 1992. He went on to earn his bachelor's degree in creative writing from the University of Arizona in 1997 and a master's in instructional design development and evaluation from Syracuse in 2003. He is a graduate of Trabuco Hills High School in Mission Viejo, Calif. Corrao lives in South Florida with his wife, Trisha, and daughter, Landry.

BRYAN COX

PASS RUSH

COLLEGE: WESTERN ILLINOIS
NFL: 17TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Bryan Cox is entering his first season as pass rush coach with Miami, having been named to the position on February 21, 2011.

Cox will be the ninth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Cox was a linebacker with the team from 1991-95. The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Cox were Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007) and James Saxon (RB 1992-94; Coach 2008-10). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's third quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06.

Cox joins Miami after spending two seasons (2009-10) with the Cleveland Browns as their defensive line coach. In Cox's first year in Cleveland, Robaire Smith came back from an Achilles' injury that limited him to two games in 2008, and started 15 contests, finishing fifth on the team with 62 tackles in 2009. Cox also oversaw the development of a pair of youngsters in nose tackle Ahtyba Rubin and end Brian Schaefering, both of whom made their first NFL starts in 2009. Rubin, a second-year performer who recorded 38 tackles, started the final five games in 2010 as the Browns held their opponents to less than 100 yards rushing in three of them. Schaefering, who made his NFL regular season debut in 2010, played in the final five games of the season after spending the first 12 weeks on the practice squad. He responded by totaling 12 tackles and 1.5 sacks in his limited action.

Prior to joining the Browns, Cox spent the previous three seasons as assistant defensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets (2006-08).

Cox had a stellar 12-year career as a linebacker in the NFL after being chosen by the Dolphins in the fifth round of the 1991 Draft. He played the first five years of his career with Miami before spending time with Chicago (1996-97), the Jets (1998-2000), New England (2001) and New Orleans (2002). Overall, he appeared in 165 regular season games, including 145 starts. He posted 51.5 career sacks, including a high of 14 in 1992, a figure which led the Dolphins that year and propelled him to the first Pro Bowl of his career. He also received that honor in both 1994 and 1995.

Cox played collegiately at Western Illinois from 1987-90, where he earned his degree in mass communications.

BRYAN COX'S COACHING CAREER

2006-08	New York Jets – Assistant Defensive Line Coach
2009-10	Cleveland Browns – Defensive Line Coach
2011	Miami Dolphins – Pass Rush Coach

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: ROCHESTER

NFL: 12TH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Brian Daboll enters his first season with the Dolphins as offensive coordinator, having been named to the post on January 14, 2011.

Daboll joins Miami from the Cleveland Browns, where he spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator. In Daboll's first year as offensive coordinator, the Browns committed just 31 penalties on offense, the lowest total of any team in the league. In addition, the offense improved dramatically over the second half of the season, as they saw increased production in no less than 10 categories over the final eight games, most notably points scored (+11.1 pg), total yards (+78.2 pg), rushing yards (+67.1 pg), red zone efficiency (+20.8%), third down efficiency (+14.7%), turnovers (-1.9 pg) and time of possession (+3:21 pg).

Prior to joining the Browns, Daboll spent the previous two seasons with the N.Y. Jets as quarterbacks coach. In 2008, Daboll played a major role in helping to acclimate Brett Favre to the Jets' offense after the quarterback came out of retirement and was acquired by the team on August 7. Favre ended the season being voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, as he ranked fifth in the NFL in completion percentage (65.7).

Before joining the Jets, Daboll spent seven seasons on the New England Patriots' coaching staff, where he earned three Super Bowl rings. He began his tenure in New England in 2000 as a defensive coaching assistant. After holding that position for two seasons (2000-01), he was promoted to wide receivers coach and held that title for his final five seasons (2002-06). Under his tutelage, wide receiver Deion Branch was named MVP of the Patriots' Super Bowl XXXIX win over Philadelphia following the 2004 season, the first wide receiver to earn that honor since San Francisco's Jerry Rice in Super Bowl XXIII after the 1988 season.

Prior to making the jump to the NFL, Daboll spent one year as a restricted volunteer at the College of William & Mary before serving two seasons (1998-99) as a graduate assistant at Michigan State University.

Daboll started for two seasons as a safety at the University of Rochester. As a senior, he once recorded three interceptions in one game. He was raised in Buffalo, N.Y. and attended St. Francis (Buffalo) High School, where he lettered in football. He is married to Beth Daboll. He has a son, Christian, and a daughter, Haven, and two stepsons, Marky and Aiden.

JOE DANNA

ASSISTANT SECONDARY

COLLEGE: CENTRAL MICHIGAN

NFL: FOURTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Joe Danna is heading into his second season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having been named to his current post as assistant defensive backs coach on February 21, 2010.

Danna joined Miami with 12 years of coaching experience and his responsibilities include assisting Assistant Head Coach/Secondary Todd Bowles with the Miami defensive backfield. In 2010, the Dolphins secondary ranked eighth in the NFL against the pass.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Danna spent two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive assistant (2008-09).

Danna was a four-year letter winning wide receiver at Central Michigan University (1995-98) and remained with the Chippewas following his playing career to serve as a student assistant (1999) and then as a graduate assistant (2000). Following a season as graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (2001), Danna returned to his alma mater where for the next four seasons he served as wide receivers coach (2002, 2005) and safeties coach (2003-04). Following his tenure at Central Michigan, he spent the next two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Georgia Southern (2006) and James Madison (2007) before joining the Falcons in 2008.

Danna earned his bachelor's degree in elementary education and social studies with a language arts minor from Central Michigan. The Midland, Michigan native and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Luke and Zack, and a daughter, Lindsey. He enjoys spending time with his family.

DAVE DeGUGLIELMO

OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: BOSTON UNIVERSITY

NFL: EIGHTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Dave DeGuglielmo begins his third season with the Dolphins after being named the team's offensive line coach on January 15, 2009.

Under DeGuglielmo (pronounced Day-Ghoul-Yell-Mo), Dolphins tackle Jake Long has been chosen as a starter for two consecutive Pro Bowls (three selections overall). Long is the first Dolphins offensive lineman who has been selected to three straight Pro Bowls since Richmond Webb was named to seven straight from 1990-96.

DeGuglielmo came to the Dolphins after spending the previous five seasons (2004-08) as a member of the New York Giants staff. DeGuglielmo joined the Giants in 2004 as the assistant offensive line/quality control coach before being elevated to assistant offensive line coach in 2005. During his tenure (2004-08), the Giants consistently ranked in the top ten in the NFL in several rushing categories. The Giants were one of only four NFL teams to have put together a 4.0-yard average per rush attempt or better each of his last four seasons (2005-08). Also during this four-year stretch, the Giants allowed 28 or fewer sacks each year and qualified for the playoffs four consecutive years for the first time in franchise history. In 2008, the team led the league and established a franchise record with 2,518 rushing yards and 5.0 yards per carry. A member of the Super Bowl XLII Championship staff, DeGuglielmo also assisted in tutoring 2009 Pro Bowl selections guard Chris Snee and center Shaun O'Hara, the first Giants offensive linemen named to the Pro Bowl since guard Ron Stone in 2001.

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, DeGuglielmo spent 13 seasons at the collegiate level, including the final five at the University of South Carolina (1999-2003) under Hall of Fame Coach Lou Holtz, where he tutored the offensive line for two years (1999, 2003), and the offensive tackles and tight ends for the balance (2000-02). While with the Gamecocks he helped return the institution back to respectability within the Southeastern Conference, which included two Outback Bowl victories over Ohio State at the conclusion of the 2000 and 2001 seasons. In 2003 the South Carolina offensive line finished the season ranked nationally and tops in the SEC after giving up only 11 sacks in 12 games. Before joining South Carolina, he spent two seasons as the offensive line coach for the University of Connecticut (1997-98), where the Huskies appeared in the 1998 NCAA 1-AA playoffs, the first postseason appearance in school history and the first and only 10 win season in school history. Prior to that, DeGuglielmo spent four seasons (1993-96) at his alma mater Boston University, the first three as offensive line coach and the final one as offensive line/assistant head coach. In his first season at BU under then offensive coordinator and current Dolphins Head Coach Tony Sparano, the school posted an 11-0 mark in the regular season and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs. DeGuglielmo began his coaching career at Boston College, spending two seasons with the Eagles (1991-92), where he was the school's graduate assistant offensive line coach under current N.Y. Giants Head Coach Tom Coughlin.

DeGuglielmo grew up in Lexington, Mass., and was a four-year letterwinning offensive lineman at Boston University (1987-90), while playing both the guard and center positions. In fact, Sparano was the offensive line coach on the BU staff in DeGuglielmo's final three seasons. A two-time Yankee Conference All-Academic Player and a First Team All-New England selection, he earned a bachelor's degree in 1990 and a master's degree in 1991.

KARL DORRELL

QUARTERBACKS

NFL: SEVENTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Karl Dorrell enters his fourth season on the Dolphins' coaching staff and his first in his current role as the team's quarterbacks coach. Dorrell had spent his first three seasons (2008-10) with the Dolphins tutoring the team's wide receivers.

In 2010, Dorrell led Brandon Marshall and Davone Bess, who formed one of the top pass catching units in the NFL. Marshall's 86 catches were the tied for the second most in team history, while Bess finished fifth in team annals with 79 receptions. The combined 165 receptions ranked fourth in the NFL in 2010 and were the most by a Dolphins duo in team history. Additionally, Bess has totaled 209 receptions in his first three seasons with Miami, which are the most in team history over a receivers first three seasons with the team. Furthermore, second-year wide receiver Brian Hartline led the team with a 14.3 yard per catch average and became the first wide receiver to do lead the Dolphins in consecutive seasons since Oronde Gadsden accomplished the feat in 1998 and 1999.

Dorrell joined the Dolphins following a five-year stint as head coach at UCLA. During his time heading up the Bruins' program, the school went 35-27 and appeared in a bowl game all five seasons. In 2005, UCLA went 10-2, recorded a victory over Northwestern in the Sun Bowl and finished with a No. 13 national ranking in the USA Today Coaches poll, and No. 16 by the Associated Press. For the team's performance that year, Dorrell was named the Pac-10 Conference co-Coach of the Year.

Before his time with the Bruins, Dorrell was wide receivers coach with the Denver Broncos from 2000-02. In Denver, Rod Smith's first two career Pro Bowl selections coincided with Dorrell's first two years with the team. In fact, Smith surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving mark all three years that Dorrell was there, and also attained the 100-catch plateau the first two seasons. In addition, Ed McCaffrey went over the 100-catch and 1,000-yard receiving barriers as well in 2000, as the pair combined for 201 receptions, 2,919 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns that year.

Prior to his stint with the Broncos, Dorrell had been an assistant at the collegiate level for 12 seasons, including seven years as an offensive coordinator. This consisted of positions at UCLA (graduate assistant, 1988), Central Florida (wide receivers, 1989), Northern Arizona (offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1990-91), Colorado (wide receivers, 1992-93; offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1995-98), Arizona State (wide receivers, 1994) and Washington (offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1999). Overall in Dorrell's 17 seasons as a head coach and an assistant coach at the collegiate level, the teams with which he coached put together 10 winning records and made 12 bowl appearances. He also worked with the Broncos' staff during training camp in 1993 and 1999 as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program.

Dorrell played five years as a receiver at UCLA (1982-86) and during that time he totaled 108 receptions for 1,517 yards and nine touchdowns. He grew up in San Diego where he attended Helix High School. He and his wife, Kim, have a son, Chandler, and a daughter, Lauren.

DAVE FIPP

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: ARIZONA

NFL: FOURTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Dave Fipp enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant special teams coach on January 26, 2011.

Fipp joins Miami after spending three seasons (2008-10) with the San Francisco 49ers as their assistant special teams coach. He played a substantial role in taking the 49ers special teams unit to new heights. In 2009, punter Andy Lee earned his second Pro Bowl selection after ranking second in the NFL in gross punting average (47.6) and net punting average (41.0). Known as a special teams ace, running back Michael Robinson was named a Pro Bowl alternate as a specialist for his work in all phases of special teams, marking the second consecutive season he had earned the recognition.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Fipp worked with the San Jose State Spartans for three seasons. He served as defensive coordinator during his final year and previously held the title of co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the Spartans.

Fipp joined the Spartan staff after spending the 2004 season at the University of Nevada as the co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He also served as the defensive coordinator at Cal Poly from 2002-03 after starting out as the Mustangs' defensive backs coach in 2001.

Prior to the 2000 season, Fipp returned to his alma mater, the University of Arizona, as a graduate assistant and coached the safeties. Fipp began his coaching career at College of the Holy Cross as a secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 1998.

A 1997 graduate from the University of Arizona, Fipp played for the Wildcats from 1994 to 1997. He led Arizona's special teams unit in tackles as a sophomore in 1995 and was the Wildcats' starting free safety in 1996 and 1997. The 1997 Wildcats were among the top defensive units in the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 12th nationally in rushing defense.

He and his wife, Jenny, have two daughters, Ashlee and Lilly, and a son, Tyler.

IKE HILLIARD

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: FLORIDA

NFL: 13TH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Ike Hilliard enters his first season as assistant wide receivers coach for the Dolphins after having been named to the position on January 26, 2011.

Hilliard joins Miami after two seasons (2009-10) with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. After serving as a volunteer with the Tuskers in 2009, Hilliard was elevated to the receivers coach in 2010.

A first round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (seventh selection overall), Hilliard played 12 seasons in the National Football League for the N.Y. Giants (1997-2004) and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,387 yards and 35 touchdowns.

With the University of Florida, Hilliard played three seasons (1994-96), catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 touchdowns. In his junior year, Hilliard earned first-team All-SEC and All-America honors. He capped the season with seven catches for 150 yards and three touchdowns in leading Florida to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win over Florida State as the Gators captured their first national championship.

A native of Patterson, La., Hilliard is the nephew of former New Orleans Saints running back Dalton Hilliard.

DARREN KREIN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: MIAMI (FLA.)
NFL: 13TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Darren Krein enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named the head strength and conditioning coach on January 20, 2011.

Krein brings 11 years of NFL strength and conditioning experience to the Dolphins, having been a part of the Seattle Seahawks staff on two different occasions, (1997-98; and 2001-09). He originally joined the Seahawks as a member of Dennis Erickson's staff on March 1, 1997, for two seasons and re-joined the team in 2001 in the same capacity under Mike Holmgren. Krein holds the distinction of being the first-ever strength and conditioning assistant hired by the Seahawks.

While in Seattle, he assisted in the coordination of the players' weight training, along with the team's offseason conditioning program. He also played an integral role in the designing and implementation of the rehabilitation process, working with players that were previously injured to help build strength and flexibility to become game ready. A notable Krein achievement was the physical development of Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Hasselbeck. After injuries cut short Hasselbeck's first season in Seattle (2001) and serving as the primary backup in 2002, Hasselbeck's offseason training, under the supervision of Krein, allowed him in 2003, 2005 and 2007 to become the first Seahawks quarterback since Rick Mirer in 1993 to start all 16 games as well as being named a member of the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Krein was a 1994 fifth-round draft choice of the San Diego Chargers (150th overall). He missed his rookie season due to a knee injury. He was claimed off waivers by the Green Bay Packers on June 17, 1995, but did not play. Krein played the 1996 World League season with the Barcelona Dragons, but re-injured his knee and retired.

A four-year letterman as a defensive end at the University of Miami (1989-93) he was a unanimous first-team All-Big East selection as a senior and left the Hurricanes with 190 career tackles and 17.5 sacks after beginning his career as a middle linebacker. Krein earned his degree in business management.

A native of Aurora, Colorado, where he attended Smoky Hill High School, Krein and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter, Ella, and two sons, Aiden and Kellen.

THREE DOLPHINS AMONG NFL'S TOP 100 PLAYERS

During this past offseason, the NFL Network ran a series called The Top 100: Players of 2011, which featured a listing of the top 100 players currently in the NFL as voted on by the players themselves. Dolphins three-time Pro Bowl tackle Jake Long finished 28th overall, ranking first among each of the 13 offensive linemen also on the list. In addition, wide receiver Brandon Marshall ranked 61st on the list, just ahead of teammate and Pro Bowl linebacker Cameron Wake, who was voted number 63.

JEFF NIXON

RUNNING BACK

COLLEGE: PENN STATE
NFL: FIFTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Jeff Nixon enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named running backs coach on January 20, 2011.

Nixon comes to the Dolphins after having spent the previous four seasons (2007-10) with the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff where he was an assistant coach working with the special teams as well as the offense, with a focus on the running back position.

Nixon served as the running backs coach at Temple University in 2006. Following the season, he was named the school's wide receivers coach before accepting his new post with the Eagles. From 2003-05, he coached at Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he worked with the running backs, tight ends and as a special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Nixon served as running backs coach at Shippensburg from 1999-02. He was running backs coach at Princeton in 1998. Nixon began his coaching career in 1997 as a student assistant coach at Penn State.

Nixon played running back at West Virginia from 1993-94 before transferring to Penn State, where he earned Dean's List and Big Ten Conference All-Academic Team recognition. Nixon earned a degree in elementary education from Penn State in 1998 before receiving his master's degree in education administration from Shippensburg in 2003.

Born in Rochester, Penn., and a product of State College (PA) High School, Nixon and his wife, Laura, have four children: William, twin daughters, Faith and Hope, and Jasmine.

2011	Miami Dolphins – Running Backs Coach

MIKE NOLAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: OREGON
NFL: 25TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Mike Nolan enters his second season as the Dolphins' defensive coordinator after being named to the position on January 20, 2010. One of the most veteran defensive coordinators in the NFL, Nolan has 13 years of experience in that capacity with five different teams: Denver (2009), Baltimore (2002-04), the N.Y. Jets (2000), Washington (1997-99) and the N.Y. Giants (1993-96).

Miami's defense improved dramatically in Nolan's first year at the helm. The 2010 season marked only the eighth time in team history that a Dolphins defense ranked among the league's top ten in overall defense, pass defense and run defense in a season. They also were one of only five teams in the NFL in 2010 to rank in the top ten in overall defense, pass defense and run defense.

Nolan joined Miami after spending the 2009 season as the defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos. Under his tutelage, Denver's team defense improved to seventh overall in the NFL after a 29th place finish in 2008. Denver's passing defense was equally impressive, finishing third overall in the NFL, allowing 186.3 yards per game. Prior to joining the Broncos' staff, Nolan served as the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2005-08, following in the footsteps of his father, Dick, who coached that club for eight seasons from 1968-75 and had an 11-year NFL head coaching career.

The 49ers were one of the NFL's most consistent teams in stopping the run during Nolan's four years with the club, ranking fourth in the league in yards per carry allowed (3.9) during that period. Offensively, San Francisco's 4.3-yard rushing average over Nolan's four years was the eighth-best mark in the NFL.

Prior to San Francisco, Nolan served three years as Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2002-04. Nolan's group tied for the NFL lead in takeaways (106) while ranking fifth in the league in both points per game allowed (18.8) and third down percentage (34.7). Five Baltimore defenders earned a total of nine trips to the Pro Bowl, and Nolan instructed back-to-back AP NFL Defensive Players of the Year in Ray Lewis (2003) and Ed Reed (2004). After spending his first year (2001) in Baltimore as wide receivers coach, Nolan replaced Marvin Lewis as the club's defensive coordinator in 2002. He coached one of the league's youngest defenses in 2002, helping the Ravens post a franchise record and an AFC-high 25 interceptions while placing sixth in the league in opponent passer rating (73.4).

Nolan became the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator in 1993 when the Giants hired him for that position at age 34. He spent eight consecutive seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Giants (1993-96), Redskins (1997-99) and Jets (2000). In his first year as a defensive coordinator with the Giants in 1993, Nolan's defense allowed an NFL low 12.8 points per game for the best mark by the club in 44 seasons.

Nolan's NFL coaching career began with the Broncos in 1987 as their special teams/linebackers coach, a position he held with the club through the 1992 campaign. He was a part of three teams that won the AFC West and helped the Broncos reach the Super Bowl during the 1987 (XXII) and '89 (XXIV) seasons.

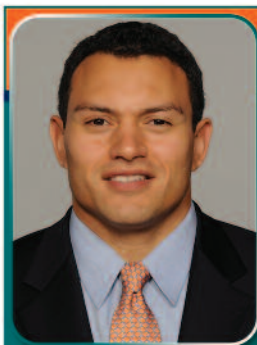

Following a free agent tryout in the Broncos' 1981 training camp as a defensive back, Nolan began his coaching career as a graduate assistant that year at his alma mater, the University of Oregon. He was a three year starter at safety for the Ducks after beginning his collegiate playing career as a walk-on. Nolan landed his first full-time coaching job at Stanford University as its linebackers/defensive backs coach in 1982 and worked there for two years before serving in the same capacity at Rice University from 1984-85.

He spent 1986 as the linebackers coach for Louisiana State University before moving into the NFL coaching ranks with the Broncos in 1987.

A native of Baltimore, Nolan and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Michael, Christopher, Laura and Jennifer.

DAVE PULOKA

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: HOLY CROSS
NFL: FIFTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Dave Puloka is heading into his fourth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having been named to his current post on January 28, 2008. He came to the club after spending the 2007 season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Atlanta Falcons, his first year in the NFL.

Prior to embarking on his NFL stint, Puloka held the same post at the University of Virginia from 2005-06. He lettered in football and track at Holy Cross College (1997-2000), where he played defensive end and earned his degree in psychology. His career totals in football included 19 sacks. In football, he served as team captain each of his final two years when he was a first-team All-Patriot League and All-New England performer both times. Following his collegiate career, he went to training camp with Cincinnati as an undrafted college free agent in 2001.

A product of Arlington (Mass.) High School, Puloka first started his coaching career as an assistant track coach at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. and as a strength and conditioning coach in the Austrian Football League. He is a former high school state record holder in the discus. For several years growing up, Puloka lived on the island of Tonga in the South Pacific.

DARREN RIZZI

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: RHODE ISLAND
NFL: THIRD SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Darren Rizzi enters his first season as special teams coordinator, having been promoted to the position on January 26, 2011. He joined the Dolphins as assistant special teams coach in 2009 and was promoted to special teams coach after week five of the 2010 season.

In his tenure at Miami, two members of the special teams (kicker Dan Carpenter and long snapper John Denney) were named to the Pro Bowl. After Rizzi took over the special teams in week five in 2010, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punt average, punt and kick return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punt average.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a college head coach, including the 2008 season at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams unit. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years there and the linebackers for his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at RU, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his stint at Rutgers, Rizzi was the head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993. He moved on to the staff at New Haven from 1994-97, one which was headed up by current Dolphins Head Coach Tony Sparano. He was UNH's defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998 before returning to New Haven the following year.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All America selection in 1992. Following his time at Rhode Island, Rizzi was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career. A native of Hillsdale, N.J. and a graduate of Bergen Catholic High School in New Jersey, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992.

He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Alexandra, and three sons, Christian, Casey and Cameron.

KACY RODGERS

DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: TENNESSEE

NFL: NINTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Kacy Rodgers enters his fourth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having joined the club after a five-year stint with the Dallas Cowboys (2003-07), the final three of which he tutored that team's defensive line.

In 2010, Miami finished seventh in rush defense and third in rushing yards per carry at 3.6. Rodgers oversaw a defensive line that featured Randy Starks, who played in his first career Pro Bowl, and also featured career best performances from Kendall Langford, Tony McDaniel and Paul Soliai. The unit will receive a boost from 2010 first-round draft pick Jared Odrick, who returns after being limited to one game last season due to injury.

Rodgers' first two years with the Cowboys (2003-04) were spent coaching the club's defensive tackles. Under Rodgers, defensive tackle La'Roi Glover was selected to the Pro Bowl each year from 2003-05. In four of Rodgers' five seasons with Dallas, the team ranked in the top ten in the NFL in rush defense, including a No. 6 finish in 2007 when they allowed an average of just 94.6 yards rushing per game.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Rodgers was an assistant at the collegiate level, including posts at Tennessee-Martin (1994-97), Louisiana-Monroe (1998), Middle Tennessee State (1999-2001) and Arkansas (2002). He tutored the defensive line at all four stops, while having also been assistant head coach at Tennessee-Martin (1997) and Middle Tennessee (2000-01).

Rodgers was a four-year letterman at the University of Tennessee (1988-91), where he played linebacker and defensive end on teams that won a pair of Southeastern Conference championships (1990, 1991) and appeared in three New Year's Day bowl games. He earned his degree in political science from the school in 1993. Following his playing career he went to training camp with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992 as a college free agent. He also played with the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian League in 1994. Rodgers is a native of Humboldt, Tennessee where he starred at Humboldt High School. He and his wife, Marcella, have a son, Kacy II, who is a sophomore at the University of Miami.

BILL SHERIDAN

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: GRAND VALLEY STATE

NFL: SEVENTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Bill Sheridan is entering his seventh season in the NFL and his second on Miami's coaching staff. He was named the Dolphins linebackers coach on January 19, 2010.

Sheridan's linebacker unit was formidable in his first season with the team. Cameron Wake ranked second in the AFC and third in the NFL with 14.0 sacks in 2010. Wake's sack total was the eighth highest total in team history and he was named a starter in the 2011 Pro Bowl. In his first season, Koa Misi had 4.5 sacks, good for second in the AFC and tied for third in the NFL in sacks among rookies. Misi was also named to several NFL All-Rookie teams. Free agent signee Karlos Dansby paid immediate dividends in his first year with the Dolphins, ranking second on the team with 96 tackles and veteran defender Channing Crowder started 11 games and finished with 39 tackles.

Sheridan joined Miami after serving as the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants in 2009. He had spent the previous four seasons (2005-08) as the team's linebackers coach.

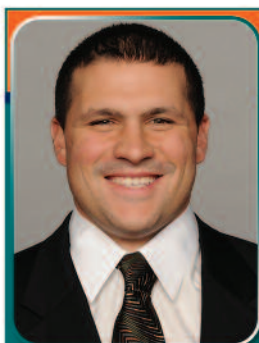

Prior to joining the Giants, Sheridan spent three seasons at the University of Michigan, the first as linebackers coach and the last two as defensive line coach. He was also the school's recruiting coordinator from 2002-03 and netted a pair of classes that were rated among the 10 best in the country.

Sheridan began his coaching career at Shrine High School in Royal Oak, Mich. from 1981-84. He was then a graduate assistant at Michigan for two seasons before coaching linebackers at three schools - Maine, Cincinnati and Army - from 1987-95. In 1996 and 1997, Sheridan coached the defensive backs at West Point. He then put in a three-year stint as the linebackers coach at Michigan State. Sheridan spent the 2001 season at Notre Dame, where he coached safeties and special teams. He moved to Michigan the following year.

A native of Detroit, Sheridan earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State University. He graduated from De La Salle High School in Detroit. Sheridan and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joe, Nick, Mark and Natalie.

TONY SPARANO, JR.

COLLEGE: ALBANY
NFL: FIRST SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Tony Sparano, Jr. enters his first season as offensive quality control coach for the Dolphins, having been named to the position on January 26, 2011.

He joins Miami after spending 2010 as the assistant defensive line coach with the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League. Sparano, Jr. came to the UFL after a successful playing career at the University of Albany. He played in 24 games while receiving three varsity letters at defensive end. Sparano, Jr. was honored with a place on the 2008 ESPN The Magazine All-District I Academic Team following his junior season. Also in his junior season, he was part of an Albany defense that held six opponents under 100 yards rushing, leading them to be ranked 19th nationally among FCS schools in that category. A two-time member of the Northeast Conference Fall Academic Honor Roll (2007-08), Sparano, Jr. received his degree in history with a minor in political science in May, 2009.

Sparano, Jr. and his wife, Rebecca, are expecting their first child in December.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: MAINE
NFL: 13TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Brian Gaine enters his 13th year in the NFL and his first season as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel after being named to that position on April 21, 2011. In his current role, Gaine will work closely with General Manager Jeff Ireland on all player personnel evaluation, coordination and direction in both the pro and college scouting departments.

After joining the team on January 15, 2008, Gaine served his first three seasons (2008-10) as the Assistant Director of Player Personnel, where he was responsible for directing pro scouting operations for the Dolphins, including player evaluations on all levels of professional football, advance scouting, free agency and tracking player movement. He also participated in the evaluation of collegiate prospects in preparation of the NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Miami, Gaine spent the previous three seasons as the Dallas Cowboys' Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2005-07), where he worked with former Dolphins Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells (2005-06), Ireland (2005-07) and Head Coach Tony Sparano (2005-07).

With Dallas, Gaine contributed to the Cowboys' player acquisition process by managing pro scouting operations and evaluating players and rosters from the NFL and all other levels of professional football. Additional responsibilities included advance scouting, free agency preparation, tracking of player movement and directing the development of the Cowboys' pro scouting database.

Gaine went to Dallas after spending six years (1999-2004) in the New York Jets' Scouting Department, including serving as the Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2004. Prior to that promotion, he functioned as a pro scout for the Jets from 2001-03. In 2000, he was the Jets' Manager of Pro Development/NFC where his duties included pro player evaluation and advance scouting as well as the scouting and tracking of players in other professional leagues such as NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League and the Arena League. Gaine began his personnel career as a member of the Jets' college scouting department in 1999.

Prior to joining the Jets in a front office capacity, he served as a member of the team's practice squad in 1996, followed by a stint with the Giants' practice squad in 1997. He then signed and spent the 1998 offseason with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was waived prior to the start of training camp.

Gaine attended the University of Maine from 1991-95 where he played tight end. He served as the Black Bears' captain his senior season and earned his degree in public administration from the Orono, Maine school. Gaine grew up in Pearl River, N.Y., and attended Don Bosco Prep High School in Ramsey, N.J. He and his wife, Tricia, have a daughter, Kelsey, and sons, Ryan and Connor.

CHRIS GRIER

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS

NFL: 17TH SEASON

DOLPHINS: 12TH SEASON

Chris Grier begins his 12th season with the Dolphins and his third as the team's Director of College Scouting. He served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02 before being promoted to National Scout/Assistant Director of College Scouting in 2003. He joined the club after spending the previous five years in the personnel department with the New England Patriots.

Grier started with the Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000.

Grier is a 1994 graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Grier is the son of Bobby Grier, the former Vice President-Player Personnel with the New England Patriots who currently is the Associate Pro Personnel Director with the Houston Texans. Chris' brother, Michael, plays for the NHL's Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier resides in Weston, Fla. with his wife, Paige, and their two sons, Landon and Jackson.

CHRIS SHEA

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

COLLEGE: BOSTON COLLEGE

NFL: 13TH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Chris Shea enters his 13th season in the NFL and fourth with the Dolphins. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in May 2011. Shea oversees the club's pro scouting operations, evaluates players at all levels of professional football, advance scouts upcoming opponents, performs analyses of league-wide player personnel trends, and directs development of the club's player-personnel related technology.

Shea previously served as the Dolphin's Player Personnel Administrator (2010-11) and Player Personnel Coordinator (2008-10). In his previous roles, he combined scouting and football administration duties. He managed the team's NFL Draft preparations, scouted NFL and college players, and worked closely with senior management in player contract analysis, negotiations and drafting.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Shea spent 17 years working on various levels of football. During 2007-08, he was employed by the NFL Management Council, initially as a Law Clerk focusing on player grievances and litigation, then as Coordinator of Labor Operations. At the NFL, Shea reviewed all player contracts to ensure compliance with League policies and the NFL CBA, advised club executives on player contract and salary cap issues, and was a speaker at the NFL Labor Seminar. He also performed as an Instant Replay Communicator for the NFL Officiating Department in 2007. While attending law school in 2005-06, Shea was a Scouting Consultant with the Dallas Cowboys overseeing the development of the team's scouting database. From 2000-04, he was the New York Jets' Pro Personnel Assistant. At the Jets, Shea managed the operations of the pro scouting department, scouted pro and college players, directed the development of the pro scouting database, and performed player contract research. He broke into the NFL in 1995 as an operations/equipment intern for the Carolina Panthers. Shea worked in college football from 1992-2000 as the Football Recruiting Assistant at Boston College (1998-2000), the Asst. Offensive Line Coach for Harvard University (1997-98), and a Student Football Manager at Boston College (Head 1994-96, Varsity 1992-93). While at Harvard, he coached four future NFL players including Pro Bowl center Matt Birk. In 1991, Shea was as an assistant coach at Belmont High School (Mass.).

In addition to his football experience, Shea has also been employed as a Law Clerk at the New York law firm of Collieran, O'Hara and Mills, and as a Temporary Corrections Officer in Middlesex County (Mass.) Sheriff's Department.

A native of Belmont, Mass., Shea was a varsity lineman at Belmont High School. He is also a graduate of Northfield Mount Hermon prep school. Shea received a B.A. in History from Boston College (which included classes at Harvard University). A member of the New York State Bar, Shea earned his J.D., with a concentration in labor and employment law, from the Hofstra University School of Law. He was President of the Hofstra Entertainment & Sports Law Society. Shea and his wife, Kirsten, reside in Broward County.

DOLPHINS: 18TH SEASON

Anthony Hunt is in his 18th season with the Dolphins and his 12th as a college scout. As one of the team's national scouts, Hunt oversees the Eastern half of the United States in the Dolphins' system. Hunt has covered the Southeast, Southwest, Northeast and parts of the Midwest as a regional scout in previous years. He was also the team's BLESTO representative his first few seasons as a college scout.

Hunt joined the Dolphins in 1994 following his graduation from St. Thomas University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports administration. Hunt served as a scouting assistant in both the college and pro personnel departments during his first six years with the club.

A Miami native, Hunt attended Archbishop Curley-Notre Dame High School. Hunt and his wife, Suzy, reside in Flemington, N.J., with their two sons, Keaton and Marshall and daughter, Jolie.

RON LABADIE

REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: ADRIAN
NFL: 22ND SEASON
DOLPHINS: 22ND SEASON

Ron Labadie enters his 22nd year of service with the Dolphins in 2011. He spent his first 11 years with the club (1990-2000) as a college scout before spending the next six (2001-06) as the team's Director of College Scouting. As one of the team's regional scouts, Labadie focuses on the East Coast with regional responsibilities in the states of Michigan, Ohio, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Labadie joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. In his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, the team posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and 1989, as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall (Mich.) High School (1974-81), where he compiled a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and 1977.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Lisa (34), Brad (31) and Ben (27), and three grandsons, Gabe, Turner and Mason, and two granddaughters, Lucy and Grace.

MIKE MURPHY

REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: WILLIAM JEWEL
NFL: 16TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Mike Murphy is entering his fourth season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending the previous three seasons as a national scout with the Dallas Cowboys (2005-07). Murphy is responsible for scouting the South in the Dolphins' system.

Murphy got his start in the NFL as a pro personnel assistant in the scouting department of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1996-99. He moved on to the role as Midwest scout with the Seattle Seahawks in 2000 and served five years in that post before joining the Cowboys in 2005.

Before entering the NFL scouting ranks, Murphy was a coach at both the professional and collegiate levels. He first served on the staff at Iowa State as a graduate assistant from 1990-91, while pursuing his master's degree in higher education. He moved on to Arizona Western for one season (1992) prior to a two-year stint at Bethel College in Tennessee (1993-94), where he was that school's offensive coordinator. Two years as linebackers and special teams coach with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian League (1995-96) preceded his move into NFL scouting. He also spent one year (1989) assisting in the personnel department of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers, where his father, Cal, was the General Manager and Head Coach. In fact, Mike's father was inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 2004 following a 26-year career as both a coach and general manager in the CFL (1974-99) during which time he led teams that claimed nine Grey Cup championships.

A native of Vancouver, British Columbia, Murphy earned his degree in physical education from William Jewell College. He and his wife, Camille, were married on May 3, 2008. They have two girls, Tyler and Morgan, and make their home in Sarasota, Fla.

JOE SCHOEN

Dolphins offensive lineman Mike Pouncey (2011, G/C, 15th overall) and his brother Maurkice (2010, C, 18th overall, Pittsburgh) are just the fourth pair of siblings to both be drafted in the first round. The Pounceys join Vontae (2009, CB, 25th overall, Miami) and Vernon (2006, TE, sixth overall, San Francisco) Davis (first rounder in 2006), Eli (2004, QB, 1st overall, San Diego/Traded to New York Giants) and Peyton Manning (1998, QB, 1st overall, Indianapolis) and Jerome (2003, DE, 15th overall, Philadelphia) and Stocker McDougle (2000, T, 20th overall, Detroit).

MIAMI DOLPHINS CHEERLEADERS

The 2011 Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders squad consists of 42 ladies who perform on the sidelines to bring spirit and excitement to every Dolphins home game. The squad is diverse with first generation Americans from 13 different countries and natives of four countries who represent 12 states and come together to rehearse three nights each week, cheer at the Dolphins games on Sundays and appear at a variety of community appearances. When these ladies are not performing, they are teachers, sales representatives, legal assistants, physical therapists, nurses, account executives and full-time students.

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor, and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals, and various other functions.

A seven-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. has also performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, and he was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a "T.D." at your next event, please fill out the appearance request form at www.dolphins.com or e-mail JQuadrozzi@dolphins.com.

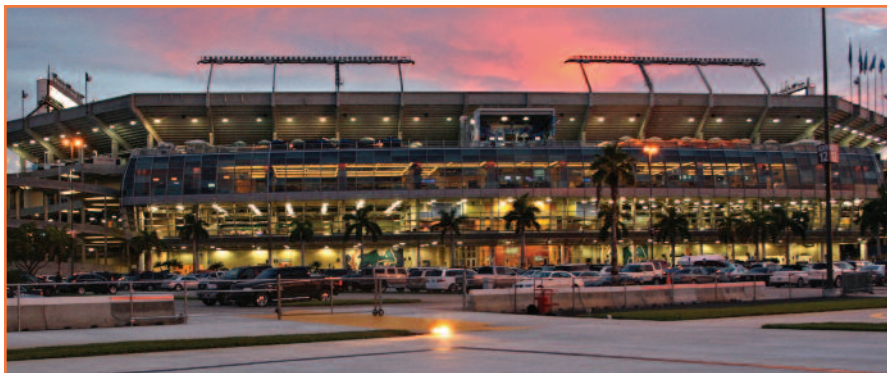

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dan Marino.

SUN LIFE STADIUM

Sun Life Stadium is South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins, Florida Marlins, University of Miami Hurricanes, Discover Orange Bowl game, the 2013 BCS National Championship, and other world-class events. This multi-purpose, open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

Sun Life Stadium is one of only two facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue (McAfee Coliseum in Oakland). In 2007, the stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new leading edge technology and superior amenities. Additional enhancements were made in 2009 with the refurbishment of concession stands, installation of flat-screen TV's, renovation of the end zone executive suites, and the creation of the sideline club and lounge among many others. In 2010, new corporate offices were built on the east side of the Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972, was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the new offices.

HISTORY

Now in its 25th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, multi-purpose, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, more than 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls staged at Land Shark Stadium are Super Bowl XXIX (January 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (January 31, 1999) and Super Bowl XLI (February 4, 2007).

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on October 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, the stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of a hydraulic disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Sun Life Stadium.

On the field, Sun Life Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm, dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rainfall.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in January 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by owner Wayne Huizenga. In April 2006, Dolphins Enterprises CEO Joe Bailey announced and unveiled the new stadium logo and modified name. The stadium was named Dolphin Stadium and a new modern looking dolphin in orange, teal, blue and platinum colors with the words Dolphin Stadium was unveiled as the new stadium logo. Also unveiled were the two hi-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006. The installation of the new technology was just the beginning of a historic transformation.

Working with HOK Sport and Stiles Construction, both renowned in their respective fields of venue design and construction, the stadium completed a $250 million improvements and innovations project that included the addition of 360,000 square feet of enclosed space, new casual sitting and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new Club Level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities.

In 2008, H. Wayne Huizenga sold fifty percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Mr. Huizenga remained the Managing General Partner of the franchise until he sold another forty-five percent of the team and stadium to Ross in January, 2009. Ross becomes General Managing Partner with 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retains a five percent share of both and remains a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May, 2009, Mr. Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announce that Dolphin Stadium will be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brings Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performs three songs and unveils the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS", written expressly for the team.

On January 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the leading international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation. The partnership's impact will be felt beyond the stadium and into the South Florida community. The two organizations have teamed up to bring the Sun Life Rising Star Awards program to South Florida through an annual donation to the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Sun Life Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, Florida Marlins baseball, University of Miami college football, the stadium is home to the Discover Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game following the 1997, 2000, 2004 and 2008 seasons). The stadium has hosted five Super Bowls, including Super Bowl XLIV and the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003.

The stadium also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007, international soccer, Monster Jam, various festivals and trade shows.

Numerous concerts have also been performed at the stadium, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2, 'N Sync, The Police and Madonna.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Sun Life Stadium's 190 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The 10, 12, 16, 20, 24 and 32-seat suites offer air conditioning and DirecTV access with NFL Sunday Ticket, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Suite attendants provide personal service in each suite during the games. Centerplate caters the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 Club Level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars, a variety of concession areas, sit-down restaurants and a Sports Fantasy Lounge. The protective overhang is also a unique element of the Club Level seats.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Located in the east end zone area of the Club Level, the Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 150 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or other event in style. In addition to Club Level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers luxurious oversized seats, an exquisite buffet, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator, 21 televisions and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities, managed by Centerplate, are available on all levels and include the Everglades BBQ, Papa Johns and Edy's Ice Cream. On the Club Level, premium food stations feature delicacies such as sushi, coal-fire pizza, hand-carved sandwiches, sauté dishes, fresh baked desserts and much more.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Sun Life Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience through its commitment to technology, entertainment and customer service. Additional improvements and innovations will take place every year to maintain the stadium as the premier showplace of the Americas.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years there, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

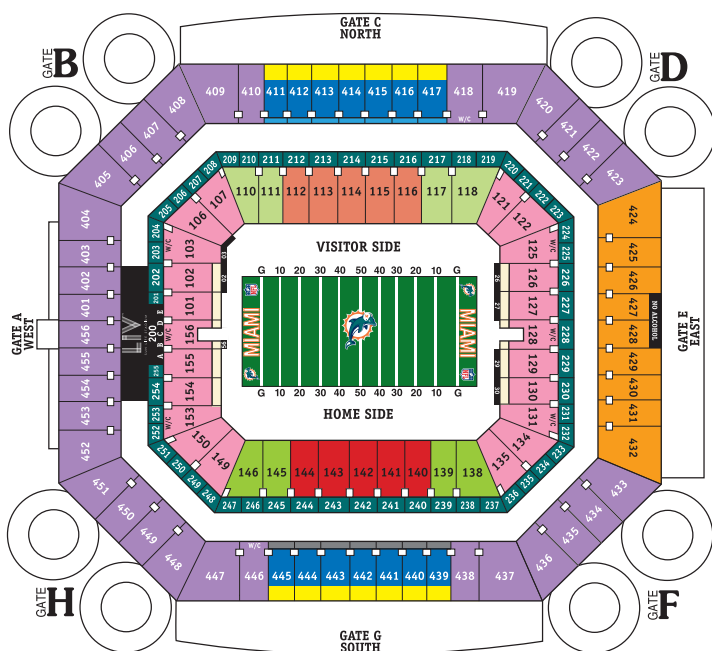

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the OB home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on November 10, 2007, when they dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on December 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on January 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

DOLPHINS TRAINING FACILITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University in Miami.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 98,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Sun Life Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

The Dolphins also now have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Sun Life Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova Southeastern can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2011

S YEREMIAH BELL

- If Bell starts in every game in 2011, he would play in all 16 games for the fourth consecutive season.
- Bell is looking to garner 100 or more tackles for the fourth consecutive season. He notched a career-high 120 tackles in 2008, followed up with 113 in 2009 and 101 in 2010.

WR DAYONE BESS...

- Bess has recorded 82 receptions on third-down with Miami. He needs 20 third-down receptions to surpass Chris Chambers (101) for second all-time in team history. O.J. McDuffie holds the team record for most third-down receptions in team history with 152.
- With 91 catches, Bess will have notched 300 for his career. Bess had a career-high 79 receptions in 2010.

LB KEVIN BURNETT...

- With 88 career games, he needs to play in 12 games to have seen action in 100 career NFL games.

RB REGGIE BUSH...

- With 294 career receptions, he needs to six catches to record 300 receptions in his NFL career.

MARC COLOMBO...

- With 95 career NFL games, he needs to play in five games to have seen action in 100 career games.

WR BRIAN HARTLINE...

- Led the team in average yards per catch with 14.3 yards per reception. He is the first player in team history to lead the Dolphins in yards per catch in their first two seasons (minimum 10 catches) with the team since 1999, when Oronde Gadsden led the team in average yards per reception 1998 with 14.9 and 16.7 in 1999. The last Dolphins player to lead the team in average yards per catch in three consecutive seasons was Jimmy Cefalo who had an 18.1 yard average in 1980, 21.8 yard average in 1981 and 20.9 average in 1982.

QB CHAD HENNE...

- Has 6,246 career passing yards, good for fourth all time in team history. Needs 4,794 passing yards to tie Jay Fiedler (11,040) for third place in team history.
- Has 13 wins as a starting quarterback, good for sixth in team history. Henne needs one win to tie Don Strock (14) for fifth place in team history.
- Currently has a 61.1 completion percentage with the Dolphins, good for second in team history. Henne trails Chad Pennington (67.4) for highest all-time completion percentage in Dolphins history.

WR BRANDON MARSHALL...

- Needs 100 receptions to become the third player in NFL history with four 100-catch seasons. Marshall can join Marvin Harrison and Jerry Rice as the only players with four 100-reception seasons.
- Marshall looks to notch 1,000 receiving yards for the fourth consecutive season. At Denver, Marshall had 1,325 yards in 2007, 1,265 in 2008, 1,120 in 2009 and 1,014 in his first season in Miami.
- If Marshall exceeds 1,000 receiving yards in 2011, he will be the first Dolphins player to have consecutive 1,000-yard seasons since Irving Fryar, who had 1,010 receiving yards in 1993 and 1,270 yards in 1994.

LB JASON TAYLOR...

- When he plays in a game in 2011, it would mark his 13th season with the Dolphins. He would become the sixth player in team history to achieve that tenure mark.
- When he plays in a game in 2011, it would mark his third stint with the team, having played with Miami from 1997-2007, Washington in 2008, Miami in 2009, the N.Y. Jets in 2010 and Miami again in 2011. He would become the first player in team history to have been a member of the Dolphins' active roster on three different occasions with those broken up with time on the rosters of other NFL teams.

- With 188 games played with the Dolphins, he needs to play in nine games to move past Bob Kuechenberg (196 games) into second place on the team's all-time most games played list.
- With 188 games played with the Dolphins, he needs to play in 12 games to join Dan Marino (242 games) as the only players to see action in 200 or more games with the Dolphins.
- With 184 career starts, he needs to start all 16 games to join Dan Marino as the only players to start in 200 or more games with the Dolphins.
- With 132.5 career sacks, can move as high as fifth place on the NFL's all-time sack list, breaking his tie with Leslie O'Neal and Lawrence Taylor for eighth place and moving past Richard Dent and John Randle (sixth place with 138 sacks) and Michael Strahan (fifth place with 142 sacks).

LB CAMERON WAKE . .

- Wake currently has 19.5 sacks in his first two seasons with the team, which is the second highest total in team history. Wake needs 7.0 sacks to tie Joey Porter for most sacks in his first three seasons with the Dolphins (Porter had 5.5 in 2007 and 17.5 in 2008, 7.0 sacks in 2009).

DOLPHINS ARE AMONG THE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are second, behind the Pittsburgh Steelers, for highest regular season winning percentage in the NFL with a record of 379-251-2 (.601). In addition, the Dolphins have the second-highest overall winning percentage over that time span (behind the Pittsburgh Steelers) with an overall mark of 401-274-2 (.594).

FINS FACT

Ikaika's father, Joseph, was a backup to Packers legendary quarterback Bart Starr in the late 1950s and early 1960s, playing under the direction of the immortal Vince Lombardi. However, Ikaika didn't follow his father's career path originally as he first began at Hawaii as a walk-on for the school's basketball program, playing hoops for the 2002-03 season. He was noticed by then Rainbow Warriors Head Football Coach June Jones and was asked to join the football program due to his tremendous combination of size and athleticism and later earned a scholarship on the team.

FINS FACT

Having three kids of his own, Will enjoys spending his time away from the field working with children. He hopes to make a difference by being directly involved in his philanthropic endeavors. While with the Giants, he spoke at various schools, Pop Warner banquets and youth football camps, while also working with the Ronald McDonald House and at-risk teen boys. He continues that support with the Dolphins. He is part of the "All-Community Team," in which he donates tickets for every home game to various children's groups. "There are a lot of kids out there that think their lives just are not going the way they want them to go," Will says. "Sometimes they just need that extra push, as far as somebody bringing a smile to their face or letting them see you were actually in the same situation they are in and it doesn't have to turn out bad."

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Signed with the Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent from the Giants on March 20, 2006 . . . Originally drafted by the Giants in the first round (22nd overall) in 2001, with a choice obtained from Indianapolis in a draft-day trade-up.

2009 - Started the first six games of the season before suffering a knee injury that ultimately placed him on injured reserve . . . At the time of his injury he ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 21 stops, was second with six passes defended and led the team in interceptions with two picks he returned for 27 yards . . . Had six tackles and one pass defended in the season opener at Atlanta (9/13) . . . Tied for the team lead in tackles with seven stops at San Diego (9/27) . . . Had three passes defended and two interceptions vs. Buffalo (10/4), picking off two Trent Edwards passes and returning them a total of 27 yards . . . It was the second game of his career with two or more picks, having totaled two interceptions on Nov. 19, 2001 at Minnesota as a member of the New York Giants . . . Suffered a torn ACL in his left knee vs. New Orleans (10/25) . . . Was placed on injured reserve on October 27 . . . By missing the game at N.Y. Jets (11/1), it ended his streak of starting each of the previous 124 regular season games in which he had played, dating back to the second week of his rookie season of 2001 with the Giants.

2008 - Was one of just four Dolphins defenders, along with Yeremiah Bell, André Goodman and Joey Porter, to start all 16 games, plus the AFC Wildcard Playoff Game against the Ravens in 2008 . . . Finished sixth on the Dolphins with 50 tackles and tied for second on the team in interceptions with three picks, which he returned for a total of 62 yards and one touchdown . . . Had one sack for 11 yards in losses and finished second on the team with 15 passes defended . . . His three interceptions were the second-highest total of his career, trailing only his four INTs from his rookie season of 2001 as a member of the N.Y. Giants . . . His one sack gave him five for his career, including four as a member of the Dolphins . . . His four sacks with Miami are tied for the fourth-highest sack total among defensive backs in team history . . . During the season opener vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/7), registered two tackles and a team high two passes defended from his left corner position . . . Had four solo tackles at Arizona (9/14) . . . Recorded four tackles and one interception at Denver (11/2), picking off a Jay Cutler pass and returning it a career-long 32 yards for his first career touchdown . . . Registered a season-high three passes defended and four tackles, including three solo tackles, vs. Seattle (11/9) . . . Had five tackles, including one sack, vs. Oakland (11/16), tackling Raiders quarterback JaMarcus Russell for an 11-yard loss . . . Chipped in with three solo tackles, including a tackle for loss, and a pressure on Matt Cassel vs. New England (11/23) . . . Matched a season high with five solo tackles along with a pressure on Marc Bulger at St. Louis (11/30) . . . Provided a huge swing of momentum in Toronto against Buffalo (12/7), as he picked off a J.P. Losman pass in the end zone to stop a late Bills drive and keep Miami's lead at 13-3 in the Dolphins' eventual 16-3 win . . . Matched a playoff career high with five solo tackles vs. Baltimore (1/4/09).

2007 - Started all 16 games at cornerback, the team's only defensive back to open every contest on the year, and, along with DE Jason Taylor, one of only two players on defense to do it . . . Was an All-Pro selection by Sports Illustrated . . . Collected 62 tackles, a pair of sacks, an interception, a team-high 14 passes defended and two forced fumbles . . . Tackle total ranked third on the team and led club's defensive backs . . . Key part of a backfield that ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense . . . Produced a season-high six tackles in opener at Washington (9/9), a figure he matched in contest at Buffalo (12/9) . . . Came up with a season-high three passes defended in game against N.Y. Giants in London (10/28) . . . Sacks came in consecutive weeks; in Monday night game at Pittsburgh (11/26) and vs. N.Y. Jets (12/2), the first Dolphins DB to post sacks in back to back games since Terry Cousin in games 14-15 of 2001. . . Allen also forced fumbles in both the Steelers and Jets contests . . . In the Jets game, jarred the ball loose from Kellen Clemens on a sack, as it was recovered by Michael Lehan, who returned it 43 yards for a touchdown . . . Game at Buffalo (12/9) marked the 100th regular season contest of his career while he made his 100th career start the following week against Baltimore (12/16).

2006 - Started all 15 games in which he appeared at left cornerback in his first season with the Dolphins . . . Only game he missed was Thanksgiving Day affair at Detroit (11/23) after sustaining a groin injury in the previous contest, vs. Minnesota (11/19) . . . It snapped a string of 42 straight games in which he had played and started . . . Registered 56 tackles, a sack, an interception, 11 passes defended, three fumble recoveries and a forced fumble . . . Also was credited with a stop on special teams . . . Led team and tied for second in the AFC with three opponents' fumble recoveries . . . His 11 passes defended tied for second on the team . . . In opener at Pittsburgh, had a key recovery of a Charlie Batch fumble in the fourth quarter after the Steelers had a first-and-goal from the one . . . Two weeks later in win over Tennessee

(9/24), stripped the ball from Titans TE Bo Scaife at the Dolphins' 2 following a 22-yard reception, with André Goodman recovering and returning it 31 yards . . . Had best game of year at Houston (10/1) when he tallied eight tackles, in addition to his first interception as a Dolphin, when he wrestled the ball away from Andre Johnson and returned it 11 yards . . . In the Texans game, also was credited with three passes defended and the second sack of his NFL career – his first since September 26, 2004 against Cleveland as a member of the Giants . . . Recorded fumble recoveries in consecutive contests; vs. Jacksonville (12/3) and vs. New England (12/10) . . . In the Jaguars game, pounced on a Matt Jones fumble (forced by Goodman) at the Dolphins' 17 . . . Recovered a Daniel Graham fumble (forced by Channing Crowder) at the Patriots' 39, leading to an Olindo Mare field goal in the Dolphins' 21-0 win over New England . . .

FUMBLE RECOVERIES: Allen accounted for three opponents' fumble recoveries in 2006, matching his total from his first five NFL seasons combined . . . In addition, his total tied for the second-highest figure in both the AFC and in the NFL, trailing only Kansas City DE Jared Allen . . . His total also tied with Pittsburgh S Ryan Clark for the most among defensive backs:

FINS FACT

In 2010, Reggie made the trip down to South Africa to cheer on the U.S. national team during its World Cup run. Bush was in the country with adidas, a World Cup sponsor that has used Reggie in some very creative cross-promotion before. In the "Futbol Meets Football" campaign, Reggie and David Beckham matched skills in a great series of ads that featured Reggie taking penalty kicks and Beckham in a helmet and shoulder pads. "That was cool," Bush said. "We did that three or four years ago now, out in Spain, actually. He was with Real Madrid at the time, before he came to L.A. It was cool, getting the chance to meet him and talk to him. I was kind of sizing him up a little bit."

FINS FACT

A majority of Vernon's work in the community with the Dolphins has focused on kids, particularly in the Liberty City area of Miami, in which he grew up. "I like working with kids because of a lot of young kids don't have the privilege of going different places and having an open mind about being successful in leadership," Vernon says. "They need somebody to talk to them once in a while and show them that there's more out there for them."

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: First-round draft choice of the Dolphins in 2004 (19th overall) . . . Was the third offensive lineman selected, behind only Iowa T Robert Gallery (2nd, Oakland) and Arkansas T Shawn Andrews (16th, Philadelphia).

2010 - Played in and started 12 games at right tackle . . . Part of an offensive line that helped the team rush for 186 yards at Oakland (11/28) . . . Placed on inactive list at N.Y. Jets (12/12), which broke his streak of starting 87 consecutive regular season games and having played in 104 straight regular season games . . . Placed on Injured Reserve on Dec. 14 with a knee injury and was out the rest of the season.

2009 - Started all 16 games at right tackle . . . Named first-team All-Pro by Peter King of Sports Illustrated . . . Part of a line that led a running game that averaged 4.4 yards per carry, the fifth consecutive year in which the Dolphins' running game had put together 4.0-yard average or better, during which time Carey had started 78 of 80 games . . . It was the first time in team history that the Dolphins had amassed this average in five straight seasons . . . Was part of offensive line that didn't allow a sack for two straight games (Games 9-10) for the first time since Games 8-9 of the 2005 season . . . Led the way as Miami rushed for 239 yards vs. Indianapolis (9/21) . . . Helped the Dolphins rush for 250 yards vs. Buffalo (10/4), the most rushing yards by Miami since Dec. 1, 2002 when they rushed for 270 yards at Buffalo.

2008 - Started all 16 games at right tackle . . . Was one of three offensive linemen (LT Jake Long and C Samson Satele) to start all 16 games at the same position . . . Helped pave the way for RB Ronnie Brown's first career Pro Bowl selection . . . Contributed to one of the franchise's most productive offensive performances in a decade at New England (9/21), when the team compiled 461 net yards, the most since October 10, 1999 at Indianapolis . . . Helped anchor a line that paved the way for the Dolphins to rush for season highs of 222 yards and a 6.3-yard average per carry against Oakland (11/16) . . . Did not allow a sack of Chad Pennington as an offensive unit at St. Louis (11/30) . . . In what was the coldest game in Dolphins history at Kansas City (12/21), offensive line did not allow a sack of Pennington for the third time in 2008.

2007 - Started all 16 games at left tackle after making the move from the right side, where he had started the previous two years . . . Was one of four Dolphins offensive linemen to start every contest . . . In fact, took part in all but 26 offensive snaps over the course of the year, with most of his time missed having occurred in the second half of finale vs. Cincinnati (12/30) when he left contest with a back injury.

2006 - Started all 16 games at right tackle, the first time in his career he opened every contest . . . In fact, participated in all but one offensive snap over the course of the season . . . Along with C Rex Hadnot, was one of only two Dolphins offensive linemen to start every game at the same position in 2006 . . . Key part of a line that led the way for a running game which averaged 4.2 yards per carry . . . Along with the Dolphins' 4.3-yard per attempt in Carey's first season as a starter in 2005, it represented the first time the Dolphins averaged better than a 4.0-yard per carry in consecutive campaigns since 1986-87.

2005 - Played in all 16 games, including 14 starts at right tackle . . . The only games he did not open were at Buffalo (10/9) and at Tampa Bay (10/16) . . . Part of a line that yielded just 26 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the NFL, and led a running game that averaged 118.6 yards an outing and 4.3 yards per rush attempt, which ranked seventh and fourth in the AFC, respectively . . . Took part in all but one offensive snap over the final 11 weeks of the season.

2004 - Played in 14 games, including two starts, in his rookie season . . . Was inactive for two contests . . . Made initial start of NFL career when he opened at right tackle in place of the injured John St. Clair (ankle) at New England (10/10) . . . Also opened at that spot the following week at Buffalo (10/17).

COLLEGE

Four-year letterman (2000-03) who started his final two seasons at Miami . . . Led the Hurricanes in key blocks (knockdowns/pancakes) as both a junior and senior . . . Started 11 games as a senior . . . Moved to left guard in spring drills after starting at right tackle as a junior . . . Named as a third-team All-America choice by the Associated Press and College Football News . . . Earned second-team All-Big East Conference honors from the media . . . Started all 12 games at right offensive tackle as a junior . . . Collected eight touchdown-resulting blocks and 79 key blocks (42 pancakes) . . . Named as a second-team All-Big East Conference choice . . . Played in every game with one start as a sophomore . . . Stepped in at tackle in the season finale at Virginia Tech when left tackle Bryant McKinnie went out with a knee injury . . . Played in eight games as a redshirt freshman . . . Redshirted as a true freshman in 1999 . . . Spent the season as a member of the Hurricanes' scout team . . . Holds B.A. degree in liberal arts.

PERSONAL

Married to LaTavia, his long-time girlfriend whom he wed on October 5, 2004, the Tuesday prior to the New England Patriots game of his rookie season (10/10), his first NFL start . . . Couple has a son, Vernon, Jr. and twins, son Jaylen, and daughter, Taelynn . . . Family resides in Davie . . . Grew up in the Liberty City section of Miami and attended Northwestern High School . . . Did not allow a sack during his junior and senior seasons . . . Named as a Parade and USA Today first-team All-America pick as a senior . . . Earned first team Class 6A All-State honors . . . Helped guide Northwestern to the Florida Class 6A State Title . . . Was a high school teammate of Bucs wide receiver Antonio Bryant and Broncos linebacker Nate Webster . . . Also lettered in basketball . . . As a child, Vernon lived across the street from the site where Sun Life Stadium now sits, and could see it being built from 1985 through its completion less than two years later . . . Started “The Vernon Carey Foundation” in 2010 and recently hosted his second annual golf tournament . . . Was the Dolphins 2008 NFL Man of the Year . . . Was the co-winner of the team’s “Nat Moore Community Service Award” for 2007 . . . FINS FACT

Nolan's discipline, both on and of the field, comes from his parents who were both members of the military. Nolan's father, Nolan, Sr., served in the Air Force, where he earned the rank of senior master sergeant. His mother, Jennifer, served in the Navy, where she became a lieutenant commander. Mrs. Carroll turned in 20 years of military service and left the Navy with a long list of achievements which includes a Meritorious Service Medal; two Navy Commendation Medals; two Navy Achievement Medals; a National Defense Service Medal; an Overseas Ribbon; two Coast Guard Special Operation Ribbons; and finally an Expert Pistol Medal. Adding to her resume, she is now Florida's lieutenant governor after spending seven years as a state legislator and also serving as executive director of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs. "My parents take pride in that they served their country," Carroll said. "It's something they taught me as well, to respect your country, respect other people that put you in a position that you are today because (if not) for those people that have been in the military, that are fighting for us right now, we wouldn't be here right now."

FINS FACT

Karlos was recruited to Auburn by then head coach Tommy Tuberville in a setting different than the football field. Tuberville said he first scouted Karlos at a basketball game in his hometown of Birmingham, Ala. "He was a very good basketball player," Tuberville said. "He was just one of those guys, if he wanted to do it, he could get it done. He always had the athletic ability; you talk about explosion, he could jump out of sight. But the thing that set him apart, was his instincts. You'd put them out there and you didn't have to coach them a whole lot, because their instincts were right so much of the time."

FINIS FACT

Vontae, along with his brother, San Francisco 49ers tight end, Vernon, recently formed their own charity foundation, The Davis Family Foundation, with proceeds going to support the arts, mothers and fathers that are battling addiction and to encouraging kids to stay healthy and active. This past offseason, the brothers travelled on a relief trip to the war-torn countries of Uganda and Rwanda on the continent of Africa. They went along with several fellow NFL players representing Pros For Africa, to provide much needed food, clean drinking water, hearing aids, shoes and clothes, medical and dental care, financial assistance and more to women and children who've been victimized and orphaned. "You have to look back and recognize the people that don't have the opportunity that we had," Vontae said. "As a kid I used to see those shows on Africa and how they needed help and supplies and I always wanted to be one of those people to actually go there and help them out."

FINS FACT

After graduating from high school in 1997, John spent two years serving a Spanish-speaking Church mission to Morristown, New Jersey. That experience taught him one major lesson in life. "Rejection," he says. "Day after day, you try to do your best. Some days go smoother than others, but sometimes people don't open their doors to you. You can't blame them. You've got to understand and do all you can do to just control what you can control, and the rest will fall into place."

FINS FACT

A three-time member of Iowa's leadership group as well as a three-time Academic All-Big selection, A.J. wants to become a college athletic director when his playing career is over. This potential career path comes as little surprise as his father, David, played football at Indiana and is superintendent for Greenwood (Ind.) Community Schools, where A.J. starred in football, basketball and track while at Greenwood

Community High School. In fact, David and his wife, Anne, saw all but one of their son's college games in person. "To be honest, he's much more grounded than I am," David Edds said. "It's just his personality. He's always had a businesslike, workmanlike approach in all of his athletics, including football. I think that's always kept him on a constant quest to get better."

FINS FACT

In an effort to give back to the youth of the tri-state area of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, Anthony started the "Anthony Fasano Foundation" in 2008. The Foundation, which raises money to support underprivileged children in Northern N.J., hosts an annual golf tournament and food giveaway in Montville, N.J. In appreciation for the support of his foundation, the REED Academy in New Jersey recently named its new playground in Anthony's name.

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Acquired by the Dolphins from Dallas, along with LB Akin Ayodele, on April 26, 2008 in exchange for a 2008 fourth-round draft choice (100th overall) . . . Originally was a second-round draft choice (53rd overall) of the Cowboys in 2006.

2010 - Started 15 games and was inactive for one contest . . . Finished with 39 catches for 528 yards and ranked second on the team with four touchdown receptions . . . His reception, reception yardage, and touchdown figures all represent single-season career bests . . . Led the Dolphins in receptions and receiving yards twice during the season . . . Had three catches for 46 yards at Buffalo (9/12) . . . Caught two passes for 14 yards and a touchdown, coming on a three-yard scoring pass from Chad Henne, vs. N.Y. Jets (9/26) . . . Grabbed five catches for 67 yards vs. New England (10/4) . . . Had one catch, a 22-yard touchdown grab from Henne, at Green Bay (10/17) . . . The catch came with 5:20 left in regulation to give the Dolphins a 20-13 lead in a game they would go on to win 23-20 in overtime . . . Recorded three catches for 49 yards vs. Pittsburgh (10/24) . . . Had three catches for 36 yards at Cincinnati (10/31) . . . Tied for team lead with five catches and led team with 107 receiving yards and a touchdown vs. Tennessee (11/14) . . . The touchdown came on a nine-yard scoring pass from Tyler Thigpen . . . His 107 receiving yards was the highest single-game reception yardage total of his career at the time and also was his first career 100-yard receiving game . . . Fasano had two 31-yard receptions in the game, which at the time were the two longest catches of his career . . . Had four catches for 41 yards and a touchdown, coming on an 11-yard scoring pass from Henne, vs. Cleveland (12/5) . . . Tied for the team lead in receptions and led the team in reception yardage with two catches for 33 yards at New York Jets (12/12) . . . Was inactive for season finale at New England (1/2/11) with a knee injury . . .

AMONG DOLPHINS TIGHT ENDS: When Fasano posted 107 receiving yards vs. Tennessee (11/14) it was the first time a Dolphins tight end had 100-plus receiving yards in a game since Oct. 19, 2003, when Randy McMichael had 102 yards on eight catches vs. New England . . . It marked the ninth time in team history that a Dolphins tight end had 100-or-more receiving yards in a game . . . Overall, Fasano's 107 yards against the Titans is the third-highest regular season single-game yardage total and the fourth-highest overall (including playoffs) by a Dolphins tight end in team history:

2009 - Started 14 games . . . Finished with 31 catches for 339 yards and two touchdowns . . . Led the team in receptions twice and in reception yardage once during season . . . Had team-high four catches for 38 yards and one touchdown vs. N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . His long catch in the contest, a 21-yard reception, came on a Ronnie Brown pass from the Wildcat formation . . . Was inactive for games vs. Tampa Bay (11/15) and at Carolina (11/19) due to a hip injury . . . Led the Dolphins in receptions and reception yardage with five catches for 74 yards at Buffalo (11/29) . . . Had five catches for 67 yards vs. New England (12/6) . . . Had four catches for 36 yards and a touchdown, coming on a two-yard TD reception from Chad Henne at Tennessee (12/20) . . . The TD catch came on a 4th-and-one on the Tennessee two-yard line with 1:34 left in the 4th quarter to complete the Dolphins' comeback from a 24-9 deficit at the start of the quarter to tie the contest (following the subsequent two-point conversion) at 24-24 in a game the Dolphins eventually lost in overtime 27-24 . . . Had two catches for 41 yards, including a 27-yard reception, the longest catch of his career at the time vs. Pittsburgh (1/3/10).

2008 - Started all 16 regular season games . . . Recorded 34 catches for 454 yards and a team-high seven touchdown receptions . . . Led the team in receptions once and in receiving yardage twice . . . Made his Dolphins debut in a starting role and led the team in both receptions and receiving yardage with eight catches for 84 yards and a touchdown vs. N.Y. Jets (9/7) . . . His first Dolphins touchdown came on a five-yard pass from Chad Pennington . . . His performance against the Jets represented single-game career highs in receptions and receiving yards at the time . . . Fasano's eight receptions tied for the third-highest single-game figure by a Dolphins tight end, behind only Jim Jensen's 12 catches at New England on Nov. 6, 1988 and Randy McMichael's nine catches vs. Cleveland on Dec. 26, 2004:

In that contest against the Jets, Fasano combined with fellow tight end David Martin, who recorded four catches for 53 yards and one TD, for a total of 12 catches for 137 yards and two touchdowns . . . The 12 receptions were the second-most ever by a Dolphins tight end tandem, behind only the 14 combined of Jensen (12) and Ferrell Edmunds (2) at New England on Nov. 6, 1988 . . . With Fasano and Martin each catching a touchdown pass, it was the first time two Dolphins tight ends caught at least one TD pass apiece in the same game since October 29, 2005 at Buffalo when McMichael and Will Heller each had a TD catch . . . Recorded three catches for team-high 66 yards and one touchdown at New England (9/21), with the touchdown coming on a 19-yard option pass from Ronnie Brown . . . His TD reception from Brown was the first completion by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Marty Booker tossed a 48-yard completion to Chris Chambers vs. St. Louis on Oct. 24, 2004 . . . It was the first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Terry Kirby tossed a 31-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar at New England on Sept. 19, 1995 . . . Had three catches for 47 yards vs. San Diego (10/5) . . . Hauled in two catches for 17 yards and one touchdown vs. Buffalo (10/26), his touchdown came on a two-yard TD pass from Chad Pennington . . . Continued to be a reliable receiver as he had three catches for 36 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass, vs. Buffalo in Toronto (12/7) . . . Recorded three catches for 47 yards and a career-high two touchdown receptions, coming on two 14-yard TD passes from Chad Pennington, at Kansas City (12/21) . . . It was the first time a Dolphins tight end had two touchdown catches in the same game since Oct. 14, 2007 when David Martin had TD receptions of 14 and four yards . . . Overall, Fasano became the eighth Dolphins tight end to have two TD catches in a game, a feat which has happened 12 times in the regular season and 16 times overall, including playoffs . . . With David Martin also catching a touchdown pass in the Chiefs game, it was the third time two Dolphins tight ends caught at least one TD pass apiece in the same game in 2008 . . . Had three catches for 39 yards and one touchdown at N.Y. Jets (12/28), as the Dolphins captured the AFC East Division title . . . His touchdown reception, coming on a 20-yard pass from Chad Pennington, was Fasano's seventh of the year, tying Keith Jackson (1994) for the team record for most TD catches by a Dolphins tight end in a season . . . Started and played but did not record a reception vs. Baltimore (1/4/09) during the AFC Wild Card playoff game . . .

AMONG DOLPHINS TIGHT ENDS: With seven touchdown receptions, Fasano is tied for the highest single-season total of touchdown catches by a tight end in Dolphins history, along with Keith Jackson, who had seven TD catches in 1994:

PLAYER	YEAR	TD RECEPTIONS
1. Keith Jackson	1994	7
ANTHONY FASANO	2008	7
3. Jim Mandich	1974	6
Keith Jackson	1993	6

In addition, with Fasano's seven scoring catches, along with three by David Martin and one by Joey Haynos, the 11 total TD receptions the trio accounted for is tied for the highest total of TD receptions by Dolphins tight ends in a single season:

DOLPHINS PRO BOWL TOUCHDOWNS

In the 2006 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Chris Chambers scored on a 16-yard reception from Peyton Manning in the first quarter to open the game's scoring. In the process, Chambers became the fifth Dolphin to account for a touchdown in the NFL's annual All-Star contest. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphin to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was running back Ricky Williams, who scored on a pair of one-yard runs as he was named the MVP in the AFC's 45-20 route of the NFC in the 2003 game. The others who have achieved this feat are wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game, tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a five-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

FINS FACT With the unveiling of the "Wildcat" offense in 2008, the formation's success took many players by surprise. However Nate, having played at Arkansas, was familiar with the success. As a starter on the Razorbacks offensive line, Nate was a part of the "Wild Hog" which featured running backs Darren McFadden and Felix Jones, who became first-round draft picks of the Raiders and Cowboys, respectively. The architect of the "Wild Hog" was former Dolphins quarterbacks coach David Lee, who at the time was the Razorbacks' offensive coordinator.

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Was awarded off waivers to Miami from New York Jets on August 31, 2008 . . . Waived by New York Jets on August 30, 2008 . . . Originally a seventh-round draft choice (211th overall) of Jets in 2008.

2010 - Spent the entire season on Injured Reserve while recovering from a foot injury.

2009 - Played in all 16 games with eight starts . . . Made NFL debut in a reserve role in season opener at Atlanta (9/13) . . . Started the final eight games of season at either left (weeks 9-12) or right guard (weeks 13-16) . . . Opened at left guard in place of the injured Justin Smiley in his first NFL start vs. Tampa Bay (11/15) . . . Started at left guard at Carolina (11/19) in place of the injured Smiley and wound up playing a total of four positions in the game: three positions on the offensive line (left guard, center and right tackle) following in-game injuries to Jake Grove and Vernon Carey, as well as a tight end on some goal line plays.

2008 - Was inactive for all 16 games and the AFC Wild Card game against Baltimore (1/4/09).

COLLEGE

Four-year letterman at Arkansas (2004-07) . . . Appeared in 37 contests during his Arkansas career . . . Started all 13 games at right tackle as a senior . . . Was a part of an offensive line that paved the way for two stellar running backs that were first round picks in the 2008 NFL Draft, Oakland's Darren McFadden (4th overall) and Dallas' Felix Jones (22nd overall) . . . Member of the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for the 2003-04 academic year . . . Named a Hard Working Hog for the 2005-06 academic year . . . Majored in sociology.

FINS FACT

Brian brings an successful track background to his play as a wide receiver with the Dolphins. While at GlenOak High School in Canton, Ohio, he ran track for three years and won state titles in both the 110-meter and the 300-meter hurdles as a senior. Brian followed his prep success by participating in both indoor and outdoor track in 2008 at Ohio State, finishing seventh at Big Ten 2008 indoor championships in the 60-meter hurdles. Brian uses basic track concepts in his current job, applying running techniques to route running. "The more you master the smallest details," Hartline said, "the better you can be. It's amazing what goes into it."

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Originally was a fourth round draft choice (106th overall) of the Dolphins in 2009.

2010 - Played in 12 games, including eleven as a starter . . . Finished with 43 catches for 615 yards and one touchdown and added two rushes for 27 yards . . . * - Overtime

IN A ZONE

When the Dolphins registered wins at Oakland (33-21 on November 27) and at San Diego (23-21 on December 11) in 2005, it marked the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins had won two regular season games in Pacific time zone in the same season, as they now have won each of their last three such contests, dating back to 2004. In 1999, they won a regular season contest in Oakland and a playoff matchup in Seattle. Overall in their 42-year history, the Dolphins have compiled a regular season record of 18-19 in games played in Pacific time zone (1-0 at Arizona, 3-0 at L.A. Rams, 5-8 at Oakland/L.A. Raiders, 4-7 at San Diego, 3-2 at San Francisco and 2-2 at Seattle). They are 1-5 in the playoffs in Pacific time zone, a record which includes a loss to San Francisco in Super Bowl XIX in Palo Alto, Calif. Their lone playoff win in six tries occurred in a 1999 First-Round contest, a 20-17 decision over Seattle on January 9, 2000 in the last game played at the Kingdome. Miami travels to the Pacific Time zone once in 2010, when they face the Oakland Raiders on November 28.

FINS FACT

A tough, gritty player, Chad said he received his no nonsense approach from his father, Sheldon. Chad looked up to him and developed his work ethic watching his father work two full-time jobs as both a welder and as a high school and junior high school football coach in Hamburg, Pa. Chad said he remembers accompanying his father to work and watching Sheldon battle the intense heat and sparks as he embraced his blue-collar job. The images of his father coming home with burns all over his face and hands still resonate with Chad today, which is why he is considered so durable and never complains about being in pain or playing in the cold or the heat.

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Originally was the second of two second-round draft choices (57th overall) of the Dolphins in 2008.

2010 - Played in 15 games with 14 starts . . . Completed 301 of 490 passes (61.4%) for 3,301 yards with 15 touchdowns and 19 interceptions for a rating of 75.4 . . .

300-YARD PASSING GAMES: Henne has six career 300-yard passing games, with three occurring during both the 2010 and 2009 seasons . . . He joins Dan Marino (13 times) as the only quarterbacks in Dolphins history to have multiple 300-yard games in more than one season . . . Overall, Henne's six 300-yard games are the second-most regular season 300-yard games, behind only Dan Marino (63) in team history:

MOST 300-YARD PASSING GAMES BY A DOLPHINS QUARTERBACK

PLAYER	YEARS	300-YARD GAMES
1. Dan Marino	1983-99	63
2. CHAD HENNE	2008-10	6
3. Jay Fiedler	2000-04	3
Bob Griese	1967-80	3

AMONG QUARTERBACKS DRAFTED FROM 2008-10: Among all of the 38 quarterbacks drafted over the past three years (2008-10), Henne's six 300-yard games are the most by any of those quarterbacks:

MOST 300-YARD PASSING GAMES BY NFL QUARTERBACKS DRAFTED LAST THREE YEARS (2008-10)

PLAYER, TEAM	TEAM	DRAFT	STARTS	300-YARD GAMES
1. CHAD HENNE	MIAMI	2-57, 2008	27	6
2. Joe Flacco	Baltimore	1-18, 2008	48	4
Matt Ryan	Atlanta	1-3, 2008	46	4
4. Mark Sanchez	N.Y. Jets	1-5, 2009	31	2

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – AT BUFFALO (9/12): Was 21-34 for 182 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions . . .

AT MINNESOTA (9/19): Completed 9-15 for 114 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . His touchdown came on a five-yard pass to Brian Hartline . . . He completed a 46-yard pass to Touchdown Marshall to set up the touchdown, at the time the fifth-longest completion of Henne's career . . .

VS. NY JETS (9/26): Threw for two touchdowns and one interception on 26 of 44 for 363 yards . . . His touchdown passes came on a three-yard pass to Anthony Fasano and an 11-yard pass to Brandon Marshall . . . His 363 yards passing represents his career high and was also at the time the fifth-highest regular season single game yardage total by any Dolphins quarterback other than Dan Marino . . . At the time it was his fourth career 300-yard passing game, moving him past Jay Fiedler and Bob Griese into second place in Dolphins history for most 300-yard passing games . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (10/4): Was 28-38 for 305 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions . . . His touchdown passes came on a 19-yard pass to Davone Bess and a 28-yard pass to Ricky Williams . . . It was his fifth career 300-yard passing game and coupled with his 363 yards passing in his previous game (Sept. 26th vs. the N.Y. Jets), it marked the second time in his career Henne had back-to-back 300-yard passing games, something he also accomplished on Dec. 20, 2009 at Tennessee (349 yards) and Dec. 27, 2009 vs. Houston (322 yards) . . .

AT GREEN BAY (10/17): Completed 23-39 for 231 yards with two touchdowns and one interception . . . His touchdowns came on a two-yard pass to Davone Bess and a 22-yard pass to Anthony Fasano . . . The touchdown toss to Fasano broke a 13-13 tie to give the Dolphins the lead with 5:20 left in the fourth quarter in a game they would go on to win 23-20 in overtime . . .

VS. PITTSBURGH (10/24): Was 23-36 for 257 yards with one touchdown and one interception . . . His touchdown came on a 26-yard pass to Davone Bess . . .

AT CINCINNATI (10/31): Passed Don Strock to move into fifth place among the Dolphins career passing yards leaders as he hit on 24-37 for 217 yards with one interception . . .

VS. TENNESSEE (11/14): Played in relief of Chad Pennington when Pennington suffered a right shoulder injury during the Dolphins' first possession of the game . . . Henne then suffered an injury to his left knee in the third quarter forcing him permanently from the game as well . . .

VS. CHICAGO (11/18): Was the third quarterback while recovering from a knee injury . . .

AT OAKLAND (11/28): Threw for 307 yards on 17-30 passing for 307 yards with two touchdowns and one interception . . . His touchdown passes came on a 29-yard throw to Patrick Cobbs and a 57-yard pass to Marlon Moore . . . At the time, his pass to Moore was the Dolphins' longest play from scrimmage in 2010 . . . It was Henne's third 300-yard passing game of the season and the sixth 300-yard passing game of his career . . . It was the fourth time in 2010 and the sixth time in his career he threw two or more touchdown passes in a game . . .

VS. CLEVELAND (12/5): Was 16-32 for 174 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions . . . His touchdown came on an 11-yard pass to Anthony Fasano . . .

FINS FACT

Growing up in Kalispell, Montana, Lex had a unique way to miss defenders both on and off the field. He would constantly try to avoid Charlie, his German Shepherd, from nipping at his heels using techniques that he would use to great advantage on the football field. "You're riding a bike, he'd try to bite the tires. I'm out in the yard playing football, he'd try to bite my ankles," said Lex who joked that he developed his quick twitch and high stepping running style from the elusiveness he showed in evading Charlie.

DOLPHINS SEND 159 PLAYERS TO PRO BOWL

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a Dolphin has been selected to play in the Pro Bowl a total of 165 times, including three following the 2010 season and 28 over the last seven years. Over the course of those 40 seasons, 94 offensive players, 63 defensive players and eight special teams players have been chosen. The position that has been represented the most is guard, which has occurred on 19 occasions. The only seasons since 1970 that the Dolphins did not have a player selected to the Pro Bowl were 1980 and 1997.

FINS FACT

Matt spent the first half of the 2010 season on the 49ers' practice squad, and then the second half of the year on the Dolphins' 53-man roster. The move to Miami came quick and caught Matt off guard. "The Dolphins contacted my agent and they offered me what I wanted all year, the chance to make an active roster," Kopa said. "On Monday I was in a meeting with the Niners and my agent called me to say 'Miami wanted to pick me up today. You have a seven o'clock flight to go to Miami tonight,' he told me. So it happened in the blink of an eye. I was with the Niners one morning and with the Dolphins the next day."

FINS FACT

All football fans have a Super Bowl memory, however not many have one like Kendall's parents, Calvin and Ardee. During the first quarter of Super Bowl XX in 1986, Ardee, who was expecting her third child, called Calvin, who was attending a Super Bowl party that he helped organize for his fellow police officers to let him know that she was in labor and his third child was on the way. Thinking that Ardee was playing a joke on him, Calvin returned home to find Ardee in labor. The couple headed to the hospital and a few hours later an 8-pound, 3-ounce Kendall Arkel Langford was born.

FINS FACT

Being selected with the first overall pick in the NFL Draft doesn't mean success is instant. In 2008, Jake became just the fourth overall No. 1 selection, since 1970 when the AFL and NFL merged, to play in the Pro Bowl following his rookie campaign. He is the first since New Orleans Saints running back George Rogers, who accomplished the feat in 1981. Jake joins the exclusive company of Rogers, Houston Oilers running back Earl Campbell (1978) and Detroit Lions running back Billy Sims (1980), who were each selected to the annual NFL all star game after being the top selection.

PRO CAREER

CAREER PRO BOWL SELECTIONS: 3 (2008-10)

FINS FACT Brandon wasted little time putting down roots in the South Florida community as he hosted a free youth football clinic on June 26, 2010, at the Dolphins' training facility. More than 350 children between ages 6 and 14 attended his non-contact clinic. "The thing for me is to give back the love that I've been getting," Brandon said. "The past few years, it's been up and down for me. And to be received as much as I have in the community, it's important to build my structure in the community. I don't want to be all over the place doing appearances. I want to be all over the place giving back."

PRO CAREER CAREER PRO BOWL SELECTIONS: 2 (2008-09)

FINS FACT

NFL players need motivation and sometimes it comes when you least expect it. Such was the case for Tony, an undrafted free agent in training camp with the Jaguars in 2006. "In high school, I wasn't one of the top players in the nation," Tony said. "In college, I wasn't really one of the top players. I've always been a guy that people say has potential. So when the head coach, Jacksonville's Jack del Rio, comes and says 'You're a good player' and 'You can do all this if you just work on a couple of things,' to a guy who hadn't even made the team yet, it was kind of the confidence booster that made me believe that I can do this."

FINS FACT

Koa and Dolphins assistant strength and conditioning coach Dave Puloka are third cousins, yet they had no idea of their connection until Koa returned from a celebratory dinner back in Utah with some distant relatives he'd barely even met until they were able to connect the dots. As best the families can establish, the connection dates back to Melenaita Misi, Koa's paternal grandmother, and Latu Puloka, the coach's late grandfather. "I don't give him any special treatment or anything," Puloka said. "If anything I might be harder on him. I joke with him a little bit. I'll say, 'If you slack off, I might call up your grandmother and tell on you.'"

PRO CAREER

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-10) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantroy (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach. Also, there have been two father-son coaching tandems in franchise history, as both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don.

FINS FACT

Nate came into the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2009 out of the University of Arizona and spent time with Cleveland, the N.Y. Jets and Seattle before finally signing with the Dolphins in October of that year. He was released by the Dolphins in September of 2010, claimed off waivers by the Seahawks, cut by Seattle before being acquired again by the Dolphins in November. Despite the frequent moves, Nate didn't mind the nomadic nature of the start of his pro career. "Each team was another opportunity that my dream could live on, so I went out there and busted my butt," Nate said. "I came every day at practice and gave it my all. It's all about the competition every day learning to become a better pro."

FINS FACT

Julius spent nearly two full seasons (2009-10) on the Dolphins practice squad, watching and learning from the veteran receivers on team. "I've picked up different techniques that have helped me come in and out of my breaks faster, how to play versus press, getting a release," Pruitt said. "I'm trying to pick up the little nuances because they've been playing a couple years and I'm trying to pick up as much as I can. I'm ready. I prepare like I'm going to be on the 53 every week. Coach tells me you never know when your number is going to be called so be prepared, and I am." Julius was signed off the practice squad on December 30, 2010 in time for the season finale at New England, however he was placed on inactive list for that game.

FINS FACT

This past offseason, Mickey was introduced to Wikus Botha, a 20-year-old budding professional rugby player with the top club in South Africa, the Vodacom Bulls. Botha had come to Fort Lauderdale to take a year off from rugby while rehabilitating a groin injury. But in late March 2010, Botha was hit by a car, paralyzing him from the neck down. Shuler visited Botha at North Broward Hospital for six consecutive days. It later morphed into weekly visits, and the two still text each other every day. "I was just drawn to him because he's close to my age and an aspiring professional athlete," Shuler told the Palm Beach Post. "It hit me really hard. I can't imagine ever waking up one day in the hospital and paralyzed. I went home and from that point forward, I've kept pretty close friends with him. He really inspires me for what he does and how hard he's working. It's going to be a long haul, but Wikus has the attitude he needs to overcome this and walk again."

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Claimed off waivers by the Dolphins on September 23, 2010 . . . Released by the Vikings on September 22, 2010 . . . Originally a seventh round selection of Minnesota (214 overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft.

2010 - Played in five games with two starts, all with the Dolphins . . . Dressed but did not play in one game and was inactive for ten games (eight with the Dolphins and two with the Vikings) . . . Finished with two catches for 44 yards . . . Was inactive for first two games of season with Minnesota as well as for his first game with the Dolphins vs. N.Y. Jets (9/26) . . . Made his Dolphins and NFL debut in a reserve role vs. New England (10/4) . . . Registered his first NFL start vs. Detroit (10/26) and finished game with two catches for 44 yards with a long reception of 28 yards from quarterback Chad Henne which led to a score.

COLLEGE

Played in 41 games with 13 starts at Penn State (2006-09) . . . Nittany Lions were 14-3 in games in which Shuler recorded a reception . . . Earned All-Big Ten Conference academic honors . . . Played in 13 games including a Capital One Bowl victory over LSU as a senior . . . Caught 11 passes for 89 yards with two touchdowns . . . Shuler's blocking and receiving helped lead Penn State to the NCAA's 14th ranked offense . . . Played in 13 games with six starts including the Rose Bowl versus USC as a junior . . . Hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass against FIU, which was his first career catch . . . FINS FACT

While at Ohio State, Austin was considered to be one of the hardest working members of the team. He believes that his work ethic came from the values he was raised with from his family. "It came from my parents and especially my grandpa (Kenny Spitler)," Austin said. "The best way to put it is they never let me do anything the easy way. They always wanted me to work for what I got. I was always an outdoors person, and my grandpa taught me how to build things. I never really got into video games and all that. I really just enjoyed the outdoors and working with my grandpa, and we always had a project."

FINS FACT

Randy chose to attend the University of Maryland over Penn State because he thought that going to Maryland would improve the chances that his father, Randolph, Sr., and his mother, Beverly, would be able to attend all of his games. In his three years with the Terps, they did not miss a single game he played. During his first two seasons, they drove to most of his road games, sometimes leaving on Thursdays to make it in time to see their only son play. In his final season, they flew to all of the Terps' road games. In Starks' first four NFL seasons, his parents did not miss a Titans home game.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Signed a five-year contract as an unrestricted free agent from Tennessee on March 1, 2008 . . . Originally was the first of two third-round draft choices of the Titans (71st overall) in 2004, with a selection obtained from Houston in a draft-day trade.

While Jason has accumulated countless awards and records throughout the course of his 14-year NFL career, the accomplishment he is most proud of in the world of sports is a little closer to home these days. Taylor has spent the past several years coaching his sons, Isaiah (8) and Mason (7) in flag football and basketball in the local YMCA leagues. "Being named the Defensive Player of the Year or the NFL Man of the Year are without a doubt tremendous honors that are incredibly meaningful to me," Taylor said. "But nothing compares to seeing the smiles on the faces of my boys and their friends when they score on a long touchdown run or pull a flag on the goal line. Win or lose, to watch these little guys learn a little technique, apply it to a game and have fun while doing it is about as special as it gets."

Posted a tackle and three passes deflections vs. Arizona (9/21), including a pair on consecutive plays on the goal line to hold the Cardinals to a field goal . . . Sustained a left calf injury against the Cardinals . . . Had surgery on September 22 on his left calf to avoid potential nerve damage . . . Injury ended starting streak at 133 consecutive games – the seventh-longest streak among active players at that point . . . Started at SLB but played the majority of the game at DE at Seattle (11/23), totaling five tackles (one tackle for loss) and providing pressure which limited QB Matt Hasselbeck to 12-of-24 passing for just 103 yards and two interceptions with a passer rating of 54.7 . . . Totaled five tackles, a forced fumble and a season-high two sacks vs. Philadelphia (12/21) and helped limit RB Brian Westbrook to 45 rushing yards on 12 carries (3.8 avg.) . . . The forced fumble, which came on one of his two sacks of Donovan McNabb, was recovered by London Fletcher and helped set up a 1-yard Clinton Portis touchdown . . . Marked his 23rd career game with at least two sacks.

2007 - Started all 16 games at one defensive end spot, the only Dolphins defensive lineman and one of only two on defense (CB Will Allen) to open every contest in '07 . . . Registered 56 tackles, 11 sacks, an interception, four forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and four passes defended . . . Was the lone Dolphin voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . His sack total ranked seventh in the AFC and 13th in the NFL . . . It represented the third year in a row and the sixth time overall that he reached the double-digit sack plateau . . . Three opponents' fumble recoveries tied for first in the AFC and third in the NFL . . . All three of his recoveries led to a Dolphins score, totaling 17 points (2 TDs, 1 FG) . . . Had three games with two sacks, including contests at Houston (10/7), vs. N.Y. Jets (12/2) and vs. Baltimore (12/16) . . . In fact, of his 11 sacks on the year, six came over the final six contests . . . Sack in opener at Washington (9/9) gave him 107 in his career and moved him past Trace Armstrong into 17th on the NFL's all-time list . . . The Texans game marked the 119th straight game in which he had started and played . . . It moved him past Richmond Webb (118) for the longest games started streak in club history while he surpassed Webb into fourth on the team's all-time chart for consecutive games played . . . Also had a forced fumble on one of his sacks in the contest, which was recovered by Rodrique Wright and led to a Jay Feely field goal seven plays later . . . Sack at Cleveland (10/14) was the 110th of his career as he overtook Greg Townsend for sole possession of 15th on the NFL's all-time list . . . Also recovered a Jason Wright fumble in the game, leading to a 4-yard TD pass from Cleo Lemon to David Martin four plays later . . . The following week vs. New England (10/21), picked off a Matt Cassel pass and went 36 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the seventh interception of his career as he set the club's all-time record for interceptions by a lineman, which he had shared with Kim Bokamper . . . In addition, it was his eighth career touchdown, setting a new standard for NFL linemen (since 1970), as he had been tied with George Martin . . . It was his third career interception return for a touchdown, tying him with Dick Anderson and Terrell Buckley for second on the Dolphins' all-time list, trailing only Zach Thomas (4) . . . Pounced on an Eli Manning fumble against the Giants in London (10/28), leading to a Feely field goal eight plays afterward . . . His two sacks vs. N.Y. Jets (12/2) gave him 114 for his career as he moved past Sean Jones into 14th on the NFL's career chart . . . Contest at Buffalo (12/9) was the 169th of his career in the regular season, moving him past Zach Thomas into first on the team's all-time chart for games played among defensive players . . . Also in the Bills game, recovered a Marshawn Lynch fumble at the Buffalo 31, leading to a Samkon Gado 20-yard TD run three plays later . . . In addition to recording a pair of sacks, blocked a Matt Stover 50-yard field goal attempt in 22-16 overtime win over Baltimore (12/16) . . . Contest at New England (12/23), in which he had a sack among a season-high seven tackles, was the 129th straight league game in which he had played, moving him past Jim Langer into first on the Dolphins' all-time list . . . Finale vs. Cincinnati (12/30) marked his 169th start in the regular season, moving him past Thomas into first for games started among Dolphins defensive players . . .

PRO BOWL: Taylor was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad following the 2007 season, the sixth such honor of his career . . . He was also picked as an AFC All-Star following the 2000, 2002, 2004, 2005 and 2006 seasons . . . He did not play in the game following the 2007 season because of a foot injury . . . Taylor's six selections are second-most among Dolphins defenders all-time, trailing only the seven by LB Zach Thomas:

2006 - Started all 16 games at right defensive end, one of three linemen to start every contest for the Dolphins in '06 . . . Posted 62 tackles, a team-high 13.5 sacks, two interceptions, 11 passes defended, 10 forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries . . . Sack total was third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, marked the third-highest total in his career and represented the fifth time in his 10 NFL seasons that he attained double-digit totals in sacks . . . Tied for the team lead in interceptions (Renaldo Hill) and tied for second in passes defended . . . Recorded at least one sack in 11 games . . . Produced six tackles and a pair of sacks at Houston (10/1) . . . Had a sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery on the same play, the fifth time in his career he accomplished that feat . . . That play led to a Dolphins field goal . . . The Texans game marked the first of five in a row in which he accounted for a sack, during which time he totaled seven . . . Had a sack and forced fumble of Tom Brady vs. New England (10/8) . . . Recorded a pair of sacks and a forced fumble vs. Green Bay (10/22) . . . Went over the 100-sack mark for his career in game at Chicago (11/5) when he tackled Rex Grossman for an 8-yard loss in the second quarter, a play in which he also forced a fumble . . . On the Bears' offensive series prior to that, Taylor picked off a Grossman pass and went 20 yards for a touchdown, putting the Dolphins ahead 14-3 as they went on for a 31-13 victory over the previously unbeaten Bears . . . It was the sixth touchdown of Taylor's career and his first via an interception return . . . For his performance that day, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the sixth time in his career . . . In 13-10 win over Kansas City the following week (11/12), blocked a Lawrence Tynes 48-yard field goal attempt in the second quarter, the first block of his career, snapping a string of 73 straight games in which the Dolphins had gone without blocking a field goal, PAT or punt . . . Had a sack, an interception, two forced fumbles and two passes defended in 24-20 win over Minnesota (11/19) . . . With the Dolphins holding a 17-13 lead, picked off a Brad Johnson pass and returned it 51 yards for a TD with 3:25 to play in the game . . . It was the sixth interception of his career, tying him with Kim Bokamper for the most-ever by a Dolphins lineman in a career . . . For his effort that day was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week . . . Overall in four games in November, tallied nine tackles, two sacks, two interceptions (both for TDs) and three forced fumbles, earning him AFC Defensive Player of the Month accolades . . . Recorded 1.5 sacks and a pair of passes defended vs. Jacksonville (12/3) . . . Posted five tackles, a sack, two forced fumbles and a pass defended at Buffalo (12/17) . . .

2005 - Started all 16 games at right defensive end, one of three linemen to start every contest for the Dolphins in '05 . . . Recorded 77 total tackles, a figure which ranked third on the squad and first among linemen . . . Led the team and tied for third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with 12 sacks, as the Dolphins tied a team single-season record with 49 sacks . . . It marked the fourth time in his nine NFL seasons that he topped the Dolphins' sack chart . . . Tied for the team lead with four forced fumbles while also recovering a pair . . . Batted down 11 passes on the year, the third-highest total on the team . . . In season-opening 34-10 victory over Denver (9/11), posted seven tackles, including his first sack of the season . . . That came on the game's final play when he stripped the ball from Jake Plummer, recovered and returned it 85 yards for a touchdown, the fifth fumble return for a touchdown of his career, tying the NFL record also held by Jessie Tuggle . . . It also was the longest fumble return in Dolphins history, surpassing the 68-yard return by A.J. Duhe on October 15, 1978 at San Diego . . . Recorded a season-high nine tackles the following week at N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . After being held to one sack over the first three games of the year, broke through with two sacks at Buffalo (10/9), the 15th time in his career that he tallied two or more sacks in a game . . . Tied a career-high with three sacks at Oakland (11/27), which were among a season-high seven by the Dolphins that day . . . Also forced a fumble, recovered one and knocked down a pass . . . Came up with two key plays in the second half of the 33-21 win . . . With the Dolphins holding a 13-7 lead in the third quarter, sacked Kerry Collins in the end zone for the second safety of his career . . . With just less than three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter and the Dolphins leading 30-21, recovered a Collins fumble, leading to an Olindo Mare field goal four plays later . . . For his efforts in the Raiders game, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week, the fifth such honor of his career and the fourth straight year in which he came away with the award at least once . . . Matched his career-high sack total once again in a 24-20 win over N.Y. Jets (12/18) when he tackled Brooks Bollinger three times as the Dolphins collected six sacks as a team that day . . . Registered a sack, a forced fumble and a pass defended the week afterwards vs. Tennessee (12/24) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the fourth such honor of his career . . . Was named as a starter for the fourth time as well . . . Was not able to play in the game because of an injury.

2004 - Started all 16 games at right end, one of only four Dolphins defenders to open every contest in '04, along with LB Merton Greenwood, CB Sam Madison and SS Sammy Knight . . . Recorded a career-high 90 tackles, a figure which ranked fifth on the squad . . . Also registered 9.5 sacks, 42 QB hurries, three fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and nine passes defended . . . Was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . Sack total led the team and tied for seventh in the AFC . . . Had at least one sack in seven games on the year . . . Had a season-high 10 tackles on two occasions; at Cincinnati (9/19) and at Denver (12/12) . . . Also came up with a sack and an interception of a Carson Palmer pass in the Bengals game . . . Had four tackles, a half-sack and a fumble recovery at Seattle (11/21) . . . Fumble recovery came in the first quarter when he recovered a Mack Strong fumble, which led to an A.J. Feeley 7-yard TD run six plays later . . . It also was the 17th fumble recovery of his career, as he tied Dick Anderson and Bob Baumhower for the Dolphins' all-time lead in that category . . . Registered a season-high three sacks at San Francisco (11/28), a figure that tied a single-game career-high achieved on three previous occasions, most recently on December 21, 2003 at Buffalo . . . Also defended two passes, recovered a fumble and forced a fumble in the Dolphins' 24-17 win over the 49ers . . . Forced fumble occurred when he stripped the ball from QB Tim Rattay in the fourth quarter, and Derrick Pope recovered, taking it in one yard for a touchdown . . . Earlier in the final quarter, recovered a Rattay fumble, leading to an Olindo Mare field goal . . . That was the 18th fumble recovery of his career, as he moved past Anderson and Baumhower as the Dolphins' all-time leader in that category . . . For his performance, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week, the fourth such honor of his NFL career . . . In a vote of media and fans, was named the winner of the team's Dan Marino MVP Award for 2004.

2003 - Started all 16 games at right defensive end, marking the fourth straight year in which he opened all 16 games . . . Recorded 71 tackles (50 solo), 13 sacks for 70 yards in losses, six additional tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, five passes defended and 36 quarterback hurries . . . Also recorded a safety on the season, the first of his career . . . Sack total was second on the club, second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Registered 10.5 sacks over the final nine games of the season . . . Was credited with eight tackles and two forced fumbles at Jacksonville (10/12) . . . Registered three tackles, including a sack and a forced fumble, vs. New England (10/19), giving him 60.5 career sacks and moving him past Jeff Cross into sole spot of fourth on the Dolphins' all-time list . . . The following week, in Monday night game against San Diego (10/27) in Tempe, Ariz., posted a season-high nine tackles as the Dolphins held the Chargers to just 250 yards of total offense in a 26-10 win . . . Also registered the first safety of his career, as he tackled Chargers tackle Damion McIntosh in the end zone after McIntosh recovered a Drew Brees fumble resulting from a Rob Burnett sack . . . It was the first safety registered by the Dolphins since October 8, 2000 vs. Buffalo . . . Game vs. Indianapolis (11/2) marked the 100th of his career during the regular season . . . Tied a season-high with nine tackles in 24-23 Sunday night victory over Washington (11/23) . . . Included in his total were two sacks, his first multiple-sack game of the season and the 15th of his career . . . It also began a string of six straight games in which he would record a sack . . . Both sacks in the Redskins game came on third-down plays, with the second occurring in the fourth quarter, and which was followed by the Dolphins' game-winning touchdown drive . . . For his performance in the Redskins contest, he was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week for games of November 23-24 . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/27), had two tackles, including one sack, as he tackled Cowboys quarterback Quincy Carter for an 8-yard loss . . . Also had a fumble return for a touchdown, when he recovered a Carter fumble forced by an Adewale Ogunleye sack and brought it back 34 yards for a touchdown . . . Taylor's sack of Carter gave him 64.5 for his career, moving him ahead of Vern Den Herder into sole possession of third place among the Dolphins' all-time sack leaders . . . His fumble return for a touchdown was the fourth TD he scored on a fumble recovery in his career, moving him into a tie for second place in NFL history (along with Bill Thompson and Derrick Thomas) for most touchdowns scored on fumble recoveries, trailing only Jessie Tuggle . . . Produced five tackles, including three sacks at Buffalo (12/21) . . . Sack total tied a career high that he had achieved twice previously, most recently on December 15, 2002 against Oakland . . . All three sacks, which totaled 20 yards in losses, came against Drew Bledsoe . . . When he sacked Bledsoe for a 4-yard loss in the second quarter, it gave Taylor 68 career sacks, breaking Bill Stanfill's former team record of 67.5 career sacks . . . Finished the season by recording four tackles and a sack vs. N.Y. Jets (12/28), the sixth game in a row in which he tallied a sack, tying for the second-longest sack streak in Dolphins history . . .

2003 SACK TOTAL: Taylor tallied 13 sacks in 2003, one year after he led the team and the NFL with 18.5 sacks . . . He became the first Dolphin to record double-digit sack totals in consecutive seasons since Jeff Cross had 10 in 1989 and 10.5 in 1990 . . .

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A SACK: Taylor finished the 2003 season by recording a sack in each of the last six games . . . During this span, he accounted for 9.5 sacks . . . This streak is tied for the second-longest in Dolphins history, and Taylor now owns three of the four-longest such streaks in team history . . . He established the longest sack streak in team history with a sack in eight consecutive contests in 2002 . . .

SACK TANDEM: Along with DE Adewale Ogunleye's 15 sacks, Taylor was part of the top sack tandem in the NFL in 2003, 4.5 ahead of their nearest competitors (Giants' Michael Strahan and Kenny Holmes, 23.5) . . . It was the second straight year that this tandem achieved this total and that they led the NFL . . . In addition, Ogunleye led the AFC in sacks while Taylor finished second, marking just the third time since sacks became official in 1982 that teammates have finished 1-2 in a conference in sacks . . . They joined Carolina's Kevin Greene (14.5) and Lamar Lathon (13.5) in 1996, and the Dolphins' Trace Armstrong (16.5) and Taylor (14.5) in 2000 . . . With 28 combined sacks, Taylor and Ogunleye tied their own figure from 2002 as the third-highest total ever among Dolphins sack tandems . . . In addition, it is just the second time in Dolphins history that two players have accounted for double-digit sack totals . . . In 2000, DE Trace Armstrong tallied 16.5 sacks while Taylor notched 14.5 . . . Taylor now has been a part of three of the five highest single-season sack tandems in club history.

2002 - Started all 16 games at right defensive end . . . Along with CB Sam Madison and LB Zach Thomas, served as a tri-captain on defense . . . Had 76 tackles, a team-high 18.5 sacks for 162.5 yards in losses, eight passes defended, seven forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries . . . Added one stop on special teams . . . Tackle total was good for fifth on the team and first among defensive linemen . . . Ranked first in the AFC and in the NFL in sacks, becoming the first Dolphin in club history to lead the NFL in sacks . . . Had six tackles, including two sacks, vs. New England (10/6) in a 26-13 Miami win . . . It was his first multiple-sack game of the season and the eighth of his career . . . Also forced Tom Brady to fumble on one of those sacks, which was recovered by Adewale Ogunleye and led to a Dolphins touchdown . . . In 24-22 victory at Denver (10/13), posted six tackles, including two sacks, as he tackled Broncos quarterback Brian Griese twice for a total of 30 yards in losses . . . It was his second multiple sack game of the season and the ninth of his career . . . Also added two passes defended and one forced fumble, when he stripped the ball from Mike Anderson on the Dolphins' one-yard line, which was recovered by Larry Chester . . . As a result of his play in that contest, he was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week . . . It was the first such honor of Taylor's career . . . He also was the first Dolphins defensive lineman to earn Defensive Player of the Week accolades during the regular season since the award was instituted in 1984 (Trace Armstrong did win the honor following a 1999 First-Round Playoff game at Seattle) . . . Began a streak of eight straight games with a sack at Green Bay (11/4) . . . Had three tackles, including two sacks, tackling Chargers quarterback Drew Brees twice for a total of 16 yards in losses, in a 30-13 win over San Diego (11/24) . . . His second sack of Brees in that contest gave him 50.5 sacks in his career, becoming the sixth Dolphin to record 50 career sacks . . . Had two tackles, including one sack, as he dropped Bears quarterback Jim Miller for a 7-yard loss, in a 27-9 win over Chicago (12/9) on a Monday night . . . It marked his sixth consecutive contest with at least one sack, tying the club record held by both Doug Betters (1983) and Taylor (2000) . . . Tied a season high with eight tackles in 23-17 victory over Oakland (12/15) . . . Included in that total were three sacks for a total of 25 yards in losses and two forced fumbles . . . All three sacks came against Raiders quarterback Rich Gannon, causing Gannon to fumble twice . . . Taylor's three sacks tied his single-game career high, which he first set on December 3, 2000 at Buffalo . . . It also was the seventh straight game in which he recorded at least one sack, breaking the former club record of six straight games . . . For his performance, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week . . . Notched seven tackles, 1.5 sacks for a total of seven yards in losses, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery at Minnesota (12/21) . . . It represented his eighth game in a row with at least one sack . . . Sacked Vikings quarterback Daunte Culpepper for a 4-yard loss, causing Culpepper to fumble . . . That sack of Culpepper gave Taylor 57.5 in his career and moved him past Trace Armstrong into fifth place among the Dolphins' all-time sack leaders . . . His shared sack of Culpepper gave him 18.5 sacks for the season, tying him for the Dolphins' all-time single season sack record along with Bill Stanfill, who had 18.5 sacks in 1973 . . .

SACKS: With 18.5 sacks in 2002, Taylor became the first Dolphin ever to lead the NFL in this category . . . He tallied at least a half-sack in 12 of 16 contests, while accounting for 1.5 or more on seven occasions, including a season-high three vs. Oakland (12/15) . . . With 18.5 sacks in 2002, Taylor tied for the highest single-season sack total in Dolphins history, along with Bill Stanfill, who also had 18.5 sacks in 1973 . . . Taylor tied Stanfill's club record when he shared a 6-yard sack of Vikings quarterback Daunte Culpepper with Adewale Ogunleye at Minnesota on December 21:

DOLPHINS SINGLE-SEASON SACK LEADERS

PLAYER	YEAR	NO.
1. JASON TAYLOR	2002	18.5
Bill Stanfill	1973	18.5
3. Joey Porter	2008	17.5
4. Trace Armstrong	2000	16.5
5. Doug Betters	1983	16.0

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A SACK: Included in Taylor's record-setting performance of 2002 was a streak of eight consecutive games (Games 8-15) that he recorded at least one sack, breaking the former club record of six consecutive games with at least one sack (since 1982), which was first set in 1983 by Doug Betters and then equaled by Taylor in 2000 . . . Taylor's streak was snapped when he was held without a sack in the season finale at New England on December 29 . . . During this eight-game span, Taylor totaled 13 sacks, including five contests in which he had more than one sack . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH: Taylor was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week on two occasions in 2002 . . . He was cited for his performances in wins at Denver (10/13) and vs. Oakland (12/15) . . . They marked the first two Player of the Week awards in his career . . . He also became the first Dolphins defensive lineman to earn Defensive Player of the Week accolades during the regular season since the award was instituted in 1984 (Trace Armstrong did win the honor following a 1999 First-Round Playoff game at Seattle) . . . Taylor also was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for both October and November . . . In three games in October, he had 15 tackles, four sacks for 52 yards in losses, two forced fumbles and a pass defended . . . It was Taylor's first Defensive Player of the Month Award of his career . . . Overall since the NFL first instituted the award in 1984, Taylor became the seventh Dolphin to be named AFC Defensive Player of the Month and the second lineman (defensive lineman Jeff Cross shared that award with linebacker John Offerdahl in October, 1990) . . . Followed that by being named as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November . . . In four games in November, Taylor posted 15 tackles, 5.5 sacks for 33 yards in losses, two passes defended, and a forced fumble . . . It marked the first time ever that a player earned AFC or NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors in back-to-back months . . . It also is the first time that a Dolphin earned an NFL monthly award twice in the same season . . . In fact, only one other Dolphin, quarterback Dan Marino (November, 1986; October, 1988), has won a monthly honor twice in a career . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, as he was joined on the team by six other Dolphins, the most in the AFC . . . It was his second time being named to the Pro Bowl team, along with his selection in 2000 . . . Along with Tim Bowens, who also was named to his second Pro Bowl team, Taylor and Bowens became the third and fourth Dolphins defensive linemen in club history to record multiple Pro Bowl appearances, joining Bob Baumhower (5 – 1979, 1981-84) and Bill Stanfill (4 – 1971-74) . . . The seven Pro Bowl selections by the Dolphins tied for the second-most in team history (2000), trailing only the eight that went following the 1984 season . . . Six of the seven selections were defensive players, the most in team history, surpassing the previous high of five from 2000 . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Earned numerous honors following the season . . . Was a first-team All-Pro selection by Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, The Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Also was named the Defensive Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Kansas City 101, and the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) . . . Was chosen as the Pass Rusher of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association . . . Along with Ricky Williams, was named as the team's co-MVP in a vote of South Florida media and fans . . . Was the winner of the team's Leadership Award, as voted on by his teammates.

2001 - Started all 16 regular season games at right defensive end . . . Was fourth on the club with 86 tackles (60 total), a career high to that point, which ranked first among the team's linemen and surpassed his previous career high of 68 set in 2000 . . . Led team in sacks with 8.5 for 44.5 yards in losses and collected a team-best 25 quarterback hurries . . . Also produced an interception, four fumble recoveries including one for a touchdown, four forced fumbles and seven passes defended, which led Dolphins' linemen . . . Four fumble recoveries tied for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history . . . Was named a second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press . . . Recorded four tackles, a sack and two fumble recoveries in 31-10 win over New England (10/7), when he picked up a Tom Brady fumble at the Patriots' 1 on the final play of the third quarter and scored the third touchdown via a fumble return in his career . . . Posted a season-high nine tackles at N.Y. Jets (10/14) . . . Notched four tackles, a sack, a pass defended and a forced fumble vs. Carolina (11/4) . . . The sack in the Panthers contest was the 35th of his career, tying him with Manny Fernandez for ninth on the Dolphins' all-time chart . . . The following week at Indianapolis (11/11), tallied five tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery . . . In the Colts game, recovered a Dominic Rhodes fumble at the Dolphins' 41 with 10:50 to play and Miami trailing 24-20 . . . The Dolphins then embarked on a seven-play drive which ended with a 29-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler to Chris Chambers for the winning score in a 27-24 victory . . . Posted four tackles, a season-high 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble at Buffalo (11/25) . . . Recorded four tackles, a sack and an interception in Monday night win over Indianapolis (12/10), as he picked off a Peyton Manning pass . . . Had a half-sack in season finale vs. Buffalo (1/6/02), giving him 39.5 in his career and tying him with Kim Bokamper and Bob Baumhower for the sixth-highest total in Dolphins history . . . Started First-Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) . . . Recorded 10 tackles (six solo) . . .

2000 - Started all 16 games at right defensive end . . . Registered 68 total tackles (46 solo), including 14.5 sacks for 92 yards lost . . . Also had an interception, four fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and five passes defended . . . Tackle total ranked sixth on the team and first among linemen . . . Sack total was second on the squad, trailing only DE Trace Armstrong, who tallied 16.5 . . . It also was the second-highest figure in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in 2000 . . . Against Baltimore (9/17), tallied six tackles, including 2.5 sacks, the second-highest single-game total of his NFL career to that point and his fourth career game with two or more sacks . . . Part of a defensive effort that held the Ravens to six points and 262 total net yards in Miami's 19-6 victory . . . Had six tackles, a sack, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble, and was awarded a defensive game ball at Cincinnati (10/1) . . . That game began a streak of six consecutive contests in which he had at least one sack . . . The sack, fumble recovery and forced fumble all came on the same play as he stripped the ball from Bengals QB Akili Smith, picked it up at the Bengals' 29 and raced into the end zone as time expired in the first half . . . The touchdown brought the Dolphins to within three points of the lead at 13-10 . . . The play was voted as the best defensive play of the year in the NFL in a vote of fans on NFL.com . . . It was the second touchdown of Taylor's career, with the first being a 4-yard fumble return for a score on September 13, 1999 at Denver after picking up a Brian Griese fumble . . . Notched five tackles, including a pair of sacks for the fifth multiple sack game of his career, at Detroit (11/5) . . . Had four tackles, a sack and a pass defended at San Diego (11/12) . . . It marked the sixth straight game in which he had a sack, tying Doug Betters' club record for most consecutive contests with a sack (now second) . . . At Buffalo (12/3), posted six tackles, including a career-high three sacks, surpassing his previous best of 2.5, which he accounted for in week three of the '00 season against Baltimore . . . Part of a defense that held Buffalo to just 196 yards of total offense . . . In season-ending win at New England (12/24), posted his first interception of the season and the second of his career, as he picked off a Drew Bledsoe pass in the second quarter and returned it two yards to the Patriots' 12, setting up an Olindo Mare field goal . . . Tallied three passes defended on the day . . . Started both playoff games following the 2000 season at right end . . . Collected nine tackles . . .

SACKS: Recorded a sack in 11 of Miami's 16 games in 2000, including three contests with two or more . . . Sack total of 14.5 established a new career high to that point, surpassing his previous best of nine, which he first set in 1998 . . . Taylor's sack total was the fourth-highest single-season figure in club history at that time, and now sixth . . .

SACK STREAK: Taylor recorded a sack in six straight games in 2000 (5-10), tying the Dolphins team record for most consecutive games with a sack to that point, and now tied for the second-longest such streak . . . The record of six was first set by Doug Betters, who accomplished the feat in 1983 (games 7-12) . . .

SACK TANDEM: In 2000, Trace Armstrong (16.5) and Taylor (14.5) totaled 31 sacks, the highest sack total by a duo in Dolphins history . . . Armstrong and Taylor ranked first and second, respectively, in the AFC in sacks in 2000, marking only the second time since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that teammates finished 1-2 in a conference in sacks . . . In 1996, Carolina's Kevin Greene finished first in the NFC with 14.5 sacks while Lamar Lathon tied for second with 13.5 sacks:

In addition, Armstrong and Taylor's total of 31.0 sacks also were the most sacks by a tandem from the same team in the NFL in 2000 . . .

FUMBLE RECOVERIES: Taylor established a career high with four fumble recoveries in 2000, one of which he returned for a touchdown . . . The four fumble recoveries tied for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history and were the most since Louis Oliver had four in 1996:

Tallied three tackles and a sack in the Colts game . . . Notched seven tackles, including two sacks, vs. Buffalo (9/13), marking the first multiple-sack game of his career . . . His two sacks were among eight by the Dolphins that day, tied for the second-highest single-game total in club history . . . Posted three tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble at N.Y. Jets (10/4) . . . Registered a season-high eight tackles and a pass defended vs. New England (10/25), when the Dolphins held the Patriots without a touchdown in a 12-9 overtime victory . . . Recorded five tackles, a sack and two passes defended at Carolina (11/15) as the Dolphins held the Panthers without a touchdown in a 13-9 win . . . Had five tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble at Oakland (12/6) . . . His two sacks were among eight on the day by Miami as a team, tied for the second-highest single-game total in franchise history . . . Sustained a fractured right clavicle in the first half of season finale at Atlanta (12/27) . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on December 29, and missed both of Miami's playoff games following the 1998 season.

1997 - Played in 13 games with 11 starts at right defensive end as a rookie . . . Was inactive for three contests with a fractured right forearm . . . Finished with 50 total tackles (43 solo), five sacks for 37 yards lost, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and three passes defended . . . Also came up with six special teams tackles on the year . . . Sack total tied with Derrick Rodgers and Tim Bowens for second on the squad . . . His five sacks tied Rodgers for the fourth-most ever by a Dolphins rookie at the time (now fifth), and they tied for fourth among NFL rookies in 1997, along with Minnesota's Dwayne Rudd . . . In addition, Taylor and Rodgers' combined ten sacks made them the second-most productive rookie sack tandem in Dolphins history (now tied with Lorenzo Bromell and Kenny Mixon, who also tallied ten sacks in 1998), trailing only A.J. Duhe (7) and Bob Baumhower (4), who combined for 11 in 1977 . . . Their total was second among rookie sack tandems in the NFL in 1997, trailing only Baltimore's Peter Boulware and Jamie Sharper, who combined for 14.5 sacks . . . Made his NFL debut in season-opener against Indianapolis (8/31) when he started at right defensive end . . . Tied for second on the team with a season-high ten total tackles . . . Included in that total was the first sack of his career, as he dropped Jim Harbaugh for an 8-yard loss . . . Sustained a fractured right forearm during practice on October 16 . . . Underwent surgery to reduce and stabilize the fracture on October 17 by Dr. John Uribe at HealthSouth Doctors Hospital in Coral Gables . . . LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

FINS FACT

Clyde took an unusual route to the NFL. He quit football after his freshman year at Vernon (Texas) High School to concentrate on basketball, where he was a standout point guard. He walked on the basketball team at Tyler Junior College, but he left school after not appearing in any games in 2004-05. His high school coach set up tryouts for him with Georgia Tech and Georgetown, but Clyde could not afford the airfare and he returned home to Vernon. While home, he met the secondary coach at

Abilene Christian, a Division II school, and he enrolled there in 2007 with his cousin and an old junior college friend, Johnny Knox, who now plays receiver for the Chicago Bears. Gates walked on the football team despite not having played for six years, and became a full-time starter in 2009, his junior year. "It's a blessing," Gates said. "It's just part of a plan. I really had no control over (my situation)," Gates said. "I was just trailing my cousin. They talked me into it, and I just went for it, and it kind of worked out for the better."

COLLEGE Played in 46 games with 34 starts at Abilene Christian . . . Finished collegiate career with 158 receptions for 2,885 yards (18.3 avg.) and 27 touchdowns . . . Added 38 carries for 336 yards (8.9 avg.) with five touchdowns . . . Also returned 20 kickoffs for 520 yards (26.0 avg.) . . . Registered 13 100-yard receiving performances . . . Left school ranked second in career receiving yards and tied for second in touchdown catches . . . Registered 118 first downs on his 158 catches (74.7-percent) and converted 20 third-down throws and three more on fourth-down snaps . . . Also 103 of his catches (65.2-percent) were good for at least ten yards, including 48 grabs (30.4-percent) of 20 yards or longer . . . Started all 12 games as a senior in 2010 . . . Finished season with 66 catches for 1,182 (17.9 avg.) and 13 touchdowns . . . Added three rushes for seven yards . . . Named a first-team Little All-American selection and Division II Receiver of the Year by The NFL Draft Report . . . Added first-team All-Lone Star Conference South honors and was also chosen LSC South Receiver of the Year . . . Opened season with five catches for 138 yards and two scores at Washburn . . . Frank, who was drafted by the Dolphins in the seventh round in 2010, is becoming accustomed to waiting. He was scheduled to graduate from Alabama A&M in Huntsville May 13, 2011 with a bachelor's degree in social work. However, the ceremony was indefinitely postponed as a result of the tornadoes that devastated the South. "I was standing outside and I heard a (tornado) siren," Kearsse said. "I didn't know what to do. We received an e-mail telling everybody to evacuate campus. I had to come home to Savannah because of the tornadoes. Graduation has been pushed back and everything. It was crazy. It was absolutely crazy. The best way I can describe that up there, in the city of Huntsville, is it was like (the Will Smith movie) 'I Am Legend.' No power. No nothing. It was like a ghost town out there."

Mike and his twin brother, Maurkice, who plays with the Pittsburgh Steelers, in coordination with Deshea Townsend's "Pay It Forward" Foundation, held a free youth football camp for boys and girls ages 7-14 on June 25, 2010 on their former prep football fields at Lakeland High School. The Pouncey Twins, along with former teammates and coaches, taught local children fundamental football skills, with an emphasis on good sportsmanship, academic success, respect and leadership. "Guys used to come back and talk to us when we were in these same situations as some of these kids are," Mike said. "It meant the world to us. So that's basically what we want to do. If we only got one guy's attention in that classroom, just to change a life, to us, meant a lot."

Daniel's journey to the NFL is a story of persistence, spanning hundreds of miles and no less than three junior colleges. After starring at Hilliard High School, he was recruited by Kansas State, Florida and Mississippi, among others, but that's where schoolwork got in the way. Failing to qualify, Daniel attended Northwest Mississippi Community College. Over the next two years, Daniel played option quarterback, earning junior college All-America honors. He did just enough to receive a degree, but not enough to satisfy NCAA requirements. He then took on another year of junior college, this time in Kansas with no football, just studying. He finished his required courses - even took a summer class at Manhattan Christian College, across from Kansas State - and qualified. "The door was closing," Thomas said. "I had to buckle down. It was a very long trip. I could write a movie or a book about it."

TWO DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Two Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season.

FINS FACT

Jimmy joins a pair of his former Montana teammates on the Dolphins roster in running back Lex Hilliard and kicker Dan Carpenter. "Me and those guys, we've won a few games together," Wilson said. "In 2004, I went to the championship game with those guys, so it's just a blessing to be playing on the same team as these guys. So, just that alone is exciting to be able to get back with some old teammates and get to work and I think we'll have a great time out there."

LONG IMPACT

In 2008, Jake Long became just the fourth overall No. 1 selection, since 1970 when the AFL and NFL merged, to play in the Pro Bowl following his rookie campaign. He was the first since New Orleans Saints running back George Rogers, who accomplished the feat in 1981. Long joins the exclusive company of Rogers, Houston Oilers running back Earl Campbell (1978) and Detroit Lions running back Billy Sims (1980), who were each selected to the annual NFL all star game after being the top selection. Long has started all 47 games at left tackle for the Dolphins since becoming the first overall pick in the 2008 NFL draft, and joins Richmond Webb (1992-1995) as the only Dolphins offensive tackles to be named a Pro Bowl starter. Long becomes the first Dolphins offensive lineman selected to three straight Pro Bowls since Webb was named to seven straight Pro Bowls (1990-96).

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

Mrs. Robert Swanson with Dolphins founder Joe Robbie.

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four year stretch from 1971-74, they compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998.

2010 GAME SUMMARIES

DOLPHINS 15, BILLS 10
September 12, 2010

Ralph Wilson Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

With eight new starters on defense and a new defensive coordinator in Mike Nolan, there was plenty of mystery surrounding the Miami Dolphins before the 2010 season opener at the Buffalo Bills. Once the curtain was pulled back, however, what was revealed was a stingy and hard-hitting unit that completely shut down the Bills in a 15-10 victory at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The tempo was set on the opening drive as Miami pulled linebackers Koa Misi and Tim Dobbins and went with the nickel package with Benny Sapp the extra cornerback and Bobby Carpenter as the nickel linebacker. After back-to-back incompletions by Bills quarterback Trent Edwards, with one knocked down at the line by nose tackle Randy Starks, linebacker Karlos Dansby came in untouched on a blitz off the right edge and sacked Edwards for a 9-yard loss to force a punt out of the gate. Miami's offense put together a 9-play, 37-yard drive that led to Dan Carpenter's 32-yard field goal after that stop. Miami's offense looked efficient in the first half as Chad Henne found Brandon Marshall six times for 44 yards and running back Ronnie Brown ran hard for 34 yards on eight carries in the first two quarters. He capped off an 11-play, 65-yard scoring drive with a 1-yard leap over the pile early in the second quarter to give his team a 10-point lead, but Buffalo's defense rose up in the third quarter and kept the Dolphins on their side of the field. Henne engineered a nine-play, 48-yard scoring drive to start the fourth quarter that resulted in Carpenter's 43-yard field goal as he was 2-of-3 on the afternoon, with his lone miss coming from 46 yards in the first half. Henne finished the day completing 21-of-34 passes for 182 yards, eight of those to wide receiver Brandon Marshall for 53 yards. He also found Davone Bess six times for 51 yards and tight end Anthony Fasano three times for 46 yards. The Bills opted to go to a no-huddle offense after that and Edwards strung together an 80-yard scoring drive, capping it off with an improbable 31-yard touchdown pass to Roscoe Parrish on 4th-and-11 after he had been sacked by Dolphins rookie linebacker Koa Misi for a 9-yard loss one play earlier. Lindell's point after made it a three-point game and after Henne was sacked near midfield at the two-minute warning the Bills had one last gasp. Punter Brandon Fields made it as tough as it could be by placing a 48-yard punt like a perfect lob wedge in golf at the Buffalo 1. Three straight incompletions forced the Bills to line up for a punt. They took a safety with the long snapper firing it over Moorman's head to give Miami a 15-10 lead and then kicked it back to the Dolphins with 1:32 left and two timeouts on their side. The Dolphins burned their last time-out to make sure they were ready for anything and Moorman pooched it high to the Miami 44 where Marshall made a fair catch. Three straight runs by Ricky Williams gained nine yards to the 46 and the Dolphins milked the clock down to 36 seconds and took a delay of game penalty. Fields punted it from his own 49 into the end zone for a touchback with 29 seconds left. Three straight incompletions by Edwards and a failed desperation play on 4th-and-10 wrapped up the opening day win for the Dolphins.

DOLPHINS 14, VIKINGS 10
September 19, 2010

Mall of America Field at HHH Metrodome
Minneapolis, MN

Jason Allen waited five years to have his coming out party but it was well worth it as the Miami Dolphins' first-round draft pick in 2006 became Brett Favre's biggest nightmare inside the Metrodome in week 2 and helped Miami upset the Vikings, 14-10. Allen picked off Favre two times – and had a third negated by off-setting penalties – as he sparked a swarming and opportunistic Dolphins defense that sent the normally loud and raucous Vikings home crowd quietly back to the streets of Minneapolis. The defense even matched the offense in scoring as Cameron Wake swiped the ball out of Favre's hand in Minnesota's end zone late in the third quarter. The fumble was recovered by rookie linebacker Koa Misi for his first career recovery and touchdown, giving Miami a commanding 14-0 lead. Of course, no lead is ever safe with Favre in the game and he took advantage of one of two Miami fumbles by its running backs, this one by Ricky Williams after Allen's first interception at his own 1. Favre got the ball in the hands of running back Adrian Peterson for a 1-yard scoring run and then had to settle for a 28-yard field goal by Ryan Longwell the following series after another Vikings defensive stop. Allen picked off Favre again with a nicely timed leap while covering Bernard Berrian to kill another drive. Then after Ronnie Brown fumbled deep in his own territory, Favre and Peterson drove the ball all the way to the Miami 1. But Vontae Davis came up and met Peterson at the line on 4th-and-goal and kept him out of the end zone. The defense stopped Favre's last-ditch effort with a fourth-down pass breakup. Minnesota did gain 364 total yards of offense but Miami's defense was too tough when it counted, and the offense did its job in the first quarter as quarterback Chad Henne connected on a 46-yard bomb with Brandon Marshall on the first offensive play. Henne capped off that drive with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Brian Hartline.

GAME 3

N.Y. JETS 31, DOLPHINS 23
September 26, 2010

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

Another classic Jets-Dolphins game came down to the final minute, but this time the Dolphins came out on the wrong end of a 31-23 score. A packed house at Sun Life Stadium was treated to a back-and-forth contest between two evenly matched AFC East rivals and saw their home team come back from a 14-0 deficit. Brandon Marshall finally had his breakout game as a member of the Dolphins as he caught 10 passes for 166 yards and a touchdown, but it wasn't enough as New York's Mark Sanchez found tight end Dustin Keller twice for touchdowns and LaDainian Tomlinson's 1-yard touchdown run with just under two minutes remaining was the difference. Marshall's 30-yard catch and run in the closing minute positioned Miami at the Jets' 11 but on 4th-and-5 from the 6, Henne's pass for tight end Anthony Fasano in the end zone was picked off by New York's Drew Coleman for a touchback. Before that final drive even started as Patrick Cobbs was running back the ensuing kickoff 30 yards to his own 31, Miami's offense looked confident. Henne wound up throwing for a career-high 363 yards and completed 26-of-44 passes. Coming into this game, Miami's defense was playing at a high level and had held its first two opponents to a combined 20 points, but New York racked up 402 total yards of offense, 146 yards on the ground and 256 through the air. Sanchez was 15-of-28 with three touchdowns for the second straight week and was not intercepted or sacked. The one big play Miami's defense would have liked to have back was Sanchez's 67-yard touchdown pass to Braylon Edwards immediately after Marshall had given the Dolphins a 17-14 lead with his first touchdown as a Dolphin. It was a deep out route and cornerback Jason Allen slipped trying to make the tackle, allowing Edwards to sprint untouched down the left sideline into the end zone. New York also blocked a Brandon Fields punt, the first of his career, and took over at the Miami 17. The defense stiffened to keep the Jets out of the end zone and force them to settle for a 30-yard field goal by Nick Folk, and Dolphins kicker Dan Carpenter answered with a 51-yard field goal of his own to make it a one-point game at 24-23. Davone Bess caught six passes for 86 yards, Brian Hartline caught five for 84 yards and Fasano caught two for 14, including a 3-yard touchdown.

GAME 4

NEW ENGLAND 41, DOLPHINS 14
October 4, 2010

Miami Gardens, FL

Special teams proved to be the difference as the Miami Dolphins fell to the New England Patriots, 41-14, at Sun Life Stadium. Miami held a 7-6 lead at the half before the wheels came off at the start of the third quarter as Patriots returner Brandon Tate took back the second half kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown. It was a sign of things to come for Miami's specialty units as New England's Patrick Chung blocked a Brandon Fields punt on the next series that was recovered at the Miami 15. Two plays later, BenJarvus Green-Ellis scored from 12 yards out. The Dolphins answered with an 8-play, 80-yard drive, which was capped off with a 24-yard scoring pass from Chad Henne to running back Ricky Williams, but those were Miami's last points of the evening. Chung blocked Dan Carpenter's 43-yard field goal attempt late in the third quarter and Patriots teammate Kyle Arrington scooped up the ball and went 35 yards untouched for another score. Former Dolphins linebacker Rob Ninkovich picked off two Henne passes in the first half and also sacked the third-year quarterback and Chung added a 51-yard interception return for a touchdown to account for the final margin of victory. The loss diminished a nice outing by Dolphins wide receiver Davone Bess, who caught nine passes for 93 yards and a touchdown, his first of the season, with six of those catches for 71 yards coming in the first half. Henne went 29-of-40 for 302 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions before being replaced by Tyler Thigpen with just over six minutes left in the game and the game already decided.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 23, PACKERS 20 (OT) Lambeau Field
Green Bay, WI
October 17, 2010

The Dolphins remained perfect away from Miami in 2010 with a 23-20 overtime victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field. Kicker Dan Carpenter's 44-yard field goal with 9:01 left in the extra period secured the win and capped a stellar day for which he earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Carpenter's then career-long 53-yarder at the end of the first half tied the game at 10-10 and gave the Dolphins momentum. He actually had to kick two field goals as his 43-yarder was negated by a holding penalty, so he just reset himself and hit the kick from 10 yards further. Cameron Wake sacked Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers a career-high three times and had a total of six quarterback hurries. The last sack was the biggest as Rodgers was facing a 3rd-and-6 from his own 20 in overtime after Miami went three-and-out. That forced a short punt by Tim Masthay of 37 yards that was fair caught by Davone Bess at his own 48. Head Coach Tony Sparano praised Wake not only for the sacks and his overall high motor, but also for drawing a crucial holding penalty that killed another Packers drive. While Wake was on the field when Rodgers tied the game in the waning seconds of regulation with a 1-yard quarterback sneak on 4th-and-goal, he wasn't about to let Rodgers escape in overtime. Wide receiver Brandon Marshall had another big afternoon as he caught 10 passes for 127 yards, seven of those for 102 yards in the first half. The Packers opted to put their best cornerback, Charles Woodson, on Davone Bess and leave Marshall in one-on-one coverage on Tramon Williams. Quarterback Chad Henne went to Bess five times for 37 yards, but one of those was a 2-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter after his defense held the Packers to a field goal. He finished 23-of-39, for 231 yards, two touchdowns and an interception. Running back Ronnie Brown rushed for 73 yards on 19 carries and Ricky Williams rushed for 64 yards on 13 carries as Miami's bruising running game took its toll on Green Bay. Considering the Packers were depleted by injuries, running the ball 39 times was the correct strategy, especially in the second half.

GAME 6

STEELERS 23, DOLPHINS 22
October 24, 2010

Miami Gardens, FL

A controversial ruling by officials enabled Pittsburgh's Jeff Reed to kick the game-winning field goal in a 23-22 win over Miami at Sun Life Stadium. Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger dove for the end zone on a quarterback draw on 3rd-and-goal and he was hit by safety Chris Clemons, losing the ball before he crossed. The play was initially ruled a touchdown but the play was challenged by the Dolphins. After a lengthy replay review it was ruled a fumble but the referee said it could not be determined who recovered the ball, so the Steelers were given the ball at the half-yard line. Reed kicked the field goal with 2:26 left and the Dolphins, out of timeouts, could not advance out of their own end. Dan Carpenter followed up his AFC Player of the Week honors by going 5-for-5 on field goals to keep his team in the game and Davone Bess caught a 26-yard touchdown pass at the end of the first half to ignite the home fans. The game started promising for Miami as Lex Hilliard forced a fumble on the opening kickoff by Emmanuel Sanders and Reshad Jones recovered. But the offense couldn't get the ball in the end zone and had to settle for a 39-yard field goal by Carpenter. On the very next series, Roethlisberger was sacked by Jeremiah Bell, who forced the ball loose, and Koa Misi recovered at the 13. Three running plays came up short and Carpenter delivered again. The Steelers came back on the strength of Roethlisberger's arm as he connected with Mike Wallace on a 53-yard touchdown pass and Hines Ward from 6 yards out. Chad Henne completed 23-of-36 for 257 yards and one touchdown, with Bess catching six passes for 66 yards. Brandon Marshall and Brian Hartline each added five receptions for 57 yards and tight end Anthony Fasano caught three passes for 49 yards.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 22, BENGALS 14
October 31, 2010

Paul Brown Stadium
Cincinnati, OH

Kicker Dan Carpenter's right foot kept Miami in a game that looked like it was going to get away as for the second straight week he kicked five field goals to key a 22-14 road victory over the Bengals. Among those five field goals was a then career-long 54-yarder at the end of the first half that pulled the Dolphins to within 14-12. That kick took the sting out of an awkward bounce of what should have been an interception for safety by Chris Clemons into the hands of Terrell Owens that led to Cincinnati's second touchdown, a 37-yard catch, and gave the Bengals a 14-6 lead. When Carpenter capped off a 15-play, 81-yard scoring drive in the third quarter to give the Dolphins a 15-14 lead on a 31-yard field goal, he set the tone for quarterback Chad Henne's best drive of his career. Clinging to a one-point lead early in the fourth quarter and backed up near his own end zone, Henne led a six-play, 96-yard scoring drive that Ricky Williams finished off with a 1-yard touchdown run. On the drive, which actually covered 98 yards after a false start on first down, Henne hit Brandon Marshall for 24 yards and Brian Hartline for 24 more, and then watched as Hartline went 30 yard on an end around. Williams blew through a hole up the middle for 18 yards to set up his own touchdown. Miami's defense forced six consecutive punts by Kevin Huber and shut down running back Cedric Benson most of the second half to force Cincinnati into being one-dimensional. The secondary recovered from some early gaffes to prevent more big plays by Owens and Chad Ochocinco and Cameron Wake got late pressure on Palmer to force some errant throws. Cornerback Sean Smith put the dagger in with his first career interception with 2:43 left in the game. Henne, Williams and the offense came out to kill the clock and allow Miami to remain perfect on the road in 2010 at 4-0. The third-year quarterback finished the game completing 24-of 37 passes for 217 yards and one interception. Williams carried the ball nine times for 47 yards and Bess caught seven passes for 53 yards while Marshall reeled in five for 64. Hartline caught five passes for 53 and also had the 30 rushing yards on the end around.

GAME 8

RAVENS, 26, DOLPHINS 10
November 7, 2010

M&T Bank Stadium
Baltimore, MD

Through three quarters at M&T Bank Stadium, the Miami Dolphins proved that they belonged on the same field as the Baltimore Ravens. Unfortunately, a couple of bad bounces and an efficient Ravens offense ultimately did them in as they dropped a 26-10 decision. Two plays in the second half said it all – one that wasn't made by the Dolphins defense and one that was by Ravens Pro Bowl safety Ed Reed. With his team trailing 20-10 late in the third quarter, Dolphins cornerback Sean Smith jumped the route of veteran wide receiver Anquan Boldin and had nothing but green in front of him, but he couldn't hold on to the interception. Two plays later, Baltimore ran a successful fake punt to take more time off the clock. Then with just over six minutes left in the game and the Ravens ahead by 13 points, Reed dashed all hopes of a Miami comeback by being in the right place at the right time. Chad Henne's pass to Brandon Marshall was a bit high and deflected off of Marshall's hands right to Reed, who held on to it and ran it back inside the Miami 20 to the 18. Baltimore's offense kept it on the ground and grinded the clock all the way down to 2:12, moving the ball to the Miami 6. Billy Cundiff kicked a 24-yard field goal to make the score 26-10. The two teams traded touchdowns to start the game as Henne answered Joe Flacco's opening seven-play, 76-yard drive with an 11-play drive covering 75 yards. Running back Ronnie Brown was the workhorse on that drive as he carried the ball six times for 45 yards, capping it off with a 12-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 7-7. Miami's defense managed to sack Flacco four times in the first three quarters and came up with two big defensive stops in the first half to hold the Ravens to two field goals and one botched attempt. Henne then looked sharp in the closing minutes of the first half as he completed 7 of 9 passes for 77 yards on an 11-play, 79-yard scoring drive. He got it all the way to the Baltimore 1 before Dan Carpenter made a 19-yard field goal to make it 13-10 at the half. Carpenter's streak of 14 consecutive field goals came to an end in the third quarter when he hooked a 46-yard attempt. Ravens running back Ray Rice was the big difference in the game as he rushed for 83 yards on 22 carries and caught seven passes for 97 yards. He kept catching the Dolphins defense off guard with screen passes that he took for big yardage.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 29, TITANS 17
November 14, 2010

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

Down to their last quarterback after a strange day of injuries, the Miami Dolphins dug deep on Sunday and found a way to beat the Tennessee Titans, 29-17, for their lone home win of the 2010 season. Veteran starter Chad Pennington injured his shoulder on the second offensive play of the game and did not return, leaving it up to the man he replaced, Chad Henne, to lead the offense. Henne had a hot hand through the third quarter as he completed 19 of 28 passes for 240 yards, a touchdown and an interception on the afternoon. But late in the third quarter, Henne was hit low as he tried to throw to Ricky Williams and left the game with a knee injury, forcing the Dolphins to turn to emergency third quarterback Tyler Thigpen. Thigpen actually didn't take his first official snap until the fourth quarter as Miami wanted to keep Henne eligible to return by running out of the Wildcat. Williams had runs of 14 and 23 yards to set up a 42-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter, his second of the day, as Thigpen missed his first pass attempt on third down. After the Dolphins defense held and forced another punt by Tennessee's Brett Kern, Thigpen turned on the magic and led an 85-yard scoring drive to secure the victory. His two biggest pass plays were to tight end Anthony Fasano as he hit him with a 31-yard pass while scrambling to his right, with a 15-yard facemask penalty on the Titans moving it closer. He ended the drive with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Fasano on third down to make it 29-17. For the game, Thigpen completed 4-of-6 passes for 64 yards and that touchdown for a passer rating of 141.7. Fasano finished the contest with five catches for 107 yards, the highest receiving total of his career, and his first 100-yard receiving game. The Dolphins forced three turnovers that they turned into touchdowns, one on the opening drive when Karlos Dansby stripped Bo Scaife of the ball and Chris Clemons fell on it at the Titans' 31. Ronnie Brown scored from the 2 six plays later. In the third quarter, safety Jeremiah Bell blitzed Vince Young, who had replaced Kerry Collins after Collins injured his calf, and knocked the ball loose. Randy Starks recovered at the 13 and two plays later Henne hit Patrick Cobbs for a touchdown. Rookie free safety Reshad Jones sealed the game with an interception in his own end zone for a touchback as Young tried to lead a comeback. Jones also sacked Young on a safety blitz.

GAME 10

BEARS 16, DOLPHINS 0
November 18, 2010

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

Facing a physical Chicago Bears team and already down a handful of key starters, Miami was hit even harder by the injury bug in the first half and never could recover in a 16-0 home loss. It marked the first time the team was shutout in nine years (24-0 to the New York Jets on Nov. 18, 2001). Center Cory Procter, starting in place of regular center Joe Berger, who was out with a knee injury, was carted off the field in the first quarter with his own knee injury. Procter was downfield blocking on a wide receiver screen to Davone Bess and his foot got caught in the turf, forcing left guard Richie Incognito to move over to play center and Pat McQuistan enter the game at left guard. Late in the second half, wide receiver Brandon Marshall went down awkwardly after an 18-yard reception over the middle from quarterback Tyler Thigpen. He stayed on the ground grimacing in pain and limped off the field with a hamstring injury, returning to the sideline in the second half wearing a T-shirt and ballcap. Those untimely injuries, combined with a fast and aggressive Bears defense, was too much for Thigpen to overcome in his first start as a Dolphin. He had been the emergency third quarterback up until the previous Sunday when he came in for the injured Chad Henne in the fourth quarter of a 29-17 victory over Tennessee. In addition, Thigpen's best protector, Pro Bowl left tackle Jake Long, was fighting through a shoulder injury all night. Thigpen was sacked six times on the night and was the team's leading rusher late into the fourth quarter because he was forced to scramble so often. Miami's defense hung tough and kept Chicago out of the end zone until late in the third quarter, allowing their offense to stay in the game. But being out on the field so long eventually wore down that unit and Bears quarterback Jay Cutler put together a clock eating 60-yard scoring drive to give his team some breathing room. Chicago running back Matt Forte hammered away at the Dolphins defense, capping off that long drive with a 2-yard touchdown run, and he finished the game with 97 yards on 25 carries. Cutler rushed four times for 28 yards. Cutler was sacked three times, once each by Cameron Wake, Quentin Moses and Karlos Dansby. But the damage already was done and the defensive players, while proud of what they did in the first half, took the loss pretty hard, especially considering how successful the Bears were on third downs (10-of-18).

GAME 11

DOLPHINS 33, RAIDERS 17

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Davone Bess stuck to his word that he wasn't going to be distracted on his first trip home to Oakland as a pro and gave his family and friends a performance to be proud of. Bess victimized the Raiders' secondary throughout afternoon and hurt them on punt returns as well as Miami escaped The Black Hole with a 33-17 victory. The win moved the Dolphins back above .500 at 6-5. Bess caught five passes for 82 yards in the first half alone and finished with six for 111 yards as Miami rebounded from giving up Jacoby Ford's 101-yard kickoff return for a touchdown to start the game. Bess and Brian Hartline consistently found holes down the field for quarterback Chad Henne, who was making his first start since a 26-10 loss at Baltimore on Nov. 7. Henne was 17-of-30 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and an interception for a 100.3 passer rating. He was 6-of-7 for 100 yards and a touchdown in the first quarter as the knee he injured two weeks ago held up fine. Head Coach Tony Sparano didn't make his decision to start Henne official until 90 minutes before kickoff, but offensive coordinator Dan Henning still utilized Tyler Thigpen on a handful of snaps. Thigpen rushed for 8 yards on a quarterback draw to set up Dan Carpenter's 44-yard field goal that made it a 23-14 ballgame. In the third quarter Bess ran back a 48-yard Shane Lechler punt 47 yards down to the Oakland 30 with his team leading 23-14, but Dan Carpenter missed a 51-yard field goal. He did add a 25-yarder late in the fourth quarter to ice the game. Rookie wide receiver Marlon Moore caught a 57-yard touchdown pass on the first drive of the second half for his first career touchdown to give Miami a 20-14 lead. It was Moore's third catch as a pro and being from nearby Sacramento it meant a lot. Running back Ricky Williams really salted it away with a 45-yard touchdown run with 3:12 remaining. He finished the game with 95 yards on 20 carries. Miami's run defense stymied the Raiders, holding them to 16 yards in 12 carries as Oakland fell to 5-6. Darren McFadden managed just 2 yards on 8 carries but caught seven passes for 63 yards as the Dolphins were not about to let him get rolling on the ground.

GAME 12

BROWNS 13, DOLPHINS 10
December 5, 2010

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

The Miami Dolphins' struggles at home continued in a 13-10 loss to the Cleveland Browns as Phil Dawson drilled a 23-yard field goal with no time left on the clock to drop Miami to 1-5 at Sun Life Stadium on the season. The Browns took advantage of a rough outing by Dolphins quarterback Chad Henne to pull out the win. Henne was intercepted three times, the last one setting up Dawson's kick as Mike Adams caught the deflection by ex-Dolphin linebacker David Bowens and ran it back 24 yards to the Miami 2 with 1:05 remaining. Browns quarterback Jake Delhomme kneeled down three times to kill the clock and then burned a timeout to allow Dawson time to kick. He also had a 32-yarder late in the first half for the first points of the game. Dolphins kicker Dan Carpenter kicked a franchise-record 60-yard field goal at the end of the first half to tie the game at 3-3 and then Henne answered Delhomme's 94-yard touchdown drive in the third quarter with an 11-play, 80-yard drive of his own to tie the game again at 10-10. He hit tight end Anthony Fasano from 11 yards out for the score. Cleveland running back Peyton Hillis was kept in check as he rushed for 57 yards on 18 carries, but Delhomme exploited the middle of the field with tight end Benjamin Watson. Those two connected 10 times for 100 yards and one touchdown. Henne finished 16-of-32 for 174 yards, one touchdown and the three interceptions for a 37.8 passer rating, the lowest of his career. On the opening drive after Miami won the coin toss and elected to receive, Henne connected on passes of 17 yards to Davone Bess and 24 yards to running back Ronnie Brown. He moved the team 62 yards into field goal range but defensive lineman Shaun Rogers blocked Carpenter's 41-yard attempt. Henne was 6-for-6 on the Dolphins lone touchdown drive which was capped by an 11-yard scoring pass to Fasano. But turnovers did prove costly in what was a close game throughout. Bess led the team again with six receptions for 67 yards, including a long of 23. Late in the game on Cleveland's last offensive drive before the Adams interception the defense came up big one more time. Outside linebacker Cameron Wake sacked Delhomme for an 8-yard loss, giving him 1.5 sacks on the day and 12 on the year to that point in the season.

GAME 13

DOLPHINS 10, NEW YORK JETS 6
December 12, 2010

New Meadowlands Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

The last three meetings between the Miami Dolphins and New York Jets produced offensive and special teams fireworks, with lots of points scored. That was not the case at the New Meadowlands Stadium as the defenses – and punters – took center stage in a game that, as usual, came down to the wire with the Dolphins holding on for a narrow 10-6 victory. The star of the afternoon was Dolphins punter Brandon Fields, who, despite some stiff and crazy wind conditions, found some serious power in his right leg. Three times Fields launched kicks over 60 yards (69, 62 and 61), and also added a 58-yarder, two 56-yarders and a 53-yarder). He finished with 10 punts for 564 yards, an average of 56.4 yards per kick. In a game dictated by field position, the aptly named Fields delivered time after time – and he had to because his counterpart with the Jets, Steve Weatherford, was performing as well. Weatherford managed to perfectly place a slew of short punts inside the Miami 20 and pin the Dolphins deep, which also allowed Fields to load up and fire. All of his teammates and coaches certainly appreciated what Fields was able to do, so much so that they awarded him the game ball. Fortunately for Miami, its offense did just enough by scoring the only touchdown of the game in the first quarter on a 6-yard touchdown pass from Chad Henne to Brandon Marshall. That was set up by a turnover as defensive end Kendall Langford jarred the ball loose from Jets quarterback Mark Sanchez and Quentin Moses fell on it at the New York 26. Earlier in the quarter Sanchez was picked off by rookie cornerback Nolan Carroll for his first career interception, setting up Dan Carpenter's 47-yard field goal. Sanchez also was stripped of the ball a second time in the first half but his own teammate recovered. Fittingly, the Miami defense had to come up with one more stop in the closing minutes after Fields' 58-yard punt forced the Jets to have to go far to finish the comeback. Karlos Dansby recorded the team's fourth sack on the drive and Benny Sapp made a nice pass breakup to set up a long third down. Sanchez converted, spiked the ball and then was sacked for the fifth time, this time by Cameron Wake. Another incompletion brought up 4th-and-15 and Sanchez was tripped up by Wake again for his 14th sack of the season and Miami ran out the clock to improve to 7-6 on the year.

GAME 14

BILLS 17, DOLPHINS 14

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

Looking to keep their playoff hopes alive and turn the tide at Sun Life Stadium by ending the home game woes, the Dolphins battled themselves and the Buffalo Bills. In the end they couldn't overcome either in a 17-14 loss. After spotting Buffalo leads of 10-0 and 17-7, the Dolphins pulled within a field goal both times but could not get over the hump. Kicker Dan Carpenter had the worst day of his career as he was 0-for-4, missing twice from 48 yards, once from 61 and once from 53. He had a chance to tie the game in the closing minutes but missed from 48 yards to the right yet again. Quarterback Chad Henne did manage to complete 33-of-45 passes for 276 yards, one touchdown and one interception, but it was not enough as his Bills counterpart, Ryan Fitzpatrick, found the end zone twice. Brandon Marshall caught 11 passes for 106 yards and a touchdown, but he felt like he and the rest of the offense let the defense down. Both teams struggled in the first quarter and it was a scoreless tie when the second quarter began. Henne's first and only interception at the very end of the first quarter set Buffalo up at the Miami 35 and Fitzpatrick cashed in with an 18-yard touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver David Nelson on a third-and-goal. C.J. Spiller's 34-yard punt return moments later allowed the Bills' offense to start on the Dolphins' side of midfield. A 23-yard pass to Nelson put Buffalo at the Miami 19 and three plays later Rian Lindell made a 29-yard field goal to extend the lead to 10-0. But like they always do, the Dolphins bounced back and Henne put together a 64-yard scoring drive, completing 3-of-4 passes for 32 yards. A facemask penalty on Drayton Florence moved the ball to the 6 and two plays later running back Ronnie Brown scored out of the Wildcat around the right side with Marshall making a key block. Defensively, Miami came into the game ranked fifth overall and continued to do well against the run. Cornerback Benny Sapp came up with a big play late in the first half when he stepped in front of Bills wide receiver Steve Johnson and intercepted Fitzpatrick's pass. He tried to lateral to Vontae Davis and had to fall on the loose ball to keep possession, but Carpenter's 61-yard field goal as time expired was well short. An 11-play, 86-yard drive in the third quarter after the teams exchanged punts allowed Buffalo to regain its 10-point lead as Fitzpatrick hit Johnson from 15 yards out. He also chewed up a lot of clock and appeared to take the air out of the home crowd, but Henne answered by going 8-of-8 for 79 yards on an 8-play drive early in the fourth quarter, hitting Marshall from 9 yards out to make it 17-14. Miami's defense forced another punt and Henne and the offense got the ball back with 4:31 remaining needing just a field goal to tie. He moved the ball to the Buffalo 31 on the strength of a 16-yard pass to tight end Anthony Fasano but his pass for Davone Bess on 3rd-and-9 was broken up and when Carpenter's kick sailed wide right to end the Dolphins' comeback hopes.

GAME 15

LIONS 34, DOLPHINS 27

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

What looked like a second home victory for a Miami Dolphins team trying to salvage a winning record ended in the seventh home loss of the season at Sun Life Stadium. The Detroit Lions erased a 10-point deficit late in the fourth quarter to pull out a 34-27 come-from-behind victory, their second straight on the road after losing 26 in a row. Miami had a 10-point lead with just less than five minutes remaining at 27-17 and saw Detroit score 17 unanswered points in a span of two minutes and 38 seconds. Quarterback Chad Henne, who had looked solid through three quarters by completing 20-of-27 passes for 199 yards and a touchdown in a work-manlike effort, was picked off twice in the final five minutes. His first one went off the hands of tight end Mickey Shuler and into the hands of Lions cornerback Nathan Vasher. That set up Dave Rayner's 47-yard field goal that tied the game at 27-27. On the ensuing drive, Henne was looking for Davone Bess on a crossing route but Bess fell down after Henne released the ball and linebacker DeAndre Levy ran it back 30 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Henne, who finished 29-of-44 for 278 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions, utilized wide receivers Brandon Marshall and Davone Bess very well, as well as tight ends Anthony Fasano and Shuler early. Both caught passes for more than 20 yards to set up scores, with Shuler's 28-yarder setting up a 1-yard touchdown run by Ronnie Brown late in the first half. Henne also connected with Bess from 13 yards out with 30 seconds left in the first half as the ball bounced into Bess' hands after Tye Hill deflected it and the score stood upon review. The running game looked solid as Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams, along with fullback Lousaka Polite and running back Patrick Cobbs, combined for 154 yards on 37 carries for a 4.2 average. But those efforts came up short as everything that could go wrong did in the end.

GAME 16

PATRIOTS 38, DOLPHINS 7
January 2, 2011

Gillette Stadium
Foxborough, MA

After playing so well on the road all season long, the Miami Dolphins picked a bad time to falter in a 38-7 loss to the New England Patriots. Unlike most of the Dolphins' games in 2010 that came down to the wire, this one started off poorly and never really got better – until Tyler Thigpen completed a 21-yard touchdown pass to Davone Bess with 2:11 left in the game. It capped off a five-play, 80-yard drive that was aided by a 32-yard pass interference penalty on Devin McCourty and allowed Miami to avoid getting shutout. Chad Henne's 19th interception of the season on the game's opening drive set up New England at the Miami 47 and Patriots quarterback Tom Brady promptly got his team into the end zone. McCourty picked it off as Henne was trying to hit Brandon Marshall down the seam and he had help from safety Brandon Meriweather as the pass was on Marshall's back hip. A 19-yard run by Danny Woodhead was the big play on the ensuing drive and Brady capped it off with a 13-yard touchdown pass to rookie tight end Rob Gronkowski. Before Dolphins fans could even blink, Brady had engineered a 70-yard scoring drive in just less than two minutes on the strength of a 22-yard completion and a 40-yard completion to Julian Edelman. BenJarvus Green-Ellis scored from a yard out to make it 14-0 and New England never looked back from that point on. Edelman's franchise-record 94-yard punt return with 13 seconds left in the first half really took the air out of Miami, and then Brady's final drive following the second-half kickoff ended in his 10-yard touchdown pass to veteran tight end Alge Crumpler. Brady gave way to second-year quarterback Brian Hoyer after that drive and Hoyer connected on his first NFL touchdown pass, hitting Brandon Tate for 42 yards to make it a 38-0 ballgame. Hoyer finished 7-of-13 for 122 yards and one touchdown for a 111.7 passer rating. Defensively, the Patriots harassed Henne and backup quarterback Tyler Thigpen all afternoon both up front and in the secondary. Henne was sacked three times, twice by nose tackle Vince Wilfork, and Thigpen twice as well. The running game never got going either as Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams combined for 19 yards on 12 carries. Marshall did manage to reach 1,000 receiving yards for the fourth straight year as he caught 86 passes for 1,014 yards and running back Ricky Williams passed Hall-of-Famer Larry Csonka for first place in franchise history for rushing attempts with 1,509. Strong safety Jeremiah Bell went over 100 tackles for the third straight season.

PRESEASON GAME 1

DOLPHINS 12, BUCCANEERS 9
August 14, 2010

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

Despite a torrential downpour at kickoff that seriously altered the game plan for the Miami Dolphins, Head Coach Tony Sparano saw his team bounce back and overcome some untimely turnovers and mental errors to pull out a 10-7 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The victory was the eighth consecutive pre-season win for Miami, the longest streak since the team won 10 consecutive contests during the 1978, 1979 and 1980 preseasons. Running back Lex Hilliard scored Miami's only touchdown with six seconds left in the third quarter from two yards out to cap a seven-play, 61-yard drive. That was the Dolphins' first lead of the game, and thanks to a bend-but-don't break defense down the stretch, it held up. First-year cornerback Nate Ness was the real bright spot on the defense as he led the team in tackles with four, broke up three passes and forced two critical fumbles. Overall, the Bucs fumbled seven times and lost three. On a 3rd-and-24, Bucs running back Derrick Ward found some running room on a draw and gained 10 yards before Ness knocked the ball loose. Rookie defensive end Jared Odrick recovered at the Miami 46. His second forced fumble was even bigger as it came at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter after Bucs third-string quarterback Rudy Carpenter hit a wide open Chris Brooks down the middle for a long gain of 31 yards. Ness stripped the ball and rookie free safety Reshad Jones recovered in the end zone and ran it out to the 10 to ice the game. Pat White came out for his first snaps at quarterback, handed it off to Hilliard once and twice took a knee to kill the clock. Earlier in the fourth quarter, Ness came up with two huge pass breakups after a blocked punt allowed the Bucs to start at Miami's 30-yard line and they drove it all the way down to the 3. He timed his hits on wide receiver Terrence Nunn on back-to-back plays in the end zone, the last one coming on fourth down as Tampa Bay eschewed the tying field goal to go for the win. Tyler Thigpen was the game's top passer, connecting on 10 of 19 passes for 145 yards. Chad Henne, who directed the offense in the night's most inclement weather, completed five of 11 passes for 19 yards.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 27, JAGUARS 26
August 21, 2010

EverBank Field
Jacksonville, FL

Lightning in the area along with some disruptive rain and wind delayed the start of the game by 1 hour and 45 minutes, pushing kickoff back later than a typical Monday Night Football game. The field held up well as Miami stretched its preseason winning streak to nine games with a 27-26 victory at Jacksonville, leaving them one short of the franchise record. Quarterback Chad Henne shook off a rough opening series that saw him start in the shadow of his end zone to engineer three scoring drives. He finished the night completing 11 of 14 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns and there were two dropped passes sprinkled in there as well. It was the kind of night Head Coach Tony Sparano wanted to see out of his starter. Wide receiver Brandon Marshall had an impressive showing after not catching a pass in the preseason opener the previous week against Tampa Bay, specifically as a downfield blocker. The 6-foot-4, 230-pounder caught four passes for 65 yards but also played a big role on all three of Miami's first-half touchdowns. When Henne faked the hand off, rolled right and found Fasano wide open down field for a 55-yard touchdown pass on the third play of the second quarter, it was Marshall who cleared a path for Fasano. He took out two Jaguars defensive backs, holding one up with some nice blocking and then spinning off to take down the second. On Miami's next possession, Henne drew the defense away from the middle of the field by looking in Marshall's direction and then drilled an 11-yard scoring pass to Fasano in the end zone to allow the Dolphins to stretch their lead to 17-9 with 6:40 left in the half. And then just before the end of the half he cleared the way for running back Ronnie Brown to score on a 10-yard pass from Chad Pennington. Miami out gained Jacksonville 245-120 in the first half, with most of that coming through the air and finished with 341 yards to the Jaguars' 275. Pennington was 3 of 4 for 54 yards, including a 37-yard completion to Marshall on his first play under center. Marshall went up in between two defenders, tipped the ball to himself and then stayed on his feet for the extra yardage. Tyler Thigpen finished the game at quarterback and went 8-of-12 for 76 yards, engineering one scoring drive that ended with Dan Carpenter's 31-yard field goal. He also showed his toughness in the third quarter after he was hit hard on a late hit, losing his helmet, and he regrouped to lead the offense deep into Jacksonville territory. The Dolphins picked up where they left off the previous week in the turnover battle by forcing two – a fumble on a free kick after Brandon Fields' blocked punt went out of the end zone and an interception by cornerback Jonathan Amaya in the fourth quarter. Jason Allen forced the fumble on the free kick and Tyrone Culver recovered it. Randy Starks got a sack from his nose tackle position and the run defense looked solid, holding Jacksonville to 54 yards on 19 carries and starting running back Maurice Jones-Drew to minus-2 yards on four carries. Jacksonville did have a chance to extend the game even longer after Brock Bolen's 1-yard touchdown run in the waning minutes on a fourth down, but head coach Jack Del Rio opted to kick the extra point and leave it as a one-point game.

PRESEASON GAME 3

FALCONS 16, DOLPHINS 6
 August 27, 2010

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins saw their preseason winning streak end at nine games, one short of the franchise record, with a 16-6 home loss to the Atlanta Falcons at Sun Life Stadium. Quarterbacks Chad Henne, Chad Pennington and Pat White had an up-and-down night and none of the three could get the offense into the end zone as kicker Dan Carpenter provided all of the scoring with field goals of 53 and 35 yards. Wide receiver Brandon Marshall followed up his four-catch performance the previous week at Jacksonville with three catches for 51 yards. Henne finished 10-of-22 for 123 yards with one interception and was sacked once after going 11-of-15 for 151 yards and two touchdowns against the Jaguars. He had a few of his passes tipped, including the one before the end of the first half by Falcons linebacker Mike Peterson that was intercepted by Erik Coleman in the end zone. Miami's defense did force two turnovers, a fumble and an interception, but could not get much of a pass rush going. Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan hit Roddy White with an 18-yard touchdown in the first half and Chris Redman hit Brian Finneran from 5 yards out in the second half to account for Atlanta's two touchdowns. Matt Bryant added a 26-yard field goal and missed an extra point. Cornerback Vontae Davis was one of the few bright spots on the night as he led the team with seven tackles, including one for a loss, broke up three passes and forced the fumble that was recovered by Karlos Dansby. Another area of the offense that struggled was the running game as the Dolphins averaged just 2.6 yards per carry and finished with 46 yards on 18 carries. Running back Ronnie Brown was held to 9 yards on 8 carries and Ricky Williams had 5 yards on 4 carries. Pennington had 9 yards on one scramble and wide receiver Marlon Moore picked up 12 yards on an end around that resulted in Carpenter's second field goal.

PRESEASON GAME 4

COWBOYS 27, DOLPHINS 25
September 2, 2010

Cowboys Stadium
Arlington, TX

The Dolphins finished the 2010 preseason with a 2-2 record, after falling to Dallas, 27-25, in Cowboys Stadium. Starting quarterback Chad Henne completed 6-of-11 passes for 53 yards in a little more than one quarter of work and drove Miami to a field goal on the opening drive, but he also fumbled twice to start the second quarter, losing the second one after he was sandwiched by two Dallas linebackers. The Cowboys turned that into seven points on a 43-yard touchdown pass from third-string quarterback Stephen McGee to Sam Hurd. One week earlier, the Dolphins' ground game was non-existent, but veteran running back Ricky Williams looked fresh and dangerous on his 42-yard run to end the first quarter. He burst through a large hole up the middle, clicked into another gear as he reached the second level and stiff-armed cornerback Bryan McCann at the end of the run to gain a few extra yards before going out of bounds. Wide receiver Davone Bess was Henne's favorite target on the opening drive and caught two passes for 32 yards. He led Miami in receiving in the first half with five catches for 42 yards, while Brandon Marshall was held to one catch for six yards. Rookie receiver Marlon Moore put Miami ahead, 17-16, with a 3-yard touchdown catch from Tyler Thigpen early in the fourth quarter and finished with four catches for 31 yards. Roberto Wallace, who battled with Moore and Patrick Turner for one of those last two spots on the roster, caught three passes for 59 yards, including the go-ahead touchdown run from six yards out from Thigpen in the waning minutes. Lex Hilliard's two-point conversion run provided put the Dolphins ahead 25-24, but Dallas managed to win in the final seconds on a 31-yard field by David Buhler, his fourth of the night. Defensively, Miami's first two draft picks in 2010 – defensive end Jared Odrick and linebacker Koa Misi – stepped up in the first half to help put Sparano's mind and that of new defensive coordinator Mike Nolan at ease heading into the regular season. Odrick knocked down a pass at the line of scrimmage, pressured McGee several times and showed off his athleticism by running down Cowboys running back Tashard Choice from behind after a 34-yard reception. Misi stuffed Choice for a 1-yard loss and held the edge well.

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on December 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto.

On October 28, 2007, the Dolphins battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

On August 4, 1997, the Dolphins traveled to Mexico City and earned a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance was the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983 in the Rose Bowl.

The Dolphins traveled 9,908 round-trip miles and earned a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos on August 16, 1992 before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marked the second consecutive season that the Dolphins traveled abroad to play a preseason contest.

On August 3, 1991, the Dolphins made the longest road trip in team history as they traveled 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to battle the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami came from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

The Dolphins made their first-ever trip abroad on July 31, 1988 to take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami came from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the preseason.

DOLPHINS POST THREE PLAYOFF SHUTOUTS

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the seven AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the New York Jets (41-0 over the Indianapolis Colts on January 4, 2003), Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Miami Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

BROTHERLY LOVE

In 2006, Renaldo Hill and Ray Hill became the third set of brothers to play for the Dolphins. Ray played with the team from 1998-2000 while Renaldo was a member of the Dolphins from 2006-08. The first set of brothers to play for the Dolphins were the Blackwoods, which included Glenn (1979-87) and Lyle (1981-86), both of whom played safety. In 2003, fullback Obafemi Ayanbadejo and linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo, each of whom were in their first seasons with the Dolphins, became the second set of brothers to play for the team in franchise history.

The Dolphins also have had two sets of brothers serve on the team's coaching staff. The first set of brothers to have coached with the Dolphins was the Shulas, which included David (1982-88) and his younger brother, Mike (1991-92, 2000-02). In addition, Judd Garrett was an offensive quality control coach with the club from 2000-05, while his brother, Jason, was the team's quarterbacks coach from 2005-06.

In the contest, Dan Marino sets an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

- Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.
- Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

- Feb. 1 – Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.
- Feb. 3 – Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.
- May 20 – Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.
- June 1 – Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.
- June 4 – Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.
- Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil.
- Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.
- Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson, a week after a federal-court ruling in Minneapolis made a free agent of Jackson, in addition to Garin Veris, Webster Slaughter and D.J. Dozier.
- Oct. 4 – In a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.
- Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.
- Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

- Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.
- Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

- Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.
- Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.
- Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.
- Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.
- Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.
- Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.
- May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.
- June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.
- June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.
- July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.
- Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.
- Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn right Achilles) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.
- Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

- Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.
- Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.
- Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.
- Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

- Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.
- Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.
- March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.
- March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.
- May 6 – Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970, announces his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner.
- June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.
- July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.
- Sept. 4 – After missing the final 11 games of the 1993 season with a torn right Achilles' tendon, Dan Marino returns to action as he throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.
- Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves

- to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player as the Dolphins earn a 23-7 win over the Bengals.
- Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.
- Nov. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino makes history once again with his famous "Clock Play". With the Dolphins trailing the Jets by 18 points in the second half at the Meadowlands, Marino orchestrates a 28-point second-half outburst, including 22 straight to close the contest, as Miami claims a 28-24 victory. All four scores in the second half occur on Marino to Mark Ingram touchdown passes. The game winning points come on first-and-goal with just 22 seconds to play, when Marino approaches the line of scrimmage, appearing poised to clock the ball. However, he takes everyone in the stadium by surprise as he receives the snap, drops back and tosses an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ingram, who ties the Paul Warfield's single-game record of four touchdowns and 24 points, which Warfield achieved against Detroit on December 15, 1973.
- Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.
- Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.
- Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.
- Dec. 27 – Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.
- Dec. 31 – Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

- Jan. 9 – Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.
- Jan. 18 – Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

- Feb. 6 – Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.
- Feb. 9 – Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.
- May 19 – The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.
- Sept. 3 – The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.
- Oct. 1 – The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.
- Oct. 8 – Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 26 – Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.
- Dec. 11 – Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter.
- Dec. 24 – The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The team clinches a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration. Miami's win marks the 347th and final victory in the illustrious head coaching career of Don Shula.
- Dec. 30 – Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards. The game marks the final contest in Head Coach Don Shula's career.

- Jan. 5 – Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.
- Jan. 11 – Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (University of Miami, 1987).
- Jan. 16 – Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

- Jan. 17 – The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.
- Jan. 19 – Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).
- Jan. 24 – Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).
- Feb. 16 – The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).
- March 1 – The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.
- April 23 – Dan Marino, who broke every significant career passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
- Aug. 26 – Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a 10-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.
- Sept. 1 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24-10, at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.
- Sept. 10 – Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.
- Sept. 15 – On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history.
- Oct. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.
- Oct. 29 – WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM beginning in the 1997 season and through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.
- Oct. 31 – At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.
- Nov. 10 – A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.
- Nov. 25 – At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

- Jan. 14 – Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

- Jan. 25 – Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
- March 11 – At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.
- March 21 – Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.
- April 17 – Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.
- April 18 – The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.
- June 3 – Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.
- June 4 – "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.
- June 13 – Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.
- July 26 – Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.
- Aug. 4 – The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.
- Aug. 31 – The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in the month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.
- Oct. 5 – The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.
- Oct. 27 – After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears storm back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.
- Dec. 14 – The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.
- Dec. 22 – In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer. The Patriots win the game, 14-12, giving New England the AFC East title. A win by the Dolphins would have made them AFC East champions, but instead they enter the playoffs as a Wild Card team where they must go on the road to face the Patriots the following week, a 17-3 Dolphins loss on December 28.

- Jan. 24 – Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Feb. 11 – Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces the following changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.
- March 23 – Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.
- Aug. 1 – Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Muñoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.
- Nov. 29 – In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first quarterback in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.
- Dec. 21 – The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpass Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.
- Dec. 27 – In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

- Jan. 2 – The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first playoff win since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.
- Jan. 14 – Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.
- Jan. 21 – Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach.
- March 2 – Eddie Jones signs a three-contract to remain as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer.
- June 15 – Dan Marino signs a two-year contract extension through 2001.
- Sept. 13 – The Dolphins defeat the two-time defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos, 38-21, in a season-opening Monday night game at Mile High Stadium. The win was the 300th during the regular season in Dolphins history.
- Oct. 10 – The Dolphins set a franchise record by posting 25 fourth-quarter points, and in the process erase a pair of nine-point deficits to earn a 34-31 triumph over the Colts at the RCA Dome. Quarterback Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdowns in the final period, including a two-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden with 27 seconds to play, lifting Miami to victory. It marks the 35th time in Marino's career that he has led the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit for a win.
- Oct. 17 – Dan Marino completes an eight-yard pass to Tony Martin in the first quarter against the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. The completion, the first and only one of the game for Marino, puts him over the 60,000-yard passing plateau for his career, the only quarterback in NFL history to attain that mark. Marino leaves the game following the next series with a shoulder injury, forcing him to miss the next five contests. Damon Huard relieves Marino with the Dolphins trailing 7-0. After his first attempt in picked off and returned for a touchdown by Ty Law, Huard goes on to complete 24 of 42 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to a 31-30 victory. The game-winning points occur on a five-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett with 23 seconds remaining in the game. The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win back-to-back road games when trailing by seven or more points after the third quarter.
- Dec. 5 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore becomes the 12th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium.
- Dec. 12 – Kicker Olindo Mare accounts for two field goals against the Jets at the Meadowlands. His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season records of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991.

- Dec. 21 – Cornerback Sam Madison, kicker Olindo Mare and linebacker Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first selection for all three. Madison becomes the first cornerback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl squad.
- Dec. 27 – Kicker Olindo Mare boots a 37-yard field goal against the Jets in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium. The field goal was his 38th of the season, as he became the NFL's single-season field goal leader, surpassing John Kasay, who had amassed 37 field goals with Carolina in 1996. Mare would finish the season with 39 field goals.

- Jan. 9 – The Dolphins defeat the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at the Kingdome, the final football game at the stadium. The win is Miami's first road playoff victory since they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1972 AFC Championship Game at Three Rivers Stadium. Quarterback Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the victory, in which he guides a late drive that leads to the game-winning touchdown with 4:48 remaining.
- Jan. 15 – The Dolphins drop a 62-7 decision to the Jacksonville Jaguars in an AFC Divisional Playoff game at ALLTEL Stadium. The contest is the final one in the playing career of quarterback Dan Marino and coaching career of Jimmy Johnson.
- Jan. 16 – Jimmy Johnson, the Dolphins' General Manager/Head Coach since 1996, retires. Dave Wannstedt, the team's Assistant Head Coach in 1999, is named Head Coach.
- Jan. 24 – Jim Bates is named defensive coordinator, replacing George Hill. Clarence Brooks is named defensive line coach, replacing Cary Godette.
- Feb. 1 – Chan Gailey, the Head Coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kippy Brown. Randy Shannon, a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1998-99, is promoted to linebackers coach.
- Feb. 7 – Mike Shula, the offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99, re-joins the Dolphins as quarterbacks coach, replacing Larry Seiple. Shula previously had served as an assistant on Miami's coaching staff from 1991-92. Judd Garrett is named as an offensive assistant, and Robert Nunn is named as a defensive assistant.
- Feb. 10 – Quarterback Dan Marino, the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1983 and the NFL's all-time leading passer, voids the final two years of his contract, thus becoming a free agent.
- Mar. 13 – Dan Marino announces his retirement from professional football.
- Apr. 14 – The Dolphins unveil Dan Marino's permanent encased locker at the team's Nova Southeastern University training facility, the first of its kind in club history.
- May 3 – The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as Vice President-Player Personnel. Spielman had served as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears since 1997.
- June 12 – Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announces that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.
- Aug. 21 – The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard". The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.
- Aug. 23 – More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a gala fireworks display.
- Sept. 3 – Jay Fiedler opens at quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.
- Sept. 17 – The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

- Oct. 23 – On a Monday night at the Meadowlands, the Dolphins hold a commanding 30-7 fourth-quarter lead over the New York Jets. The Jets, however, post 30 of the 37 points scored in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime, where John Hall ends the four hour, ten minute epic with a 40-yard field goal, 6:47 into the extra period. It is the largest comeback win ever against the Dolphins, while it also marks the longest game in the history of Monday Night Football.
- Dec. 24 – The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 12th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams are summoned back onto the field after it is determined that three seconds still remain with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game falls incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.
- Dec. 30 – The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marks the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points are scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It caps a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason) at the time.

- Jan. 6 – The Raiders defeat the Dolphins, 27-0, in a Divisional Playoff game in Oakland. It is the first time that Miami has been shutout in 38 postseason contests.
- Jan. 15 – Keith Armstrong is named special teams coach and Tony Wise is hired as offensive line coach.
- Jan. 27 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti, who anchored Miami's "No-Name" defense, leading the Dolphins to two straight Super Bowl victories, becomes the eighth former Dolphin to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the first defensive player.
- Feb. 2 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season.
- Mar. 1 – Bob Sanders is named linebackers coach, replacing Randy Shannon, who became the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami.
- May 9 – Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season. In addition, Ron Labadie is promoted to Director of College Scouting, after serving as the Dolphins' midwest scout since 1990. Tom Braatz, the team's Director of College Scouting since 1992, is named as a scout, and John Crea is named as the Dolphins' midwest area scout.
- June 4 – George Paton is named Director of Pro Personnel, replacing Tom Heckert, Jr., who was named Director of Player Personnel with the Philadelphia Eagles.
- Aug. 4 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the eighth Dolphin and first defensive player to earn that honor.
- Sept. 13 – In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, the NFL announces that it will cancel games for the weekend of September 16-17. The Dolphins game against the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium is re-scheduled for Sunday, January 6.
- Dec. 10 – The Dolphins earn a resounding 41-6 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium, the last game that these two teams would play as AFC East opponents, prior to realignment in 2002. For the Dolphins, it is their 36th victory on Monday Night Football, as they surpass San Francisco as the winningest team in MNF history.
- Dec. 16 – The Dolphins are handed a 21-0 shutout by the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. Coupled with their 24-0 loss to the Jets at Pro Player Stadium on November 18, it marks just the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins suffer two shutout losses in the same season.
- Dec. 22 – Playing their third game in 13 days, the Dolphins drop a 20-13 decision to the New England Patriots in the last regular season game ever played at Foxboro Stadium.
- Dec. 30 – With a 21-14 win over Atlanta at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins clinch their fifth playoff appearance in a row, as they become the only NFL team to reach the postseason in each of these five years, a span ranging from 1997-01.

- Jan. 6 – In a game that was originally scheduled to be played on September 16, but cancelled because of terrorist attacks, the Dolphins clinch a home First-Round Playoff game with a 34-7 season ending win over Buffalo, just the fourth time in team history that the Dolphins have played a regular season game in the month of January. On the game's final play, Brock Marion picks off a Travis Brown pass and races 100 yards for a touchdown, as the Dolphins establish a club single-season record for interception returns for touchdowns (five) and defensive touchdowns (six).

- Jan. 28 – Bryan Wiedmeier is promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Rick Spielman is promoted to Senior Vice President – Football Operations/Player Personnel.
- Feb. 5 – The Dolphins name Norv Turner as their Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator, taking over from Chan Gailey, who had been named Head Coach at Georgia Tech. In addition to serving as Head Coach with the Washington Redskins from 1994-00, Turner also was the offensive coordinator with both Dallas (1991-93) and San Diego (2001).
- Feb. 13 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2004 season.
- March 14 – The Dolphins and WQAM Radio sign a new two-year contract for the station to continue to serve as the team's flagship through 2003.
- June 5 – At the team's annual Kickoff Banquet, President Eddie Jones announces that former running back Larry Csonka will have his uniform jersey No. 39 retired during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' December 9 game against Chicago at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka will become the third player to receive this honor, joining QB Bob Griese (No. 12 on May 6, 1982) and QB Dan Marino (No. 13 on September 17, 2000).
- Sept. 8 – The Dolphins record their 11th consecutive opening day victory with a 49-21 decision over the Detroit Lions at Pro Player Stadium. Making his Dolphins debut, RB Ricky Williams rushes for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, the fifth-highest rushing total by a player in his initial appearance as a Dolphin.
- Sept. 22 – The Dolphins snap an eight-game losing streak to the Jets with a convincing 30-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. The victory also marks the Dolphins' 17th straight at home during the regular season in the months of August/September. Ricky Williams rushes for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, becoming the first player in team history to amass three straight 100-yard rushing games. Coupled with his 132-yard effort the previous week at Indianapolis, his two-game rushing total of 283 yards sets a new Dolphins record, surpassing the old mark of 273, which had been held by Bernie Parmalee since 1994. Williams will go on to break this two-game record three subsequent times during the course of the season.
- Oct. 13 – In their first of four prime-time appearances of the year, the Dolphins register a 24-22 win over the Denver Broncos in their first-ever visit to INVESCO Field at Mile High. Jason Elam's 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play gives Denver a 22-21 lead. Olindo Mare counters with a 53-yarder with six seconds remaining to lift the Dolphins to the victory. It marks the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game.
- Nov. 24 – Ricky Williams establishes a new club single-season standard with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season with a 143-yard, two-touchdown effort in a 30-3 victory over San Diego at Pro Player Stadium. He breaks the old mark of five, which was first set by Delvin Williams in 1978.
- Dec. 1 – Ricky Williams further etches his name into the Dolphins' record book when he rushes for 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries in a 38-21 loss to the Bills in Buffalo. This single-game total surpasses the previous record of 209 yards, set by Lamar Smith in a 2000 First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis. In the process, Williams also surpasses Delvin Williams' club single-season record of 1,258 yards, achieved in 1978. In addition, with Williams overtaking the 1,200-yard rushing mark, the conditional third-round draft choice in 2003 that the Dolphins sent to the Saints in the trade for Williams on March 8, now becomes a second-round pick.
- Dec. 9 – In a 27-9 victory over the Chicago Bears in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium, Ricky Williams becomes just the third player (fourth time) in NFL history to amass back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, as he runs for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries. He joins Hall of Famers O.J. Simpson (1973, 1976) and Earl Campbell (1980) as the only players to achieve this feat. His two-game rushing total of 444 yards is the fourth-most in NFL annals, while his 587 yards over the three-game span is third-most in league history. In the process, he breaks his own club record with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. It also represents his fourth straight game with a pair of rushing scores. His total for the game gives him 1,500 yards for the season, as the second-round draft choice that the Saints get from the Dolphins as part of the trade now becomes a first-rounder in '03. At halftime of the game, former FB Larry Csonka has his jersey No. 39 retired, just the third Dolphin ever to receive that honor, joining quarterbacks Bob Griese (No. 12) and Dan Marino (No. 13).
- Dec. 21 – Jason Taylor is credited with 1.5 sacks as he ties Bill Stanfill's club single-season record for sacks with 18.5, during the game against the Vikings at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Taylor also extends his streak of consecutive games with a sack to eight. That streak will come to an end in the season finale the following week as he is shut out by the Patriots. Taylor's sack total leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to achieve that feat.

- Dec. 29 – Ricky Williams rushes for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts against the Patriots in Miami's first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium. His second score of the game occurs on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his 16th rushing score of the season and establishes a new Dolphins single-season record for rushing touchdowns, surpassing the previous mark of 15 set by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997. Williams also finishes the year as the team's single-season leader for rushing yards (1,853), attempts (383), 100-yard rushing games (10) and total yards from scrimmage (2,216). His rushing yardage total also leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to earn that distinction.

- Feb. 2 – Ricky Williams rushes for 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 attempts, catches three passes for 18 yards while also forcing a fumble on special teams in the AFC's 45-20 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. For his efforts, Williams is named the game's MVP, just the second Dolphin ever to win that honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian who came away with the award in the 1974 game.
- Feb. 13 – The Dolphins name Glenn Pires as assistant defensive line coach, replacing Robert Nunn, who left to become defensive line coach with the Washington Redskins. Pires had spent the previous two seasons as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions.
- May 2 – Tom Braatz, a veteran of 38 seasons as an NFL front office executive, announces his retirement. Braatz had joined the Dolphins in 1992 as Director of College Scouting and spent his final two years with the club as a college scout. Chris Grier, the team's southeast college scout the past three years, is promoted to national scout.
- May 4 – Former Dolphin David Woodley (1980-83), an eighth-round draft choice in 1980 who started at quarterback for the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII against Washington, passes away in his hometown of Shreveport, La.
- May 9 – Quarterbacks Coach Mike Shula, who played quarterback at the University of Alabama from 1983-86, is introduced as the school's head coach.
- Oct. 27 – The Dolphins record a 26-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers in a Monday night game at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The game originally was scheduled to be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, but is moved because of wildfires that devastate Southern California. After arriving in San Diego Sunday evening, the Dolphins board a flight to Phoenix the morning of the game, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (PT).
- Nov. 23 – In a Sunday night game against Washington at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins don orange jerseys in a 24-23 win over the Redskins. It is the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.
- Nov. 27 – The Dolphins improve their Thanksgiving Day record to 4-1 with a 40-21 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The Dolphins wear their "throwback" jerseys, commemorating the 30th anniversary of the 1973 team that captured the club's second straight Super Bowl title.
- Dec. 15 – At halftime ceremonies against the Philadelphia Eagles at Pro Player Stadium, former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton become the 14th and 15th members of the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 21 – In a 20-3 win over the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium, DE Jason Taylor registers three sacks, and in the process becomes the Dolphins' all-time sack leader, surpassing Bill Stanfill, whose mark of 67.5 had stood since 1976.
- Dec. 29 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that the Dolphins will restructure their football operations for the 2004 season, including the search for a General Manager who will be responsible for all personnel matters on both the professional and college levels, as well as the makeup of the Dolphins roster. Head Coach Dave Wannstedt is given a two-year contract extension through the 2006 season.

- Jan. 12 – Rick Spielman is promoted to General Manager from Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel, a position in which he had served since 2002. He first joined the club as Vice President-Player Personnel since 2000. In addition, Dan Marino is named Senior Vice President/Football Operations.
- Jan. 26 – Joel Collier is promoted to offensive coordinator from running backs coach. He takes over the spot which became vacant when Norv Turner was named Head Coach with the Oakland Raiders. Marc Trestman, who had been with the Raiders each of the previous three seasons, including the last two as offensive coordinator, is named assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Miami native Jerry Sullivan is appointed wide receivers coach after spending each of the previous three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, including 2003 as the team's offensive coordinator.

- Feb. 2 – Bernie Parmalee is promoted to running backs coach from assistant special teams/offensive assistant, while Chris Foerster is named tight ends coach after handling that same position with the Indianapolis Colts each of the previous two seasons.
- Feb. 3 – Dan Marino resigns as Senior Vice President/Football Operations, saying, "I knew it would involve a significant lifestyle change but after further reflection, it became clear that those adjustments were ones that my family and I are not prepared to make at this time. As a result, I have decided that it would not be in the best interests of either my family or the Miami Dolphins to assume the role as the team's Senior Vice President of Football Operations."
- May 10 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt announces several adjustments to the coaching staff for the 2004 season. Chris Foerster, who was hired earlier in the offseason to coach the team's tight ends, was named offensive coordinator. Joel Collier will return to coaching the running backs, a position that he had held since 1998. Bernie Parmalee, who had been named running backs coach in the offseason following two years as an offensive assistant, will tutor the Dolphins' tight ends. These changes were necessitated because of health-related reasons on the part of Collier.
- July 25 – Running back Ricky Williams informs the Miami Herald of his intention of retiring from professional football.
- July 30 – On the day the Dolphins report for the 39th training camp in franchise history, the club places Ricky Williams on its Reserve/Did Not Report list.
- Sept. 9 – Because of the threat of Hurricane Ivan, the Dolphins regular season opener against Tennessee is moved up one day, from September 12 to September 11, at Pro Player Stadium.
- Sept. 26 – Kickoff for the Dolphins-Steelers game at Pro Player Stadium is moved from 1:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., one day after South Florida feels the effects of Hurricane Jeanne.
- Oct. 10 – Kicker Olindo Mare aggravates a calf injury during pre-game warm-ups prior to a game against New England at Gillette Stadium. It thrusts return man Wes Welker into kicking duties. Not only did Welker perform his usual punt and kickoff return chores, but he also converted both a 29-yard field goal attempt and a PAT, and kicked off as well, becoming the first player in NFL history to do all five in the same game. Although the Dolphins lost, 24-10, Welker was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- Nov. 9 – Dave Wannstedt steps aside as head coach. Defensive coordinator Jim Bates takes over on an interim basis.
- Nov. 21 – In Jim Bates' first game as head coach, the Dolphins suffer a 24-17 loss at Seattle, dropping their record to 1-9, clinching the franchise's first losing season since 1988.
- Nov. 28 – After spending the entire week in San Francisco preparing for their game against the 49ers, the Dolphins give Jim Bates his first win as an NFL head coach by virtue of their 24-17 victory at Monster Park.
- Dec. 25 – While in Orlando, Fla., preparing for his team's Capital One Bowl game against Iowa, LSU Head Coach Nick Saban announces that he will accept an offer to become the sixth head coach in Dolphins history.
- Dec. 27 – Nick Saban signs a five-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins.

- Jan. 10 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces major organizational and stadium changes through the creation of an innovative sports and entertainment company, Dolphins Enterprises, LLC. This company now will serve as an umbrella for all of the Huizenga sports and entertainment entities. In addition, Pro Player Stadium is re-named Dolphins Stadium. Improvements to the stadium include a remodeled club level and luxury suites, improved traffic flow, additional parking and state-of-art scoreboards.
- Jan. 10 – Derek Dooley, Will Muschamp and Bobby Williams, all of whom were on Nick Saban's staff at LSU in 2004, are named as assistants on the Dolphins' staff. Scott O'Brien, the special teams coach with Carolina the past six seasons, is named Coordinator of Football Operations. Jim Bates informs Nick Saban that he will not be returning to the Dolphins' coaching staff in 2005.
- Jan. 13 – Former Dallas Cowboys and NFL executive Joe Bailey is named Chief Executive Officer of Dolphins Enterprises, LLC.
- Jan. 19 – Former Minnesota Vikings offensive coordinator Scott Linehan is named to the same post with the Dolphins. George Edwards, Travis Jones and Dan Quinn all are named assistants on the defensive side of the ball.

- Jan. 25 – Charlie Baggett is named wide receivers coach and Hudson Houck is named offensive line coach. Baggett had held the same position with the Minnesota Vikings for the previous five seasons, while Houck had tutored the offensive line of the San Diego Chargers since 2002.
- Feb. 2 – Jason Garrett, who concluded his 12-year career as a player by spending the final six games of 2004 with the Dolphins, is named the team's quarterbacks coach.
- Feb. 5 – In his first year of eligibility, former quarterback Dan Marino is one of four elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, becoming the ninth former Dolphin to earn this honor.
- Feb. 14 – Tim Davis is named assistant offensive line coach and Bert Hill is named associate strength coach.
- March 1 – Richard Smith is named defensive coordinator. Smith had been the assistant head coach/linebackers with the Detroit Lions for the past two seasons. In addition, Dolphins Head Coach Nick Saban announces the assignments of several coaches who had previously been hired to the staff; Derek Dooley-tight ends, George Edwards-linebackers, Travis Jones-assistant defensive line, Will Muschamp-assistant head coach/defense, Dan Quinn-defensive line, Bobby Williams-running backs. Among his responsibilities, Muschamp will work with the team's safeties and the nickel package.
- March 15 – The Dolphins enter into a multi-year partnership with 790 The Ticket, in which the station will serve as the team's flagship through at least the 2006 season.
- June 3 – General Manager Rick Spielman announces that he is leaving the organization.
- June 6 – The Dolphins announce the hiring of Randy Mueller as general manager.
- June 8 – The Dolphins waive/fail physical DT Tim Bowens, the team's first-round draft choice in 1994, paving the way for him to retire as a Dolphin. Bowens had been the last tie to the Don Shula-era. At the team's annual Awards Banquet, it is announced that the Leadership Award is renamed the "Don Shula Leadership Award." In addition, former team President Eddie Jones is named the first winner of the new "Winning Edge Award."
- June 9 – Former tackle Richmond Webb signs a one-day contract with the team, allowing him to retire as a Dolphin.
- July 14 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore is added to the Dolphins radio broadcast team on 790 The Ticket as the sideline reporter. He joins fellow former Dolphins Jimmy Cefalo (play-by-play) and Joe Rose (analyst), as the Dolphins become the only NFL team to have three alumni on their game broadcasts.
- Aug. 7 – QB Dan Marino becomes the ninth former Dolphin and eighth player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. More than 20,000 – most of whom are Marino fans – pack Fawcett Stadium. Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga flies team employees and their families to Canton for the ceremonies.
- Oct. 6 – Dolphins Stadium is awarded Super Bowl XLIV following the 2009 season, the second time in a matter of four years and the 10th time overall that the Super Bowl will have been staged in South Florida.
- Oct. 7 – The Dolphins announce that the busts of their nine Hall of Famers will be on display at Dolphins Stadium from October 22-29 as part of the newly created "Gallery of Legends."
- Oct. 20 – The impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma forces the Dolphins to move their Sunday, October 23 home against the Kansas City Chiefs up two days to Friday, October 21 at 7:00 p.m. It is the third time in two years that the Dolphins have had either the date or time of a home game altered because of a hurricane. The opening of the "Gallery of Legends," slated for October 22, also is postponed.
- Nov. 2 – The "Gallery of Legends" makes its public debut at Dolphins Stadium.
- Nov. 6 – At halftime of the Dolphins' game against the Atlanta Falcons at Dolphins Stadium, Dan Marino is presented with his Hall of Fame ring, an event that originally was scheduled to take place at the October 23 game against Kansas City, but postponed because of Hurricane Wilma.
- Dec. 4 – Trailing the Buffalo Bills 21-0 in the second quarter, the Dolphins go on to score 24 of the game's next 26 points, including 21 in the fourth quarter, as they register the second-largest comeback win in team history, 24-23. Chris Chambers highlights the victory as he sets Dolphins single-game records for both receptions (15) and receiving yards (238).
- Dec. 11 – The Dolphins earn a 23-21 victory over the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium. It marks Miami's second win on the West Coast in a matter of three weeks, as they recorded a 33-21 victory over the Raiders in Oakland on November 27. It is the first time in team history that they have won two road games in the Pacific Time Zone in the same season.
- Dec. 21 – WR Chris Chambers, DE Jason Taylor and LB Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. For Thomas, it is the sixth selection of his career, the most of any defender in Dolphins history.

- Jan. 10 – Bryan Wiedmeier is elevated to President/COO of the Miami Dolphins. Wiedmeier had served the club since 1981, including the last four years as Executive Vice President/COO.
- Jan. 22 – Former Buffalo Bills Head Coach Mike Mularkey is named offensive coordinator, taking over for Scott Linehan, who after just one year in his post with the Dolphins, was named head coach with the St. Louis Rams.
- Jan. 24 – Former Carolina Panthers and Houston Texans Head Coach Dom Capers joins the Dolphins staff as a special assistant to Head Coach Nick Saban.
- Apr. 8 – In conjunction with Season Ticket Holder Appreciation Day, Dolphins Enterprises CEO Joe Bailey announces a major repositioning of Dolphins Stadium. Anchored by the unveiling of a new stadium logo and the world's largest hi-definition video boards, the announcement included renaming the stadium "Dolphin Stadium" and a marketing strategy that will position the stadium to be one of the world's leading sports and entertainment facilities.
- Apr. 25 – The NFL announces that running back Ricky Williams will be suspended for at least one year for violating the league's substance abuse policy.
- Nov. 19 – Jason Taylor scores on a 51-yard interception return to lead the Dolphins to a 24-20 win over the Minnesota Vikings at Dolphin Stadium. Taylor's touchdown is the seventh of his career, which ties George Martin's NFL record for most career touchdowns by a defensive lineman. Taylor's interception return for a score, coupled with safety Renaldo Hill's 48-yard fumble return for a touchdown, marks just the second time in franchise history that the Dolphins have had a fumble return for a touchdown and an interception return for a touchdown in the same game.
- Dec. 3 – Former safety Dick Anderson becomes the 16th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies of the game against Jacksonville at Dolphin Stadium.
- Dec. 19 – Linebacker Zach Thomas and defensive end Jason Taylor are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. For Thomas, it is the seventh such honor of his career, tying him with Richmond Webb for the second-most selections in franchise history.
- Dec. 25 – At halftime ceremonies of the Jets game at Dolphin Stadium, former tackle Richmond Webb becomes the 17th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

- Jan. 3 – Head Coach Nick Saban resigns his post with the Dolphins after accepting the same position at University of Alabama.
- Jan. 5 – Defensive end Jason Taylor is named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the third Dolphin to earn that honor, joining safety Dick Anderson (1973) and defensive end Doug Betters (1983).

- Feb. 2 – At an international press conference at the Miami Beach Convention Center, it is announced that the Dolphins will take part in the first-ever NFL regular season game to be staged outside of North America, as they will face the New York Giants on October 28, 2007 at London's Wembley Stadium.
- Mar. 16 – Dennis Sym, more commonly known to Dolphins Fans as "Dolfan Denny" dies at the age of 72. Sym led Miami crowds in cheers and chants in his glittering orange and aqua hat from the Dolphins' first game in 1966, starting in the stands. In 1976, then team owner Joe Robbie asked Denny to move down to the field as the team's official motivator. Sym retired in 2000.
- Apr. 23 – WQAM Radio enters into an agreement with the Dolphins to air Dolphins games once again, starting in 2007 and running through at least 2009.
- Oct. 7 – Jason Taylor starts his 119th straight game in a matchup against the Texans at Houston's Reliant Stadium, setting a new Dolphins record, one that was formerly held by Richmond Webb.
- Oct. 21 – In a 49-28 loss to the New England Patriots at Dolphin Stadium, Jason Taylor intercepts a Matt Cassel pass and returns it 36 yards for a TD, giving him eight career touchdowns. In the process, he sets an NFL record for most career touchdowns by a defensive lineman. He had been tied with former New York Giant George Martin.
- Dec. 16 – Three plays after Matt Stover misses a 44-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, Cleo Lemon hits Greg Camarillo, who outraces a Ravens secondary for a 64-yard touchdown, as the Dolphins record a 22-16 victory over Baltimore at Dolphin Stadium, their lone win of 2007. At halftime of the game, the Dolphins honor their 1972 Perfect Season Team, who are celebrating its 35th anniversary of having gone 17-0.

- Dec. 20 – Bill Parcells, a head coach in the NFL for 19 years, most recently with Dallas in 2006 and whose teams reached the Super Bowl three times, including a pair of championships, is named the Dolphins' Executive Vice President of Football Operations.
- Dec. 23 – Jason Taylor plays in his 129th straight league game in a contest against the Patriots at Foxborough Stadium, establishing a new Dolphins record, one that was formerly held by Jim Langer.
- Dec. 31 – It is announced that General Manager Randy Mueller will be leaving the club.

2008

- Jan. 2 – Jeff Ireland, a member of the Dallas Cowboys personnel department since 2001, including the past three seasons as Vice President of College Scouting, is named General Manager.
- Jan. 3 – Head Coach Cam Cameron and all but two members of his staff (George Edwards, Steve Hoffman) are released from their duties.
- Jan. 16 – Tony Sparano, a veteran of nine seasons as an NFL assistant, including the past four with the Dallas Cowboys, is named the eighth head coach in Dolphins history.
- Feb. 3 – Just prior to kickoff of Super Bowl XLII between the Patriots and Giants at University of Phoenix Stadium, Jason Taylor is named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year for his work off the field. He becomes the third player to win this prestigious award as a Dolphin, joining a pair of Hall of Famers in Dwight Stephenson (1985) and Dan Marino (1998).
- Feb. 22 – Owner Wayne Huizenga announces that Stephen M. Ross of New York and Palm Beach has become a 50 percent partner in the franchise, the stadium and the surrounding developable land. The transaction is contingent upon approval of the National Football League.
- March 31 – At the NFL Annual Meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., the league's owners unanimously approve the sale of 50 percent of the Miami Dolphins to Stephen M. Ross.
- Apr. 22 – Owning the No. 1 pick in the NFL Draft for the first time in team history, the Dolphins sign University of Michigan tackle Jake Long to a multi-year contract, making him the top pick in the draft, four days before the first day of the draft (April 26).
- Sept. 21 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 38-13, at Gillette Stadium, snapping the Patriots' 19-game regular season winning streak. In the game, the Dolphins unveil their Wildcat offense, which produces four touchdowns, each of which involves Ronnie Brown. They include three rushing scores while Brown also throws a touchdown. Brown racks up four rushing scores overall on the afternoon, a new Dolphins record.
- Dec. 7 – The Dolphins and Bills take part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada as the Dolphins record a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto.
- Dec. 14 – At halftime of a 14-9 win over San Francisco at Dolphin Stadium, Bob Baumhower and Doug Betters become the 18th and 19th members of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.
- Dec. 21 – The Dolphins rack up 403 yards of total offense en route to a 38-31 victory over Kansas City at Arrowhead Stadium. It's a game in which the lead changes hands seven times. The mercury at kickoff read 10 degrees, making it the coldest game in Dolphins history. With a wind chill, the temperature is minus-12 degrees.
- Dec. 28 – The Dolphins cap a 10-game turnaround from 2007 with a 24-17 victory over the Jets at the Meadowlands, giving the Dolphins a record of 11-5 and the AFC East title, just one year after finishing 1-15. The 10-game improvement ties the 1999 Indianapolis Colts for the largest in NFL history.
- Dec. 30 – The National Football League announces that Dolphin Stadium will host the Pro Bowl on January 31, 2010, one week prior to also hosting Super Bowl XLIV. It will be the first time the game is played prior to a Super Bowl and only the second Pro Bowl played in the same city as the Super Bowl. The Los Angeles Coliseum hosted the first Super Bowl on January 15, 1967 as well as that year's Pro Bowl.

- Jan. 15 – Dave DeGuglielmo is named offensive line coach. DeGuglielmo comes to the Dolphins with 18 years of coaching experience, including spending the previous five seasons with the New York Giants.
- Jan. 20 – Wayne Huizenga and Stephen M. Ross jointly announce that Ross has closed on the purchase of an additional 45 percent of the Miami Dolphins and Dolphin Stadium. Coupled with his earlier purchase of 50 percent of the franchise, the stadium, and the excess developable land last February 22, Ross now has 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga will retain a 5 percent share of both and remains a 50 percent partner in that land.

- Jan. 20 – Rookie tackle Jake Long is added to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. He becomes just the fourth No. 1 overall pick in the draft to earn this honor since 1970, and the first one who was not a running back.
- Feb. 21 – Darren Rizzi is named assistant special teams coach. Rizzi joins the Dolphins after spending the 2008 season as the head coach at the University of Rhode Island.
- May 3 – Mike Dee is named as Chief Executive Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Dolphin Stadium by Dolphins Owner and Managing General Partner Stephen M. Ross. Dee is responsible for the business development and growth of both entities and to position the team and the stadium in the forefront of the sports and entertainment field. Dee joins the Dolphins after 14 years in Major League Baseball, including the last five as Chief Operating Officer of the Boston Red Sox.
- May 8 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross, and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announce that Dolphin Stadium will be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brings Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performs three songs and unveils the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS", written expressly for the team.
- June 25 – Stephen M. Ross, Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, announces that 19-time Grammy Award-winning producer Emilio Estefan and international superstar Gloria Estefan are joining the organization as limited partners of the franchise. The Estefans are the first Cuban-Americans to hold an ownership stake in an NFL franchise and one of the few Hispanics league-wide to hold this unique distinction.
- July 21 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross announces that Grammy Award-winning singer/songwriter Marc Anthony is joining the organization as a limited partner of the franchise.
- Aug. 7 – Miami Dolphins owner Stephen Ross announces that world-renowned artist Romero Britto will bring Land Shark Stadium alive through his iconic art. The stadium's helixes and gate entrances will be adorned by Britto's high-energy and vibrant art, adding life and a touch of South Florida to the venue. In connection with the Dolphins celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, children from various community organizations under the Brazilian artist's direction help paint the helixes with Britto's pulsating colors and pop themes.
- Aug. 25 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross announces that Venus and Serena Williams, who have 18 Grand Slam tennis singles titles combined and are residents of Palm Beach Gardens, are joining the organization as limited partners of the franchise. The Williams sisters are the first female African-Americans to hold an ownership stake in a NFL franchise and one of the few African-Americans league-wide to hold this unique distinction.
- Sept. 21 – The Dolphins open the 2009 home schedule with a prime time Monday night ESPN contest against the Indianapolis Colts, marking the team's first prime time home opener since a Thursday night against the Pittsburgh Steelers on September 10, 1981 and the first home opener on Monday night since September 22, 1975 against the Oakland Raiders.
- Oct. 12 – For the third time in team history (all in home prime time games), the Dolphins wear orange jerseys and defeat the New York Jets, 31-27, at Land Shark Stadium in a Monday Night contest. The win gives the Dolphins a perfect 3-0 record in those contests, having defeated the Washington Redskins, 24-23, on Nov. 23, 2008, and the New England Patriots, 29-28, on Dec. 20, 2004.
- Oct. 13 – The National Football League approves Stacy Ann Ferguson as a proposed limited partner of the franchise during the NFL Fall Meetings that were held in Boston. Ferguson, who is better known by the stage name 'Fergie', the female vocalist of the hip hop/pop group the Black Eyed Peas, is the sixth celebrity partner approved by the NFL and added to the franchise by Owner and Managing General Partner, Stephen M. Ross.
- Nov. 1 – In the Dolphins' 30-25 victory over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium, Ted Ginn, Jr. becomes the first player in NFL history with two touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game, running kickoffs back 100 and 101 yards for touchdowns, both in the third quarter. The third-year veteran also becomes the eighth player in NFL history with two kick return touchdowns in a game. Additionally, Ginn becomes the first player to record two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter since Green Bay's Travis Williams accomplished the feat November 12, 1967 vs. the Cleveland Browns in Milwaukee County Stadium. Ginn also records the second most kickoff return yards in a game in NFL history with 299 yards, which is second to Tyrone Hughes of the New Orleans Saints who registered 304 yards against the L.A. Rams on October 23, 1994.
- Dec. 20 – Ricky Williams has 19 carries for 80 yards at Tennessee, eclipsing the 1,000-yard mark for the season. Williams finishes the season with 1,121 rushing yards and breaks the NFL record for longest span between 1,000-yard seasons. Williams' last 1,000-yard season came in 2003, six seasons earlier. He finished second to Ernest Byner by 98 yards for the most yards in a single season between 1,000 yard rushing seasons.

- Jan. 19 – Bill Sheridan is named linebackers coach. Sheridan joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season as the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants.

- Jan. 20 – The Miami Dolphins and the U.S. division of Sun Life Financial Inc. (NYSE: SLF, TSX: SLF) announce a multi-dimensional partnership that results in the team playing in what is now called “Sun Life Stadium.” In addition to acquiring naming and sponsorship rights, which go into effect for the upcoming Pro Bowl and Super Bowl, Sun Life Financial, a leading international financial services organization, makes Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through an annual partnership with the Miami Dolphins Foundation.
- Jan. 31 – The Miami Dolphins unveil the “Perfect Moment in Time” statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The bronze statue adorns the entrance of the new Dolphins corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, marking the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years. In addition, the stadium address is announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.
- Jan. 31 – The 2010 Pro Bowl, the first contested prior to the Super Bowl and only the second Pro Bowl played in the same city as the Super Bowl, is staged at Sun Life Stadium. Houston Texans quarterback Matt Schaub is named the games' MVP while leading the AFC to a 41-34 win.
- Feb. 7 – The New Orleans Saints rally with 15 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, to win Super Bowl XLIV. It is the tenth Super Bowl held in Miami at the home stadium of the Miami Dolphins: the newly named Sun Life Stadium had hosted four previous Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, and XLI) and five were played in the Miami Orange Bowl (II, III, V, X, XIII).
- Feb. 24 – Joe Danna is named assistant defensive backs coach. Danna joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive assistant.
- Mar. 1 – The Dolphins announce a six-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that results in WBGX (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM) becoming the Dolphins flagship stations.
- May 20 – In an emotional press conference, Zach Thomas announces his retirement after signing a free agent contract with the Dolphins. It allows him to finish his career with the team that he played for in his first 12 seasons in the league (1996-2007), making seven Pro Bowls and registering 100 or more tackles in all but one season in that span.
- Oct. 5 – Darren Rizzi is promoted to special teams coach. He had served as the team's assistant special teams coach since 2009.
- Oct. 19 – The Dolphins break their own record for the largest total for a single-site, one-day blood drive in Florida history during the Second Annual Touchdown for Life Blood Drive at Sun Life Stadium. A record 1,567 participants registered, exceeding last year's record in which there were 1,003 blood donors.
- Nov. 14 – The Miami Dolphins honor long-time Miami Herald columnist Edwin Pope by naming the press box at Sun Life Stadium the “Edwin Pope Press Box.”
- Nov. 18 – During halftime ceremonies of the team's game against the Chicago Bears, former Dolphins safety Jake Scott and defensive end Bill Stanfill become the 20th and 21st members to be inducted into the Dolphins Honor Roll. The pair were also teammates at the University of Georgia prior to joining the Dolphins.
- Nov. 20-21 – More than 400 cyclists take part throughout two days of the inaugural Dolphins Cycling Challenge. DCC riders cycle across three South Florida counties and raised $533,106 to support cancer research and treatment for the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.
- Dec. 5 – Dan Carpenter kicks a 60-yard field goal against the Cleveland Browns at Sun Life Stadium, which breaks the record for longest field goal in team history. The record had been set by Pete Stoyanovich who booted a 59-yard kick on November 12, 1989 at the New York Jets.

2011

- Jan. 2 – With six carries at New England, Ricky Williams sets the team record for most career rushing attempts with 1,509. Williams passes Hall of Famer Larry Csonka, who held the record with 1,506 attempts

- Jan. 8 – Head Coach Tony Sparano signs a contract extension through the end of 2013 season.
- Jan. 19 – Brian Daboll is named offensive coordinator. Daboll spent the last two seasons in the same position with the Cleveland Browns. Prior to his experience in Cleveland, Daboll spent seven years on Bill Belichick's coaching staff with the New England Patriots, the first two as a defensive assistant and the last five (2002-06) as wide receivers coach.
- Jan. 20 – The Dolphins name Jeff Nixon as running backs coach and Darren Krein as head strength and conditioning coach.
- Jan. 22 – General Manager Jeff Ireland signs a multi-year contract extension.
- Jan. 24 – Dan Campbell is named tight ends coach. Campbell originally joined the staff prior to the 2010 season, serving as a coaching intern/offense.
- Jan. 26 – The Dolphins announce several changes to their coaching staff. Special teams coach Darren Rizzi is promoted to special teams coordinator, Karl Dorrell is now the quarterbacks coach after directing the team's wide receivers, former offensive quality control coach Steve Bush is now the wide receivers coach, Dave Fipp is named as the assistant special teams coach, Tony Sparano, Jr. is named offensive quality control coach and Ike Hilliard joins the team as assistant wide receivers coach.
- Feb. 21 – Former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker Bryan Cox returns to the organization as the team's pass rush coach. Cox spent the previous two seasons as the defensive line coach for Cleveland Browns (2009-10). He began his NFL coaching career as an assistant defensive line coach for the New York Jets (2006-08).
- May 4 – A public memorial service to celebrate the life and achievements of former Dolphins tight end and long-time broadcaster Jim "Mad Dog" Mandich, who passed away on April 26 after a battle with bile-duct cancer, is held in front of a crowd of several thousand fans at Sun Life Stadium. At the celebration it is announced that Mandich will be inducted to the Dolphin Honor Roll as a "Special Contributor."

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs)

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

DOLPHINS 14, REDSKINS 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16
December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves “Best Ever” with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka’s five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick’s one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota’s Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins’ six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka’s yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 28, DOLPHINS 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

OILERS 17, DOLPHINS 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

STEELERS 34, DOLPHINS 14
December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Durriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT)

January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

DOLPHINS 28, PATRIOTS 13
January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

DOLPHINS 34, CHARGERS 13
January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 14, JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season - two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season - but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

REDSKINS 27, DOLPHINS 17
January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 45, STEELERS 28

January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21

January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14
January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16
January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34
January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0
January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21
January 8, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3
December 28, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17
January 2, 1999

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1998 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BRONCOS 38, DOLPHINS 3
January 9, 1999

Mile High Stadium
Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17
January 9, 2000

Kingdome
Seattle, WA

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7
January 15, 2000

ALLTEL Stadium
Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovan Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT)
December 30, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2000 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 27, DOLPHINS 0
January 6, 2001

Network Associates Coliseum
Oakland, CA

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The score occurred after the Dolphins were at the Raiders' 16. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The 12-play, 78-yard drive was highlighted by a 32-yard catch-and-run by Terry Kirby to midfield. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. Of the 43 yards on the march, Gannon scrambled for 19 yards. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Gannon threw for 32 yards on the march, including a 12-yard completion to Tim Brown on third-and-seven, one play prior to the touchdown.

Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grbac hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

2008 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

RAVENS 29, DOLPHINS 9
January 4, 2009

Dolphin Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their third straight playoff decision, and their second in a row to the Ravens. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead on their opening series of the game when Dan Carpenter connected on a 19-yard field goal, eight plays after Joey Porter recovered a Le'Ron McClain fumble and returned it five yards to the Dolphins' 49. Patrick Cobbs accounted for 41 yards on the drive, on a pair of receptions. The Ravens knotted the score on their ensuing series when a Matt Stover 23-yard field goal capped an 11-play, 59-yard drive. The key play was a 31-yard completion from Joe Flacco to Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a first-and-goal from the 4. The Ravens claimed their initial lead of the afternoon with 2:30 to play in the first half when Ed Reed intercepted a Chad Pennington pass and weaved his way 64 yards for a touchdown. Baltimore added three points, 16 seconds before the half on a 31-yard field goal by Stover, culminating a seven-play, 46-yard drive. The score came four plays after Flacco connected with Derrick Mason for a 31-yard hookup to the Dolphins' 17. The Ravens opened a 17-point advantage 7:27 into the second half on an 8-yard TD run by Le'Ron McClain, four plays after Terrell Suggs recovered a Cobbs fumble at the Dolphins' 19. The Dolphins tallied their first touchdown of the day 1:51 into the fourth period on a 2-yard TD pass from Pennington to Ronnie Brown, two plays after Pennington and Davone Bess combined for a 45-yard completion to the Ravens' 5. The PAT was blocked. Flacco finished the scoring on a 5-yard TD run with 3:53 remaining in the contest, as he crossed the goal line three plays after Willis McGahee broke loose for a 48-yard run to the Dolphins' 4.

DUAL 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 18 dual 100-yard receiving games, 20 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers attain the 100-yard mark occurred on November 25, 2001 when Oronde Gadsden accumulated 118 yards on eight receptions and Chris Chambers totaled 101 yards and two scores on five catches against the Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. It marked the third time that Gadsden had been a part of a dual 100-yard receiving game, with the first two occasions coming in 1999. The Dolphins are 8-10 in regular season games when they have had a pair of 100-yard receivers and 9-11 overall, including playoffs.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

HEAD COACH/VICE CHAIRMAN

BORN: 1/4/30
 COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL '51
 PLAYER: 1951-57
 COLLEGE: TEXAS '99
 ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
 HEAD COACH: 1963-95
 DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95
 DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1997

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 16 years, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 42nd season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium on November 25, 1996.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day.

Coach Shula was further honored on January 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Coach Shula Award" – that honors each NFL season a football coach that displays the integrity, achievement and positive impact on others that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The ten-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLP.

Shula's oldest son, David, 52, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 46, currently is in his first season as the quarterbacks coach for the Carolina Panthers, after serving the previous four years in the same role for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. Most recently, in 2009 they visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on October 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

NICK BUONICONTI

LINEBACKER

BORN: 1/15/40

COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME '52

NFL: 1962-76

DOLPHINS: 1969-76

INDUCTED: 2001

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO

The most recent modification to the Dolphins' logo was made prior to the 1997 season. This marked just the third logo change in franchise history, and the first since 1972.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1972, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. At the time of his retirement, he ranked fifth in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on December 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired.

BOB GRIESE

QUARTERBACK

BORN: 2/3/45

COLLEGE: PURDUE '67

NFL: 1967-80

DOLPHINS: 1967-80

12

He was unquestionably the “thinking man’s quarterback.” Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL’s exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team’s annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins’ Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. “Cornerstone of the franchise,” Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team’s Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

“He’s probably the most unselfish guy I’ve ever been around,” Shula said. “He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That’s just his makeup.”

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

LARRY LITTLE GUARD

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

DAN MARINO

Marino reached the 40,000 and 30,000 yards passing plateaus faster than any quarterback in NFL history . . . In 1984, Marino set an NFL record for most yards passing in a single season with 5,084 yards . . . He broke the former record of 4,802 yards passing, which was set by Dan Fouts of the San Diego Chargers in 1981 . . . Marino and Drew Brees (2008) are the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 5,000 or more yards (once) . . . Marino (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994), Peyton Manning (1999-2004, 2006-10) and Brett Favre (1995, 1998-99, 2004, 2007, 2009) are the only quarterbacks in NFL history to have six or more 4,000-yard seasons . . . Marino passed for 3,000 or more yards 13 times (1984-92, 1994-95, 1997-98) in his 17 seasons in the NFL and is tied for second with Peyton Manning (1998-2010) behind Brett Favre (1992-2009) for the most 3,000-yard seasons in NFL history . . . Favre broke Marino's record in 2005 . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five times during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino had 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins were 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) . . . Marino had 63 career regular season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 63 career 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games until it was broken by Manning in 2010 . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 37 of the top 50 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 67 of the 95 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes until Brett Favre broke his record in 2007 . . . Marino recorded 420 touchdown passes in his career, ranking second in NFL history:

Marino reached the 200 touchdown passes plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history and is tied with Peyton Manning for the fastest to reach 300 TD passes . . . In his career Marino threw at least one TD pass in 203 of his 242 regular-season games as well as in 16 of his 18 playoff games (219 of 260 overall) . . . Marino had six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins were 4-2 in those contests . . . Marino had 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he was 16-5 in those 21 contests . . . Overall in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in 62 games (67, including playoffs), and he was 41-21 in those contests (44-23 including post-season games) . . . Marino threw for 20 or more TD passes in 13 of his 17 years in the NFL . . . The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1999, 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons, a record that Favre broke in 2008 . . . Marino and Peyton Manning are the only players in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in their first ten NFL seasons and is one of three players (along with Manning and Brett Favre) to throw 20 or more TD passes in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino threw for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is third behind Manning (six, 2000, 2004, 2006-07, 2009-10) and Brett Favre (nine, 1994-98, 2001, 2003-04, 2009) for the NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more touchdowns in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . . In 1984, Marino threw for 48 touchdown passes, breaking the former NFL record of 36 TD passes that was set by George Blanda of the Houston Oilers in 1961 and tied by Y.A. Tittle of the New York Giants in 1963 . . . Marino's record was broken by Peyton Manning of the Indianapolis Colts, who threw for 49 touchdown in 2004 . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds eight NFL regular season records and is tied for five others . . . In addition to the above records, Marino holds NFL single-season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, 1992, and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (five) . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988, 1992 and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (six) . . . Marino and George Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . .

COMEBACKS: Over the course of Marino's 17-year career with the Dolphins, he brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 37 times, with 21 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 16 on the road . . . Included in that total were three playoff games in which Marino led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . With 37 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second in that category: Denver's John Elway has 43 final period come-from behind wins . . . In Marino's 37 career fourth quarter comebacks, he completed 280 of 441 passes (63.5%) for 3,710 yards with 29 touchdowns and eight INTs in the final stanza for a rating of 104.4 . . .

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD: On January 28, 1999, Marino was named as the 1998 Sprint/NFL Man of the Year . . . It is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes player community service as well as excellence on the field . . . Off the field, Marino established the Dan Marino Foundation, which was created to benefit children's charities in South Florida . . . Marino became the second Dolphin player to win the NFL Man of the Year Award; Dwight Stephenson won that honor in 1985 and Jason Taylor became the third Dolphin to win that award in 2007 . . .

PRO BOWL: Marino was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), including seven as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he was able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections set a Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts set a Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . . Marino was first selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad following his rookie season of 1983.

GALLERY OF LEGENDS

On Wednesday, November 2, 2005, the “Gallery of Legends” made its public debut at Dolphin Stadium. Located at Gate D on the Club Level of the stadium, the Gallery is a tribute to the history of Miami Dolphins football. Special exhibits were created to track the team’s history, from its inception in 1966 to the present. Features include Dolphins memorabilia and photographs, as well as elements of life in South Florida and a Dan Marino timeline through those years. It also consists of such artifacts as the chairs the players used for meetings at St. Thomas University, in addition to the office desk utilized by Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula.

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

PAUL WARFIELD

WIDE RECEIVER

BORN: 11/28/42
COLLEGE: OHIO STATE '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
DOLPHINS: 1970-74
INDUCTED: 1983

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns (1964-69 and 1976-77) around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns, Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs. When he left Miami following the 1974 season, Warfield ranked first on the team's career receiving yards and receiving touchdowns lists, while he was third on the Dolphins all-time record for receptions. His 21.5 average per reception is still the highest in Miami history. His career receiving totals in the NFL are 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. At the time of his retirement following the 1977 season, Warfield's career catches were tied for the 17th most in NFL history, his career receiving yards were the sixth-most and his 85 touchdown catches were tied for the third-highest total in the league's history. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK
NFL CAREER: 1988-2000

YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
DOLPHINS: 2000

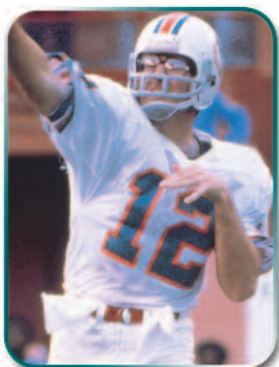

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries and caught 16 passes for 117 yards and a TD. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on November 12, 2000.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts, and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards and 23 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, his rushing yardage total ranked ninth in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage were sixth-most and fifth among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on February 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Texas, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

DOLPHINS RETIRED JERSEYS

#12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

#13

Dan Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphin uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Sun Life Stadium. He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date. Marino was further honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975.

For a full bio of Marino, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

#39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears at Sun Life Stadium on December 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

1972 DOLPHINS ONE OF 12 TO LEAD NFL IN POINTS SCORED AND ALLOWED

En route to their perfect 17-0 season, the 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL that year in both points scored and points allowed. During the regular season, they averaged 27.5 points per contest while yielding an average of only 12.2. They are one of only 12 teams in NFL history to achieve this feat, and of the other 11, only the 1996 Green Bay Packers went on to win the Super Bowl.

- Miami set the NFL record for consecutive wins over one team with 20 against Buffalo from 1970-79.
- Miami leads the all-time regular season series by a 53-36-1 margin. The Dolphins are 29-15-1 at home in the series, and lead by a 24-21 advantage on the road against the Bills. In addition, the teams have split two playoff games played in Miami, while the Bills have won both postseason contests in Buffalo.

- Miami and Buffalo have split the season series each of the past two seasons. In 2010, each team won games in the opponent's stadium.
- In their history playing each other, the Dolphins have swept the regular season series on 20 occasions, while the Bills have done so 11 times.
- Miami's second largest comeback in team history came against Buffalo at home on December 4, 2005. The Dolphins rallied from a 21-points deficit in the second quarter (0-21) in route to the eventual 24-23 victory.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WINZ (940 AM) and WBGG (105.9 FM)

Flagship Stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network

WINZ (940 AM) and WBGG (105.9 FM) are in their second year as the flagship stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

On March 1, 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that resulted in WBGG-FM (Big 105.9) and WINZ-AM (940 – The Sports Animal) being the Dolphins flagship stations. All Dolphin preseason, regular season and playoff games are broadcast exclusively in South Florida on those two outlets and throughout South and Central Florida on The Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

In addition to the game broadcasts, a two-hour pregame and a two-hour postgame show rounds out “Dolphins Game Day Live” coverage on WBGG, WINZ, The Miami Dolphins Radio Network, Dolphins.com, FanVision, the In-Stadium Television Network, the Dolphins Television Network and the Dolphins mobile app.

In May 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year partnership with Univision Radio in Miami to be the new Spanish language flagship of the Miami Dolphins. Univision Radio's WQBA AM and the Miami Dolphins Spanish Radio Network broadcasts every preseason, regular season and post-season Dolphins game. This season marks the 30th consecutive year that Dolphins games will be broadcast in Spanish.

The radio and TV broadcasts are part of the Dolphins' fully integrated multimedia assets that include websites (Dolphins.com, TheFinsiders.com, MiamiDolphinsCheerleaders.net and SunLifeStadium.com); social media platforms (Dolphins Facebook page, Dolphins Facebook Live (video stream) and Dolphins Twitter); radio programming (the Finsiders daily radio show on 940 AM, Dolphins Game Day radio on 940 AM, 105.9 FM and 1140 AM as well as Juntos Con Los Dolphins Daily on 1140 AM); television programming (The Tony Sparano Show, Dolphins Weekly and “The Finsiders 5th Quarter” shows on CBS4 and My33); video programming (the In-Stadium Television Network; FanVision (handheld in-stadium device); video boards; video streaming on Dolphins.com and TheFinsiders.com; print platforms (Dolphin Digest and Finsiders Playbook game day publication) and mobile platforms (Dolphins Mobile App (live video streaming, updates and images)).

Jimmy Cefalo begins his seventh season as part of the Dolphins' radio team, and is certainly well-known as both a broadcaster and a former Dolphins player. For many years he served as the sports anchor for WPLG-TV (Channel 10), first joining that station in October of 1992 as the host of Sports Monday. Since then he became the sports anchor for Local 10 News Monday through Friday and anchored the station's popular “Sports Jam Live,” which aired on Sunday nights. He also co-hosts a daily Dolphins show on WQAM.

Before joining WPLG, Cefalo assembled a long list of impressive broadcast credentials. He is best known for his work as a color analyst on NBC's network telecasts of the NFL and also served as a correspondent for NBC News on the “Today Show,” sports anchor for “NBC News at Sunrise” and co-host of NBC's broadcast of the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul. Cefalo also co-hosted “PM Magazine” and “AM South Florida” on WTVJ-TV and hosted the “Trump Card” game show, nationally distributed by Warner Brothers Television.

In 1988, Cefalo snared an Emmy for his writing on NBC's Olympic telecasts. In addition, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association named him Florida Sportscaster of the Year six times (1998, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005).

Prior to his broadcasting career, Cefalo played seven seasons with the Dolphins (1978-84) as a wide receiver, and finished with 93 catches for 1,739 yards and 13 touchdowns. His best season came in 1981, when he caught 29 passes for 631 yards (21.8 yards per catch) and three touchdowns. He also was a member of two Dolphins Super Bowl teams, and in Super Bowl XVII against the Washington Redskins, he caught a 76-yard touchdown pass from David Woodley, which at the time was the second-longest reception in Super Bowl history. Cefalo originally joined the Dolphins as a third-round draft choice in 1978 following a stellar collegiate career at Penn State.

Joe Rose joins Cefalo on the team's radio broadcasts, and like Cefalo he built a broadcast career after his playing days ended. He is in his seventh season as a Dolphins radio analyst and also serves as the Sports Director for WTVJ-TV (Channel 6), joining that station in 1992. In past years he has hosted “The Coaches Show” on that outlet and is featured on the station's successful “Sunday Sports Final” as well. Along with his television work, Rose is well-known locally for his popular 7:00-10:00 a.m. weekday show on WQAM.

Rose was a Dolphins tight end from 1980-85, and in that time caught 112 passes for 1,493 yards and 13 touchdowns. He had his best year in 1983, when he had 29 catches for 345 yards and three touchdowns. He is best known for catching Dan Marino's first regular season touchdown pass, a six-yard reception on September 19, 1983 in Los Angeles versus the Raiders. Rose originally was a seventh-round draft pick of the Dolphins in 1980 after playing at the University of California.

On the Spanish broadcasts, Raul Striker, Jr. returns for his sixth season. In addition to those duties, he is well-known for his extensive sports reporting on Spanish radio and television outlets in South Florida.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

All four Miami Dolphin preseason games will be broadcast on WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami, the 16th consecutive season WFOR has served as the preseason home of the Dolphins. In addition, the games can also be seen on WBBH/NBC Ch. 2 and WBBH-D2/Comcast Ch. 216 (Spanish) in Naples/Ft Myers; WTVX-CW Ch. 34 and WWHB Ch. 48 (Spanish) in West Palm Beach/Treasure Coast and WRDQ Ch. 27 in Orlando.

The Dolphins' 2011 preseason gets underway as the team ventures outside South Florida to face the reigning NFC South Champions, the Atlanta Falcons on Friday, August 12 at the Georgia Dome. The game will be the second time that the Dolphins will begin the preseason in Atlanta; the first was in 1993 which resulted in a 28-27 Miami victory. The game will be at 7:30 PM and will be televised live on WFOR, WBBH, and WTVX.

The Dolphins will make their initial home appearance in 2011 the following week when they welcome the Carolina Panthers to Sun Life Stadium on Friday, August 19. The Panthers will make their second appearance in South Florida in three years as the teams clash for just the third time in the preseason. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 PM and the game will be televised live on WFOR, WBBH, and WTVX if it is sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis.

Miami and Tampa Bay will meet for the 12th consecutive season and 19th time in 21 years when the Dolphins visit Raymond James Stadium to face their in-state rivals on Saturday, August 27. The contest will be televised live on WFOR, WBBH, and WTVX at 7:30 PM.

The Dolphins will then close out the 2011 preseason by welcoming the Dallas Cowboys to South Florida on Thursday, Sept. 1 at 7:30 PM. The game will be just the fifth time that the two teams have squared off in preseason play and the first time since 1992. It will be televised live on WFOR, WBBH, and WTVX if it is sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis.

Dick Stockton begins his second season handling the play-by-play for the games on WFOR. Stockton has a long history of covering almost every major sports event on a national level. Currently he is a member of FOX's NFL broadcast team and also handles national telecasts of Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association on both FOX and Turner Sports. Joining Stockton as a color analyst will be former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese, who just finished a long tenure on ABC and ESPN's broadcast teams for college football. In addition, Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary. Kim Bokamper, sports anchor of WFOR and a former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker, will continue in his role on WFOR's broadcast team as a sideline reporter.

DATE	OPPONENT	BROADCAST	TIME (EDT)

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least one week in advance to: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press will call booth, located outside Gate H of Sun Life Stadium, on the day of the game. ALL members of the media picking up credentials at the will call window must present a valid photo identification. In addition, all media members must show a valid photo identification upon entering the stadium. The media entrance is at Gate H.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area. ALL photographers are required to wear a vest that must be obtained prior to the game in the photo tent located right inside Gate B. All photographers must kneel when shooting in either the East or West end zone.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: Still photography of any kind is NOT permitted at any time in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week.

VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHY: Video photography is limited to just interviews in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week. B-roll footage is NOT permitted at any time.

EDWIN POPE PRESS BOX: To get to the Edwin Pope Press Box, enter at Gate H. Go through a set of double doors and turn right to access the press elevator. Exit the elevator on the second floor and the press box is to your left on both the second and third floors. Individuals with "Press Box A" credentials should exit the main press box doors on the third level and proceed right. Walk through the Club Level to the Press Box A doors on the right. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins will be honored for admittance to Sun Life Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with a number "3" will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on the ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator, bear right and go through the double doors to the corridor. Go straight to the main corridor and turn left. The Dolphins' locker room will be on your left, and the interview room will be about 20 yards further, also on the left. Continue straight past the Gate A tunnel, and the visitor's interview room, as well as the visitor's locker room, will be on the left.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Head Coach Tony Sparano will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium.

PARKING: Press parking at Sun Life Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Joe Curbelo of the Miami Dolphins Information Technology department, (305/943-6586). Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

WIRELESS ACCESS: Sun Life Stadium offers wireless internet access in all areas of the press boxes. The access is free of charge and works with all wi-fi enabled computer equipment. For those computers that do not have wi-fi capabilities, every seat is equipped with a "Cat 5" ethernet network jack to which members of the media can connect using a Cat 5 ethernet patch cable.

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper, network TV photographers, club/stadium officials and a limited number of local TV photographers are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by the Miami Dolphins.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations; Fitz Ollison, Director of Communication; Jason Jenkins, Director of Media Relations; and Gayle Baden, Executive Assistant. Office phone number is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova Southeastern University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

DIRECTIONS

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow 826 North to exit for Florida Turnpike North. Take Turnpike North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO SUN LIFE STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Upon approaching stadium, follow signs for "Stadium via I-95" (DO NOT take turnpike extension -exit 47 Homestead). Get off at Exit 2X (Dan Marino Blvd./199th St.). Proceed off exit and make a right onto Dan Marino Blvd. Enter through Parking Gate 4, which is on the right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO SUN LIFE STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street/Dan Marino Blvd.) and stadium is on right. Enter parking Gate 4.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club has had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games. The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

Original Date, Venue	Opponent	New Date, Venue	Reason	Result
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	New England	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17
10/26/97, Pro Player Stadium	Chicago	10/27/97, PPS	World Series	Bears, 36-33, OT
9/16/01, Pro Player Stadium	Buffalo	1/6/02, PPS	9/11	Dolphins, 34-7
10/27/03, Qualcomm Stadium	San Diego	10/27/03, Sun Devil	California Wildfires	Dolphins, 26-10
9/12/04, Pro Player Stadium	Tennessee	9/11/04, PPS	Hurricane Ivan	Titans, 17-7
10/23/05, Dolphins Stadium	Kansas City	10/21/05, DS	Hurricane Wilma	Chiefs, 30-20

DOLPHINS COACHING LONGEVITY

In 2007, former Dolphins secondary coach Mel Phillips wrapped up an impressive 23-year stint as an assistant on the team's coaching staff, a span which began in 1985. Over this time, Phillips served under six of the first seven head coaches in team history. Phillips' 23-year tenure with the club is the second-longest among assistant coaches in team history and third overall, including head coaches.

COACH	NO.	YEARS
Don Shula, Head Coach	26	1970-95
Carl Tasseff, Assistant	24	1970-93
Mel Phillips, Assistant	23	1985-2007
Tom Keane, Assistant	20	1966-85
John Sandusky, Assistant	19	1976-94

- 2011 -

August 11-15 - First Preseason Weekend.

August 12 - Deadline: if a Drafted Rookie has not signed a Player Contract by August 12, he cannot be traded during his initial League Year and may sign a Player Contract only with the drafting Club until the day of the Draft in the next League Year.

August 13-17 - Each Club has until five days prior to its second pre-season game to provide any tendered but unsigned Exclusive Rights Player or Restricted Free Agent with written notice of the Club's intent to place the player on the Exempt List if the player fails to report at least the day before the Club's second preseason game.

August 18-22 - Second Preseason Weekend.

August 20 - Deadline for June 1 Tender to Unrestricted Free Agents. If the player has not signed a Player Contract with a Club by September 3, he may negotiate or sign a Player Contract from September 3 until the Tuesday following the tenth week of the regular season, at 4:00 p.m. New York time, only with his Prior Club.

August 24 - Deadline for Old Club to exercise Right of First Refusal to Restricted Free Agents.

August 25 - Deadline for June 1 Tender to Restricted Free Agents who have received a Qualifying Offer for a Right of First Refusal Only. The Prior Club shall be the only Club with which the player may negotiate or sign a Player Contract during the period from August 25 until the Tuesday following the tenth week of the regular season.

August 25-28 - Third Preseason Weekend.

August 30 - Roster reduction from 90 players to 75 players.

September 1-2 - Fourth Preseason Weekend.

September 3 - Roster reduction to 53 players. Signing Period ends for Unrestricted Free Agents who received the June 1 Tender.

September 5 - Deadline for June 15 Tender to Restricted Free Agents. If player's Qualifying Offer is greater than 110% of the player's prior year's Paragraph 5 Salary (with all other terms of his prior year contract carried forward unchanged), the Club may withdraw the Qualifying Offer on September 5 and retain its exclusive negotiating rights to the player, so long as the Club immediately tenders the player a one-year Player Contract of at least 110% of his prior year's Paragraph 5 Salary, with all the terms of his prior year's contract carried forward unchanged.

September 8-12 - First Regular Season weekend.

September 20 - Deadline at 4:00 p.m., New York time, for any Club that designated a Franchise Player to sign such player to a multi-year contract or extension. After this date, the player may sign only a one-year contract with his Prior Club for the 2011 season, and such contract may not be extended until after the Club's last regular season game.

- 2012 -

January 7-8 - Wild Card Playoff Games.

January 14-15 - Divisional Playoff Games.

January 22 - AFC and NFC Championship Games.

January 29 - AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, Aloha Stadium, Honolulu, Hawaii.

February 5 - Super Bowl XLVI, Lucas Oil Stadium, Indianapolis, Indiana.

- 2013 -

February 3* - Super Bowl XLVII, Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, Louisiana.

- 2014 -

February 2* - Super Bowl XLVIII, New Meadowlands Stadium, New York-New Jersey.

*Tentative date.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Achilles' Tendon – The tendon at the back of the heel.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anterogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Articular Cartilage – Cartilage lining the opposing surfaces of bones.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – A localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner – Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture – Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia – A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavical – The collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Cortisone – An anti-inflammatory medication.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement – The removal of foreign material and dead or damaged tissue.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fascia – A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacar-pophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Impingement Syndrome – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) – Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Malleolus – Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle and to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Medial Retinaculum – The band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and patellar tendon.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as “cartilage.” There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia – Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as “jumpers knee.”

Patellar Femoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar – Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantar Fascia – The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax – A collection of air or gas that enters the cavity surrounding the lungs as a result of a perforation through the chest wall or the cavity wall.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles “Quads” – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) – Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis – Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Stinger – Common term for plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) – The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.
